Rae, Mark Taylor, 2019-11-04 The amount of data produced captured and transmitted through the media has never been greater But for this data to be useful it needs to be properly understood and claims made about or with data need to be properly scrutinized Through a series of examples of statistics in the media this book shows you how to critically assess the presentation of data in the media to identify what is significant and to sort verifiable conclusions from misleading claims How accurate are polls and how should we know How should league tables be read Are numbers presented as large really as big as they may seem at first glance By answering these questions and more readers will learn a number of statistical concepts central to many undergraduate social science statistics courses By tying them in to real life examples the importance and relevance of these concepts comes to life As such this book does more than teaches techniques needed for a statistics course it teaches you life skills that we need to use every single day Making News David Henderson, 2008-11-02 Making News A Straight Shooting Guide to Media Relations is an insider's look at today's changing news media with essential tips for How to ensure your story will be chosen as today's news How to gain credibility and achieve effective coverage How to better communicate with reporters editors and producers How to use media coverage to build a distinctive brand image From the perspective of an accomplished expert and with advice from leading journalists Making News provides a deeper understanding of how the news business functions how journalists judge the value of a legitimate story and how you can communicate with the media to achieve outstanding results PRAISE FOR DAVID HENDERSON Public relations is never as easy as it looks So you are lucky to be reading this book for few know PR as well as David Henderson A skilled correspondent and a gifted man David knows both sides of the process of delivering a message Harry Smith CBS News David Henderson has worked both sides of the street as a reporter and an advocate He has that double advantage of knowing a story and knowing how to sell it Richard Serrano Los Angeles Times The South Dakota Media Book Carole Marsh, 1994 InfoWorld, 1996-01-22 InfoWorld is targeted to Senior IT professionals Content is segmented into Channels and Topic Centers InfoWorld also celebrates people companies and projects Making Grants Efficiently in the Culture, Media and Sport Sector Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts, 2008 This inquiry took evidence from the Department for Culture Media and Sport the Department Arts Council England Big Lottery Fund English Heritage and Sport England on assessing the cost efficiency of making grants on supporting grant applicants on sharing services and information and on making applications on line In 2006/07 the nine principal grant makers sponsored by the Department awarded grants of 1.8 billion and spent 200 million on administering the grants and related activities The grants ranged in size from 200 to many millions of pounds The bodies held little information on the costs of their individual grant programmes and how these costs compare with others The average cost of awarding 1 of grant across a sample of open application programmes in the sector ranged from three pence to 35 pence Much of the variance in cost can be explained by the different objectives of the programmes and the needs of applicants Grant makers often receive applications which are incomplete or inaccurate One way they could reduce the burden on grant applicants would be through inviting applications on line This would also help reduce the costs to grant makers by reducing the amount of paper applications they have to process and the number of incomplete and ineligible applications In the past the Committee has recommended that the Department should take the lead in identifying the scope for savings by encouraging the organisations it funds to share accommodation and services Little progress appears to have been made in this area The Department has also done little to encourage benchmarking and the sharing of good practice across the sector
