Making A Killing:

Making a Killing Bob Torres, 2007 Using Marxism anarchism and social ecology to explore domination power and hierarchy the author criticizes the use and abuse of animals in capitalist society and argues for the abolition of animal involvement in industry and as a human food source Making a Killing Madelaine Drohan, 2010-08-06 A dramatic and compelling journey into the dark heart of globalization What happens when multinational corporations decide that the use of armed force is just business by other means In Making a Killing Madelaine Drohan looks at the shocking number of companies that have linked up with mercenaries warlords armies and private militias in order to make a profit In a world where multinationals often rival national governments in size and clout the implications of such partnerships are ominous What leads respectable corporations down the path to violence Drohan answers this question by examining the actions of several companies operating in Africa such as Ranger Oil West Africa which used the mercenary group Executive Outcomes to take on rebels in Angola's long running civil war and Talisman Energy whose security was provided by Sudanese army units conducting a scorched earth policy in the oil fields Drohan traces the modern roots of corporate armed force beginning with Cecil Rhodes British South Africa Company which at the turn of the century built its own army Also included is the stranger than fiction tale of ex MI5 spymaster Sir Percy Sillitoe who was hired by the De Beers diamond king to prevent the Soviet Union from acquiring smuggled diamonds in order to develop the hydrogen bomb These accounts read like adventure stories in the tradition of Rudyard Kipling and Ian Fleming but they are essential reading for anyone interested in the effects of unfettered multinational influence Making a Killing provides a road map for corporations policy makers and investors struggling to come to terms with their roles in today s increasingly globalized world Making A Killing Iain McDowall, 2012-09-06 Chief Inspector Jacobson is starting to wish he d stayed on holiday The Crowby Crawler a notorious serial rapist is back on the streets with a mob of baying vigilantes at his heels It s almost a relief professionally at least when he s assigned what appears to be an open and shut murder case Bored adulterous Jenny Mortimer lies dead on the driveway and her jealous domineering husband Gus hasn t the shred of an alibi Even when DS Kerr casts doubt on the simplicity of the case Jacobson isn t overly concerned If Gus hasn t done it Jacobson has his eye on another suspect just as close to home Jenny's youthful bohemian lover Kevin Holland But when Jacobson starts to investigate Gus Mortimer's business interests it soon becomes clear that this simple crime of passion is anything but Making a Killing Joey Clarke, 2008 Making a Killing John Nassivera, 1986 Making A Killing James Ashcroft, 2011-07-31 In September 2003 James Ash Ashcroft a former British Infantry Captain arrived in Iraq as a gun for hire It was the beginning of an 18 month journey into blood and chaos In this action packed page turner Ashcroft reveals the dangers of his adrenalin fuelled life as a security contractor in Baghdad where private soldiers outnumber non US Coalition forces in a war that is slowly being privatised From blow by blow accounts of days under mortar bombardment to revelations about life operating deep within the Iraqi community Ashcroft shares the real unsanitised story of the war in Iraq and its aftermath direct from the front line Making a Killing Alicia Gaspar de Alba, Georgina Guzmán, 2010-11-01 Since 1993 more than five hundred women and girls have been murdered in Ciudad Ju rez across the border from El Paso Texas At least a third have been sexually violated and mutilated as well Thousands more have been reported missing and remain unaccounted for The crimes have been poorly investigated and have gone unpunished and unresolved by Mexican authorities thus creating an epidemic of misogynist violence on an increasingly globalized U S Mexico border This book the first anthology to focus exclusively on the Ju rez femicides as the crimes have come to be known compiles several different scholarly interventions from diverse perspectives including feminism Marxism critical race theory semiotics and textual analysis Editor Alicia Gaspar de Alba shapes a multidisciplinary analytical framework for considering the interconnections between gender violence and the U S Mexico border The essays examine the social and cultural conditions that have led to the heinous victimization of women on the border from globalization free trade agreements exploitative maguiladora working conditions and border politics to the sexist attitudes that pervade the social discourse about the victims The book also explores the evolving social movement that has been created by NGOs mothers organizing efforts and other grassroots forms of activism related to the crimes Contributors include U S and Mexican scholars and activists as well as personal testimonies of two mothers of femicide victims Making a Killing: The Scourge of the Global Arms Trade Saghir Igbal, 2018-07-28 Each year billions of dollars worth of arms are procured between various nations despite the fact that many millions of people live in desperate poverty many will die from hunger and hunger related diseases Weapons of increasing firepower and the missiles to deliver them accurately are becoming acquired mainly through the Global Arms Trade This means that we must expect wars in the world to become increasingly violent and destructive This book focuses on what the arms trade is and its impact on the world the wars which have resulted or were sustained by this trade It is necessary to know which countries sell arms and which ones buy Also it is important to have some idea of how large the trade is The international trade in arms has considerably increased since World War 2 Major weapons aircraft missiles tanks and ships probably account for about one half of the total trade in weapons and equipment Many countries and their respective Military Industrial Complex are making a killing in the world's largest trade in the buying and selling of military technology weapons Making a Killing Or Making a Living Dilys Roe, 2002 Make a Killing Kimberly G.
