Make Me Laugh:

She Made Me Laugh Richard M. Cohen, 2017-09-05 The writer and filmmaker Nora Ephron is captured by her long time and dear friend Richard Cohen in a recollection of their decades long friendship

She Made Me Laugh Stephanie Emmons, 2020-10-06 Most people likely know of Mother Teresa's great faithfulness to God's call as she started her ministry to the poor in Calcutta. But at the time few knew that she had lost all sense of God's presence, love, and sometimes the assurance that God existed at all. Astonishingly for 50 years the saint's life was spent in what she called the darkness. Yet somehow Mother Teresa managed to get up every morning and say yes to God. And not only did she say yes, she came to accept the darkness while also allowing a sense of humor and even playfulness to shine through. This book is a memoir of the author's direct experiences with Mother Teresa during a trip to Calcutta in 1996 when she discovered that sense of humor first hand. It is also an extended reflection on the beloved saint's dark night of the soul and what that might mean for spiritual seekers today

Make 'Em Laugh Steve Allen, 2013-05-24 The success of Steve Allen's How To Be Funny led first to the republication of that book and now occasioned a companion volume Make Em Laugh. This new how to book about the art of comedy includes an even richer assortment of examples of the author's unique humor. In Make Em Laugh Allen laces his formal instruction with hilarious ad libbed written jokes, TV comedy sketches, satires, song parodies, humorous essays, amusing autobiographical reminiscences, one act plays, witty speeches, and stand up monologues from his comedy concerts. Noel Coward called Steve Allen the most talented man in America and he is probably the most borrowed from comedian of all time. The perceptive reader will recognize many of the comic ideas that Allen originated during the Golden Age of television comedy ideas that are still influential in the 1990's. If there were a college course in creating and performing comedy, Make Em Laugh would be the ideal textbook

God Makes Me Laugh Joseph A. Grassi, 2009-03-23 God has made me Laugh and all who hear about it will laugh at me. These are the words of Sarah after she bore a child to Abraham when both were in advanced old age. Sarah named this child Isaac which means laughter. Thus believers as descendants of Abraham and Isaac are children of laughter. Luke takes the theme of joy and laughter through his whole gospel. The angels at Jesus's birth announce good news of great joy to all the people. Jesus presents his teaching in the form of grace and surprise which prompt joy and laughter on the part of the gospel audience. Luke has before him the image of a laughing Jesus. As a climactic story, Jesus visits Jericho near the Dead Sea. The chief tax collector for Rome, Zaccheus, a most unpopular man, small in stature and character as well, climbs a tree so he can see Jesus coming in spite of the crowds. Jesus spots him with laughter and calls out to the dismay of the crowd. Zaccheus hurries up and climbs down. I'm going to have dinner at your house today. Luke's gospel presents Jesus as a comic contrast to many ultra-serious religious teachers by his concern for the outcast, strangers, and marginalized of society

Don't Make Me Laugh Julia Raeside, 2025-02-13 A great book, an important book that will start a discussion that needs to be had. My heart was in my mouth. Marian Keyes. Exhilarating, viscerally thrilling, and SO timely. An

What Made Freud Laugh Judith Kay Nelson, 2012 In her characteristically engaging style Nelson argues that laughter is based in the attachment system which explains much about its confusing and apparently contradictory qualities This lively book sheds light on the ways in which we connect grow and transform and how through shared humor play and delight we have fun doing so

Riveted: The Science of Why Jokes Make Us Laugh, Movies Make Us Cry, and Religion Makes Us Feel One with the Universe Jim Davies, 2014-08-05 Why do some things pass under the radar of our attention but other things capture our interest Why do some religions catch on and others fade away What makes a story a movie or a book riveting Why do some people keep watching the news even though it makes them anxious The past 20 years have seen a remarkable flourishing of scientific research into exactly these kinds of questions Professor Jim Davies fascinating and highly accessible book Riveted reveals the evolutionary underpinnings of why we find things compelling from art to religion and from sports to superstition Compelling things fit our minds like keys in the ignition turning us on and keeping us running and yet we are often unaware of what makes these keys fit What we like and don't like is almost always determined by subconscious forces and when we try to consciously predict our own preferences we're often wrong In one study of speed dating people were asked what kinds of partners they found attractive When the results came back the participants' answers before the exercise had no correlation with who they actually found attractive in person We are beginning to understand just how much the brain makes our decisions for us we are rewarded with a rush of pleasure when we detect patterns as the brain thinks we've discovered something significant the mind urges us to linger on the news channel or rubberneck an accident in case it might pick up important survival information it even pushes us to pick up People magazine in order to find out about changes in the social structure Drawing on work from philosophy anthropology religious studies psychology economics computer science and biology Davies offers a comprehensive explanation to show that in spite of the differences between the many things that we find compelling they have similar effects on our minds and brains
