Make Me Clean:

No Longer Bound James Henry Harris, 2013-05-14 No Longer Bound is about the intersection of reading comprehension and interpretation that leads to the development of a powerful and transformative sermon. Reading facilitates the interpretive process which is the essence of any sermon. The sermon is an interpretation of an interpretation and as such presents itself as a new gospel message. The ability to write and preach a sermon is an exercise in freedom. The book is grounded in a narrative theological form that begins with the author's experience and filters that experience through the lens of hermeneutic philosophy and theology. Reading and preaching constitute the thread that runs throughout the book. The book suggests that the sermon is the philosophic theology of Black practical religion inasmuch as the Black church is central to religion and culture. This is a fresh and new understanding of homiletics, philosophical theology, and interpretation theory that is intended to produce better preachers and more powerful and life-changing sermons by all who endeavor to preach. After Before

Jemma Wayne, 2014-06-01 Three women beset by trauma, temptation, and regret find each other in this rich, haunted, gripping novel. Ruth Padel, award-winning author of Beethoven Variations. That was the day that Mama made the rules. If they come, run. Be quiet and run. But not together. Never together. If one is found, at least the other survives. During a cold British winter, three women, each suffering her own demons, reach a crisis point. Emily, an immigrant survivor of the Rwandan genocide, is existing but not living. Vera, a newly Christian Londoner, is striving to live a moral life, her happiness constantly undermined by secrets from her past. Lynn, battling with an untimely disease, is consumed by bitterness and resentment of what she hasn't achieved and what has been snatched from her. Their lives have been torn open by betrayal by other people, by themselves, by life itself. But as their paths interweave, they begin to unravel their beleaguered pasts and inadvertently change each other's futures. Longlisted for the Baileys Women's Prize for Fiction. Test

William Sleator, 2010-12-31 Now in paperback. Pass and have it made. Fail and suffer the consequences. A master of teen thrillers tests readers' courage in an edge-of-your-seat novel that echoes the fears of exam takers everywhere. Ann, a teenage girl living in the security-obsessed, elitist United States of the very near future, is threatened on her way home from school by a mysterious man on a black motorcycle. Soon she and a new friend are caught up in a vast conspiracy of greed involving the mega-wealthy owner of a school testing company. Students who pass his test have it made; those who don't disappear or worse. Will Ann be next? For all those who suspect standardized tests are an evil conspiracy, here's a thriller that really satisfies. Praise for Test: Fast-paced with short chapters that end in cliffhangers. Good read for moderately reluctant readers. Teens will be able to draw comparisons to contemporary society's shift toward standardized testing and ecological concerns and are sure to appreciate the spoofs on NCLB. School Library Journal. Part mystery, part action thriller, part romance, environmental and political overtones. Fast pace and unique blend of genres holds attraction for younger teen readers. Booklist. Works in progress.. Cecilia Hood Ceewee, 2024-07-09 Magnificent family and friends. Let's keep praising and raising his name up, giving him all the glory and the praise for what he's already

The Testimony of the Evangelists Simon Greenleaf,2023-05-03 To the Members of the Legal Profession Gentlemen The subject of the following work I hope will not be deemed so foreign to our professional pursuits as to render it improper for me to dedicate it as I now respectfully do to you If a close examination of the evidences of Christianity may be expected of one class of men more than another it would seem incumbent on us who make the law of evidence one of our peculiar studies Our profession leads us to explore the mazes of falsehood to detect its artifices to pierce its thickest veils to follow and expose its sophistries to compare the statements of different witnesses with severity to discover truth and separate it from error Our fellow men are well aware of this and probably they act upon this knowledge more generally and with a more profound repose than we are in the habit of considering The influence too of the legal profession upon the community is unquestionably great conversant as it daily is with all classes and grades of men in their domestic and social relations and in all the affairs of life from the cradle to the grave This influence we are constantly exerting for good or ill and hence to refuse to acquaint ourselves with the evidences of the Christian religion or to act as though having fully examined we lightly
