How to Make Love Last Forever Norman E. Lyons, 2022-01-11 Love a word that is so commonly used but yet so elusive and seldom found or experienced by many people True love accomplished is something that has been worked on constantly It takes total commitment by two people to attain and maintain a loving happy healthy fulfilling relationship To keep the passionate fervent romance that you experienced in the beginning takes a great deal of work The keys that I ve found that work for me are commitment communication trust honesty and a willingness to compromise and to value your spouse And as the old adage goes treat others as you would like to be treated if we would do that to one another many relationships will be able not too only survive but thrive I saw this type of relationship with my mother in law and father in law They were married for seventy two happy and blessed years before the passing of my father in law It is my relationship with my wife that has inspired me to write this short but direct book We have experienced so far forty two years of a beautiful loving relationship and looking forward to many more God s will Marriage is a beautiful institution established and blessed by God and is honorable in all For more information or to book for speaking engagements and seminars please contact me

own Certainly good food for great thoughts Rev Stephen W Chaloner B Th M T S Regional Director PAOC Africa As I read through this book I kept thinking that this evolution should be read and even studied as a reflection which is necessary for a person entering the ministry As Wilson shares her life family and ministry events and memories she has taken the opportunity to openly expose her experiences centered against the backdrop of the seven life stages of recurrent development 1 in the context of her Faith walk The transparency is refreshing when in my reading I found that generally speaking clergies have a hard time sharing openly their life experiences Wilson in her book encourages pastors ministers and clergies to come clean as we live and preach and teach in our respective contexts By the storytelling of her life and faith development she has given the reader a glimpse of her faith and relationship with Jesus Christ and how this relates to family friends community and ministry interaction with other people thus allowing the reader to face life with hope I would recommend anyone entering a ministry in any context to read this book in order to gain an appreciation of what shapes a ministry and some ways of processing our lived experiences and forgiving ourselves for our sins and shortcomings Thank you Barbara for giving us your readers insights from a distance in the Making of a Pastor Chaplain 1 Robert Kegan The Evolving Self Problem and Process in Human Development Phillip J Robillard Minister of Faith Community in downtown Toronto Ontario Sometimes we may take the events of our lives for granted and we may be lulled into leaving well enough alone even though deep down we have a sense that something is missing or not quite right At other times we may thirst for a greater depth of meaning in what we are about As we examine our lives we may become more aware of experiences good or bad associated with past present or foreseen events What we may be less aware of in the moment is the part we can play in shaping our personal experience of whatever takes place into a more satisfying life journey This book illustrates how the author Barbara Wilson reflected deeply on pivotal life events which if left unexamined would have diminished greatly the personal meaning she was able to harvest in her journey through life She believed in and exercised her inner capacity to move beyond the erstwhile story line of the world into which she was born by re visioning and re shaping experienced events into a living story with satisfactory space both for personal meaning making and for enabling her to live her preferred values Her candid reflection on events in her life many of them painful others full of joy as well as her insightful evaluations of these stepping stones and her courageous choices for new directions will inspire and motivate many to take a second look at how they too can answer for themselves the pivotal questions Am I satisfied with my life experience Who do I want to be now Who do I want to become How do I reshap
