Make a Big Impact @ Your School Board Meeting Margaux DelGuidice-Calemmo, Rose M. Luna, 2012-05-15 This book details effective strategies for promoting a library beyond the building level in order to make an impact with the influential individuals who make the key decisions that directly affect the school district and library program Make a Big Impact Your School Board Meeting was inspired by the authors experiences speaking at local and national library conferences on the topic of making presentations to school boards and forging relationships with key administrators It became clear that many librarians are unsure how to create a comprehensive marketing plan and are simply too busy with their day to day tasks to tackle this daunting project This book is written specifically for K 12 librarians in the field It can also serve as an instructional tool for school library certification programs It spotlights the importance of ongoing advocacy and leadership teaches school librarians how to demonstrate the tremendous value of their library programs and how they directly impact student achievement and showcases library specific marketing techniques that can be used during good and poor economic times By using the straightforward methods and tools provided librarians will greatly improve their ability to avoid detrimental budget cuts to their programs

Create Your School Library Writing Center Timothy Horan, 2016-10-16 Colleges typically have writing centers to which students can bring their writing assignments to a peer tutor for assistance but most high schools and middle schools do not This book advocates for the creation of writing centers in K 12 schools and explains why the school library is the best place for the writing center

There is a glaring absence of writing centers in today's K-12 schools. More and more students are being asked in college entrance testing to submit samples of their writing and employers are expecting their workers to write correctly and clearly. This book addresses the critical lack of writing centers below the undergraduate level. It demonstrates how middle school and high school librarians can create writing centers in their school libraries, explains how to assist students through a one-on-one writing tutorial method, and gives students and teachers the tools for learning and understanding the complex art of writing. Author Timothy Horan, inventor of the School Library Writing Center, establishes why school libraries represent the best and most logical places to create writing centers and why school librarians are the natural choice to direct writing center operations. He then takes readers through the process of creating a writing center from original conception up through opening day. Additional topics covered include how to publicize and grow your School Library Writing Center, maintaining your writing center for efficient operation on a daily basis as well as for years to come, how to become an effective writing center director and writing tutor, the most current technology that can be used to assist in the writing composition and research process, and working with English language learner (ELL) students within your writing center.

School Publication Los Angeles City School District, 1927 Teaching and Targets John Blanchard, 2013-01-11 Teachers, school managers, and governors are now more publicly accountable than ever. They are expected to know how their school is performing and how to improve that performance. Target setting is a key tool in the drive to raise standards and has been implemented at every level of the education system. This book explores target setting from both the teacher's and pupil's viewpoint and investigates the role of assessment in successful teaching and learning. It shows that it is possible to develop a whole school target setting policy, coordinating the use of targets for individual pupils, subject-specific departments, and teams, and whole school improvement plans. In this way, targets can be used positively for the benefit of pupils, teachers, and managers. This book will be important reading for headteachers, senior management teams, assessment coordinators, and subject leaders in schools and will also be of interest to governors and LEA advisors. Triage Your School Christopher Jenson, 2024-02-26 Triage Your School offers school leaders insight into why current attempts to resolve educator burnout often fail and provides meaningful solutions. Engage in your work with a new perspective. Apply operational strategies from leading healthcare settings that scale well to school operations and prevent teachers from leaving the profession. When educators triage daily tasks, share workflow across teams, create emotional boundaries, and cultivate other essential skills, the demands of the job will no longer exceed their capacity. K-12 school administrators and teachers will learn why self-care practices alone aren't solving the educator burnout crisis. Focus on five action items that mitigate the driving forces behind most cases of teacher burnout. Reconnect with their passion as educators while creating appropriate boundaries and acknowledging limits. Explore and implement a triage process to manage an ever-expanding workflow. Be guided with next steps and receive tools to implement in classrooms. Be prepared to acknowledge and respond to serious challenges like the youth mental health crisis which requires intentional care Contents Part 1 Traveling the Lonely Path Insight Into Career Burnout Chapter 1 Exploring Career Burnout Chapter 2 Understanding Why Self Care Is Not Enough Part 2 Pressing Control Alt Delete Resetting School Operations and Expectations Chapter 3 Action Item 1 Effectively Triaging Responsibilities Chapter 4 Action Item 2 Leveraging Shared Workflow Chapter 5 Action Item 3 Allocating Energy for Impact Chapter 6 Action Item 4 Negotiating Work Demands Chapter 7 Action Item 5 Realigning Work With Passion Conclusion Making Your Next Move
