

THE MAKING OF A COUNTRY LAWYER

A portrait of Gerry Spence, an older man with grey hair, smiling slightly. He is wearing a light-colored jacket over a dark shirt. The background is a blurred image of a large, classical-style building with columns.

Making Of A Country Lawyer An Autobiography:

The Making of a Country Lawyer Gerry Spence, 1996 The Making of a Country Lawyer is like Clarence Darrow's The Story of My Life the first hand account of a beloved American attorney a modern day folk hero a man who has devoted his life's work to the innocent and the damned With the simple power of John Steinbeck the bestselling author of From Freedom to Slavery now writes this painfully honest autobiography revealing how he became one of the greatest trial lawyers of our time 60 photos

The Making of a Country Lawyer Gerry Spence, 1996-06-01 The Making of a Country Lawyer is the firsthand account of a beloved American attorney a modern day folk hero a man who has devoted his life's work to the downtrodden and damned It is the story of a wayward son who at the age of twenty suffered an immense and tragic loss It is this single dark moment in Spence's life that transformed him preparing him to be a trial lawyer eventually handling such landmark cases as the defence of Randy Weaver and the vindication of Karen Silkwood This is the stirring memoir of a man who has captured the American imagination at a time when our belief in our values and in ourselves has been shaken to the core told as only Gerry Spence can Cheering for Self James S. Vass Jr., James Vass Jr, 2003-05-13 This book is a study of UW men's basketball fans during the 2001-2002 season and explores their proclivity to cheering for self during basketball events The term basketball event is used rather than basketball game to make clear that everything connected to and seen heard or experienced before during and after a basketball game is included The actual game itself is only part of the basketball event An undercurrent runs throughout this participant observation mini ethnography dealing with access and the relative quality of that access to basketball events being affected by one's age class race and gender The prominent role of advertising in shaping basketball events and helping to construct fans as consumers of products both commercial and institutional during the process of cheering for self is central to this idea Cheering for self is the activity engaged in by individual fans after they find things to identify or connect with through personal investment Fans cheer for self indirectly Fans cheer for the team that they identify with Through the process of cheering for self while attending the basketball event people are taught how to become fans to consume a UW product the basketball event and to consume advertisers products People have a tendency to spend their entire life trying to impress others

O.J. the Last Word Gerry Spence, Gary Spence, 1998-09 The final word on the trial of the century by America's best loved criminal attorney and pundit Gerry Spence the man originally chosen to represent Simpson in his criminal trial and expert commentator throughout the affair Spence uses the case not only to address the issue of race but also to attack the media orgy and the culture of celebrity obsession and materialistic greed

"At Their Mercy" Junior Bodine, 2014-04-14 My Wife's Death I see my self as saving patients lives and money What that means to me is passing on my first hand experience of the malpractice death of my wife on July 19 2004 the resulting malpractice lawsuit and years of hard research on our health care system My wife was an outstanding lady She was the first woman bank vice president in Lubbock Texas Her death devastated me and my son and his family to this day In fact she was rocking one of his two daughters two nights before she went into hospital Her death haunts me even more because it was preventable A preventable infection I blindly trusted the health care system and was betrayed
