make a burglar's life extremely difficult and encourage them to simply move on and choose an easier target. Are your door locks really enough? You might be surprised to find out which door locks burglars love to see on a door. Make sure that your locks are the ones they absolutely HATE. Window locks will they really prevent a break in? Burglars are generally not fond of noise. It attracts attention from neighbors and means they don't have time to get the good stuff. We'll explain what locks you should look at and also explain an extremely low cost alternative to consider.

Home Security Tips James Smith, 2012-01-08. All homes today contain items that we feel are extremely valuable to us and so it seems only sensible that we should ensure that our home is well protected against any possible attempts for a person to try and gain access to your home. Is it just me or do we spend more time worrying about the safety of our computers these days than the safety of our own homes? You've got firewalls and virus protection for your CPU but have you changed your door locks since you moved into your house? Do you have ladders tools and other things lying around your yard that a burglar could use to break a window and access your home? Do you have an alarm system you never arm? Windows you leave open. Doors left unlocked. When was the last time you walked around your house and thinking like a burglar considered just how easy it would be to break in? Yeah that's what I thought. Let's take a increased and it does not matter where you live When people think of a break in they think of someone gaining entry into their home through breaking some glass or smashing down doors Yet there are certain things which could actually extend an invitation to those intruders to make an attempt at getting into your home There are many places which are vulnerable to attack by an intruder to your home and therefore you must set up a routine which will provide them with less opportunities of attempting to break in Below we look at what are considered to be some of the weak areas in your home security routine which could help to prevent any kind of break in from occurring

1 Keys You may think it is a great idea but lending keys to family and friends as well as those people who carry out work in your home greatly increases the chances of your keys being placed in the wrong hands Although the people you leave the key with might be completely trustworthy you cannot control where the keys are once they are out of your hands and the chances of their being duplicated are greatly increased So it is important that you think deeply about whom you are leaving your keys with Also never place your keys in those secret places outside the home as a smart burglar may know exactly where to look for them
