Making Of Rubens:

The Making of Rubens Svetlana Alpers, 1996 The second problem is that of art and its consumption Beginning with Watteau the making of a Rubensian art is traced in the taste for Rubens in the eighteenth century in France where many of the pictures he had kept for his own collection had found their way In the writings of Roger de Piles and in the work of the painters to follow art is made out of the viewing and discussing of art A binary system of taste emerged for Rubens as contrasted with Poussin and critical distinctions came to be fashioned in the binary terms of gender Finally Alpers considers creativity itself and how as a man and as a painter Rubens could have viewed his own generative talent An analysis of his Munich Silenus fleshy intoxicated and following Virgil's account disempowered as a condition of producing his songs reveals a sense of the creative gift as humanly indeterminate and equivocal ~THEæ MAKING OF RUBENS. Rubens David Jaffé, Elizabeth McGrath, Amanda Bradley, Minna A. Moore Ede, National Gallery (Great Britain), 2005 A fascinating exploration of the early work of the great Flemish master Rubens The Rape of the Masters Roger Kimball, 2005-11-25 Colleges and universities used to teach art history to encourage connoisseurship and acquaint students with the riches of our artistic heritage But now as Roger Kimball reveals in this witty and provocative book the student is less likely to learn about the aesthetics of masterworks than to be told for instance that Peter Paul Rubens' great painting Drunken Silenus is an allegory about anal rape Or that Courbet's famous hunting pictures are psychodramas about castration anxiety Or that Gauguin's Manao tupapau is an example of the way repression is written on the bodies of women Or that Jan van Eyck's masterful Arnolfini Portrait is about middle class deceptions and the treatment of women Or that Mark Rothko's abstract White Band Number 27 parallels the pictorial structure of a pieta Or that Winslow Homer's The Gulf Stream is a visual encoding of racism In The Rape of the Masters How Political Correctness Sabotages Art Kimball a noted art critic himself shows how academic art history is increasingly held hostage to radical cultural politics feminism cultural studies postcolonial studies the whole armory of academic antihumanism To make his point he describes how eight famous works of art reprinted here as illustrations have been made over to fit a radical ideological fantasy Kimball then performs a series of intellectual rescue operations explaining how these great works should be understood through a series of illuminating readings in which art not politics guides the discussion Rubens's Spirit Alexander Marr, 2021-03-25 Peter Paul Rubens was the most inventive and prolific northern European artist of his age This book discusses his life and work in relation to three interrelated themes spirit ingenuity and genius It argues that Rubens and his reception were pivotal in the transformation of early modern ingenuity into Romantic genius Ranging across the artist's entire career it explores Rubens's engagement with these themes in his art and life Alexander Marr looks at Rubens's forays into altarpiece painting in Italy as well as his collaborations with fellow artists in his hometown of Antwerp and his complex relationship with the spirit of pleasure It concludes with his late landscapes in connection to genius loci the spirit of the place Historical Dictionary
