emperors died by assassination or under attack by pretenders to his throne Who was guarding the guardians For students of Rome and modern social studies too this will provide a fascinating read England Timothy Darvill, Jane Timby, Paul Stamper, 2002 Traveling around England is in many senses a journey back in time On all sides and sometimes even under the road or footpath itself there are fragments of the ancient past alongside the clutter of the modern world Medieval villages castles ancient churches and Roman villas are commonplace and take us back to the time of Christ And far older yet equally abundant are the barrows hillforts stone circles camps standing stones trackways and other relics of prehistoric times Now thanks to these three archaeologists each a specialist in one of the three periods covered by the Guide prehistoric Roman and medieval readers have the chance to not only explore but to understand in context these fascinating sites and ruins In addition to reporting on such well known sites as Stonehenge and Hadrian's Wall and cities such as London and York which themselves offer a wealth of archaeological remains the book also covers smaller lesser known sites throughout the country An introductory section provides background to the monuments and a reference section provides definitions further reading and information about museum collections Finally there are 200 photographs plans and maps that depict and describe these ancient remains in detail The Idea of the Castle in Medieval England Abigail Wheatley, 2015 Medieval castles have traditionally been examined as feats of military engineering tools of feudal control This book presents a different perspective by exploring the castle as a cultural reflection of the society that produced it seen through art literature Traveling with Philosophes Ken Ewell, 2006-08 Join a fellow traveler on a walkabout through Paris and London and then travel with him across England Scotland and Wales After those walkabouts accompany him as he journeys across America and follows the equator to Australia Finally wander with him along the corridors of modern and postmodern philosophy and as he travels with old and new Philosophes who all voiced an opinion as regards this travel book It is a book that people won't buy won't read and won't praise Mark Twain After reading only a few pages I gave up the study of philosophy forever Voltaire I cannot look upon the book without shedding tears Bertrand Russell If I could only make a travel book like that I would be perfectly willing to die even anxious John Dewey I have seen a great many travel books in my time but none that this one reminds me of Will Durant This travel book is one third fabrication one third prevarication and one third barefaced lies However the rest of the book is the unadulterated truth Dr Morris A Nussbaum Ancient Rome Michael Shepherd, 1995 This unit designed for use with intermediate and junior high school students centers on Ancient Rome and contains literature selections poetry writing ideas curriculum connections to other subjects group projects and more The literary works included are Ancient Rome by Simon James
