Enough Adam Hamilton, 2009 Money has great power in our lives Used wisely it is one key to accomplishing our goals providing for our needs and fulfilling our life purpose In recent years many of us ignored the wisdom of the past when it came to managing and spending our money Credit card debt soared savings rates plummeted and our home equity became something to be tapped into and spent rather than a source of security in retirement We felt an insatiable desire for more And we found ourselves spending tomorrow s money today in order to have what we hoped would satisfy The result of all of this was not greater happiness and satisfaction but greater stress and anxiety Enough is an invitation to rediscover the Bible s wisdom when it comes to prudent financial practices In these pages are found the keys to experiencing contentment overcoming fear and discovering joy through simplicity and generosity This book could change your life by changing your relationship with money We Americans love our stuff We re living in a fast paced me first instant gratification world and it s finally catching up to us Debt is out of control homes are in foreclosure even banks are going out of business What the world needs today is the message of contentment and simplicity and that s exactly what Pastor Adam Hamilton delivers in Enough Dave Ramsey New York Times Best Selling Author and Nationally Syndicated Radio Talk Show Host Once again Adam Hamilton is leading the church Enough is enough was once a Wesleyan watchword Adam breathes new life into the Wesleyan commitment to simplicity Amid a culture of greed and conspicuous consumption Adam calls us to a biblically based evangelical joy of having the faith to say enough is enough Bishop Will Willimon United Methodist Church Birmingham Area I pay close attention to whatever Adam Hamilton writes His books are marked by extraordinary pastoral insight biblical and theological depth courage to speak the truth and down to earth practicality Enough comes like an antidote in the middle of a pandemic I hope that classes groups couples and individuals will use this book and the economic crisis it addresses as a challenge to get healthy again by deepening our discipleship in the vital area of money and possessions Brian McLaren Author Networker brianmclaren.net

The Making of a Pastor/Chaplain Barbara Helen Maisonneuve-Wilson, 2013-12 CAUTION This book may introduce you to the stark realities of a modern day pilgrim who seeks the fuller life at the feet of Jesus No pat answers No attempt to resolve the mysterious interface between God s will and his willingness to let us muddle through the mess of life The author tells the simple but engaging story of her struggles aspirations frustrations and satisfaction of walking with Jesus the best that she could Don t be annoyed at her humanity accept it as a humble gift and insight into your own experience Barb brings us fascinating insights into the different stages of her faith's development and a challenge to reflect upon our own. Certainly good food for great thoughts. Rev Stephen W Chaloner B Th M T S Regional Director PAOC Africa. As I read through this book I kept thinking that this evolution should be read and even studied as a reflection which is necessary for a person entering the ministry. As Wilson shares her life, family and ministry events and memories, she has taken the opportunity to openly expose her experiences centered against the backdrop of the seven life stages of recurrent development. 1. In the context of her Faith walk, the transparency is refreshing. When in my reading I found that generally speaking, clergies have a hard time sharing openly their life experiences, Wilson in her book encourages pastors, ministers and clergies to come clean as we live and preach and teach in our respective contexts. By the storytelling of her life and faith development, she has given the reader a glimpse of her faith and relationship with Jesus Christ and how this relates to family, friends, community and ministry interaction with other people, thus allowing the reader to face life with hope. I would recommend anyone entering a ministry in any context to read this book in order to gain an appreciation of what shapes a ministry and some ways of processing our lived experiences and forgiving ourselves for our sins and shortcomings. Thank you, Barbara, for giving us your readers insights from a distance.

The Making of a Pastor Chaplain 1 Robert Kegan. The Evolving Self: Problem and Process in Human Development Phillip J Robillard. Minister of Faith Community in downtown Toronto, Ontario. Sometimes we may take the events of our lives for granted and we may be lulled into leaving well enough alone even though deep down we have a sense that something is missing or not quite right. At other times we may thirst for a greater depth of meaning in what we are about. As we examine our lives, we may become more aware of experiences good or bad associated with past, present or foreseen events. What we may be less aware of in the moment is the part we can play in shaping our personal experience of whatever takes place into a more satisfying life journey. This book illustrates how the author, Barbara Wilson, reflected deeply on pivotal life events which, if left unexamined, would have diminished greatly the personal meaning she was able to harvest in her journey through life. She believed in and exercised her inner capacity to move beyond the erstwhile story line of the world into which she was born by re-visioning and re-shaping experienced events into a living story with satisfactory space both for personal meaning making and for enabling her to live her preferred values. Her candid reflection on events in her life, many of them painful, others full of joy, as well as her insightful evaluations of these stepping stones and her courageous choices for new directions will inspire and motivate many to take a second look at how they too can answer for themselves the pivotal questions: Am I satisfied with my life experience? Who do I want to be now? Who do I want to become? How do I reshap
