Major Major Terry Major-Ball,1994      Our Times A. N. Wilson,2011-01-04 When Queen Elizabeth II was crowned in 1953 many proclaimed the start of a new Elizabethan Age Few had any inkling however of the stupendous changes that would occur over the next fifty years both in Britain and around the world In Our Times A N Wilson takes the reader on an exhilarating journey through postwar Britain With his acute eye not just for the broad social and cultural sweep but also for the telling detail he brilliantly distills half a century of unprecedented social and political change Here are the defining events and characters of the modern age from the Suez crisis to Vietnam from the Beatles to Princess Diana Here are the Angry Young Men the rise of pop culture and celebrity industrial unrest and the Winter of Discontent the Thatcher era and the eventual collapse of the Soviet Union This book propels the reader from postwar austerity to the end of the British Empire and the emergence of America as a superpower to the multicultural Britain of today With Our Times Wilson triumphantly concludes the acclaimed trilogy that opened with The Victorians and was followed by After the Victorians Our Times makes compelling reading for anyone interested in the forces that have shaped our world      A Century of Premiers D. This book examines attitudes towards German held captive in Britain drawing on original archival material including newspaper and newsreel content diaries sociological surveys and opinion polls as well as official documentation and the archives of pressure groups and protest movements Moving beyond conventional assessments of POW treatment which have focused on the development of policy diplomatic relations and the experience of the POWs themselves this study refocuses the debate onto the attitude of the British public towards the standard of treatment of German POWs In so doing it reveals that the issue of POW treatment intersected with discussions of state power human rights gender relations civility and national character
