America in Black and White Stephan Thernstrom, Abigail Thernstrom, 1999 This wide reaching survey of race relations in America over the past 50 years takes a controversial stance that the perception of serious race divisions in this country is outdated and dangerous I'm Black. I'm Christian. I'm Methodist. Lillian C. Smith, Erin Beasley, Justin Coleman, Jevon Caldwell-Gross, Pamela R. Lightsey, F. Willis Johnson, Vance P. Ross, Rodney Lorenzo Graves, Tori C. Butler, Rev. Rudy Rasmus, 2020-11-03 Ten personal narratives reveal the shared and distinct struggles of being Black in the Church facing historic and modern racism It s uncertain that Howard Thurman made the remark often attributed to him I have been writing this book all my life but there is little doubt that he was deeply immersed in reflection on the times that bear an uncanny resemblance to the present day which give voice to the Black Lives Matter movement Our life s book is filled with sentence upon sentence of marginalization pages of apartheid chapters of separate and unequal Now this season reveals volumes of violence against Blacks in America Ten Black women and men explore life through the lens of compelling personal religious narratives They are people and leaders whose lives are tangible demonstrations of the power of a divine purpose and evidence of what grace really means in face of hardship disappointment and determination Each of the journeys intersect because of three central elements that are the focus of this book We re Black We re Christians We re Methodists Each starts with the fact I m Black but to resolve the conflict of being Christian and Methodist means confronting aspects of White theology White supremacy and White racism in order to ground an oppositional experience toward domination over four centuries in America The confluence of the everyday indignities of being Black in America the outrageous egregious legalized lynching of George Floyd and the unforgivable disparities exposed once again by COVID 19 have conspired together to create a seminal moment in America and in The United Methodist Church in which we must find the courage to say unambiguously Black Lives Matter To stumble or choke on those words is beneath the gospel says Bishop Gregory Palmer who wrote the foreword to the collection Praise for I m Black I m Christian I m Methodist This book made me shout dance rage and hope all at once As a cradle Methodist I have deep love for my church and bless it for nurturing my walk with Christ and my passion for social justice At the same time I lament that my church is also the place where I have witnessed and been most wounded by virulent racism sexism heterosexism and ageism Yet I stay and struggle for the soul of the church because I am a Black Christian woman fired by the love of God in Christ Jesus I stay because this is MY church and the church of my ancestors Although I regularly question my decision to remain United Methodist it is stories like these from other exuberant love warriors that remind me that I am called by God to stay pray fight and flourish M Garlinda Burton deaconess and interim general secretary General Commission of Religion and Race Washington DC Racism continues to be the unacceptable scandal of American society and the American churches In spite of some gains such as the diversity of supporters for Black Lives Matter even the best intentioned among us remain largely ignorant of the actual life experience of those who are other than ourselves This collection of testimonies edited by Rudy Rasmus helps remedy that by simply recounting personal stories of being Black Christian and Methodist in the United States White Methodist Christians in particular need to read these stories and take them to heart so that racism and its divisiveness is countered by shared experience and recognition of common humanity across difference More White Methodists need not only reject racism in our society and church but become active anti racists willing to do the hard work to create the beloved community dreamed about by Martin Luther King in the 1960s civil rights movement Bruce C Birch Dean Emeritus and Professor Emeritus of Biblical Theology Wesley Theological Seminary Washington DC This book is a powerful collection interweaving personal stories denominational and intercultural practices and Black lives bearing hopeful witness Readers will have their consciousness raised and they will think more deeply about the meaning of beloved community and the embodiment of the justice of God Harold J Recinos Professor of Church and Society Perkins School of Theology SMU Dallas Texas For hundreds of years we have not listened This book is our chance to hear the words of the Black leaders in our church They will change us remake us and reform us Get ready to be transformed by painful truth and deep love Rev Dr Dottie Escobedo Frank Lead Pastor Catalina United Methodist Church Tucson Arizona I m Black gives readers a clear picture of the diversity and value of Black culture in church and society After reading the dynamic stories told by these faithful transformative church leaders Black lives will be cherished and systemic change for the better will take place Joseph W Daniels Jr Lead Pastor Emory United Methodist Church Washington D C Dr Rudy Rasmus and others give an insightful look into what it means to be black Christian and Methodist in America Their perspectives on the status and plight of being black in America are both engaging and riveting If you are looking for ways to better understand the nuances and many faces of African American Methodist evangelical life in America this book is a must read The Reverend J Elvin Sadler D Min General Secretary Auditor The A M E Zion Church Assistant Dean for Doctoral Studies United Theological Seminary Dayton Ohio I endorse this powerful book of Essays conceived and edited by my friend Pastor Rudy Rasmus It is a book for our current and future realities facing the Black Church a must read Deborah Bass Vice Chairperson National BMCR What's Going On Nathan McCall,1998-12-29 With the same personal authority and exhilarating directness he brought to his account of his passage from a prison cell to the newsroom of The Washington Post Nathan McCall delivers a series of front line reports on the state of the races in today s America The resulting volume is guaranteed to shake the assumptions of readers of every pigmentation and political allegiance In What s Going On McCall adds up the hidden costs of the stereotype of black athletic prowess which tells African American teenagers that they can only succeed on the white man s terms He introduces a fresh perspective to the debates on gangsta rap and sexual violence He indicts the bigotry of white churches and the complacency of the black suburban middle class celebrates the heroism of Muhammad Ali and defends the truth telling of Alice Walker Engaging provocative and utterly fearless here is a commentator to reckon with addressing our most persistent divisions in a voice of stinging immediacy Prison Psalms Anna Riley-Hiscox,2022-03-21 A lived experience is how one witnesses anger depression anxiety and hope This book tells the truth as one unconditionally listens and engages with incarcerated human beings Intransitively the author is imprisoned in her mind through poetic verse but can self reflect without bars Help for

McCall's survival had been an act of defiance against a culture and political system designed to keep black men down. Today from the halls of a revered university McCall gives thought to how many white Americans remain conditioned to racial blindness and can't see their way out. Our country's promise of equality continues to ring hollow as young black men are murdered on our streets and constrained behind bars in astonishing numbers. In this timely intimate essay Nathan McCall reflects on what it means to stand tall and fashion life on one's own terms and urges us to recognize that what will make America great is not growing its wealth or might overseas but doing right by its people at home.
