Making and Meaning - Rubens's Landscapes Peter Paul Rubens, Christopher Brown, 1997      Rubens's Landscapes Christopher Brown, 1998-08 Christopher Brown takes a fresh look at the development of Rubens's landscape paintings re-examining their chronology and their construction and reconsidering the works in the context of Rubens's life and artistic concerns He begins his survey by placing the landscapes in the tradition of Flemish landscape painting in particular showing their relationship to the work of Pieter Bruegel the Elder whose Flight into Egypt was owned by Rubens He looks at Rubens's early landscapes completed in the years following his return from Italy in 1608 immediately raising one of the principal themes of the book how these paintings were made A chapter is devoted to Landscape with Het Steen in which he describes Rubens's life as a country gentleman his purchase of the estate of Het Steen and the time he spent there in the 1630s with his second wife and young family and discusses the composition of Landscape with Het Steen and its pendant the Landscape with a Rainbow now in the Wallace Collection London He also considers Rubens's pastoral landscapes of the 1630s showing how their mood was influenced by classical literature Rubens's working methods his drawing from nature his adaptation of landscape motifs in the studio his use of oil sketches are compared with contemporary landscape practice and in a chapter on the making of the landscapes Dr Brown describes the construction preparation and the ground of the panels Rubens used for his landscape paintings and the panelmakers who made them Finally he considers the last years at Het Steen and the ways in which Rubens's essentially private landscape paintings were made known during his lifetime and later for example through engravings and looks at the influence of these works on British painters particularly Gainsborough and Constable

Deviant Landscapes Fivos Papadimitriou, Olaf Kühne, 2025-04-11 Deviant landscapes can be physical or digital or outright fictitious Whatever their nature or context they do not conform to normality Deviant landscapes can be encountered on the face of the earth on computer screens in people's minds This anthology presents varying perspectives on deviant landscapes widening the theoretical framework of spatial and landscape research by delving into the hitherto almost uncharted realm of deviant landscapes in a way that is missing in the academic literature It exposes a variety of perspectives on deviant landscapes from disparate scientific domains i.e. geography literary studies sociology game studies cultural studies and delivers useful insights into the diverse theoretical approaches that can be adopted to examine such landscapes neopragmatist social constructivist scientometric art theoretical etc      Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577-1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547-1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600-08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens s early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens s Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens s commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens s intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age Peasant Scenes and Landscapes Larry Silver,2012-01-04 Larry Silver investigates the origins of new pictorial types and their media as a phenomenon of sixteenth century Antwerp and interprets several pictorial genres as he charts their evolution and their role in the development and marketing of individual artistic styles In His Milieu Amy Golahny,Mia M. not only a meeting of aristocratic refinement and rural simplicity of a socialite and a lover of retirement of a painter and a poet but also an aesthetic rapprochement between neoclassical and romantic values between the impulse to idealize and the desire to particularize
