Making of the Modern Near East 1792-1923 M. E. Yapp, 2005-05-31 A History of Stability and Change in Lebanon Joseph Bayeh, 2017-06-30 Lebanon is a country whose domestic politics have even more than others in the region been at the mercy of changes on the international stage Having been under Ottoman and French rule in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the post World War II era has seen Lebanon subjected to Israeli Syrian and American interventions which have all threatened the country's stability as a state Joseph Bayeh argues that it is this international dimension which holds the key to an in depth understanding of the country In support of this argument Bayeh examines Lebanese history from its early days under the Ottomans to the present day in order to show how international shifts and conflicts have had their impact on Lebanon With changes such as the fall of the Ottoman empire the rise of US power after World War II the end of the Cold War and the new focus on the region in the aftermath of 9 11 Lebanon has at various junctures been bolstered or undermined Bayeh tracks all of this offering insights into the workings of Lebanon's domestic politics which will appeal to researchers of the international relations of the Middle East and Lebanon's political history Imperial expectations and realities Andrekos Varnava, 2015-09-01 A wide ranging edited collection that interrogates colonial expansion and the mismatch between intention perception and hype and the actual realities Middle Eastern Politics and Historical

Territory, State and Nationalism Adel Soheil, 2018-10-18 The Sykes Picot Agreement map signed in May 1918 by the Imperial powers of Great Britain and France constituted the blueprint for redrawing the map of the Middle East after the dismemberment of the Ottoman Empire in 1918 by the victorious Allies thus dividing the Arab territories as well as Kurdistan into its current form In this book the author makes an ambitious attempt to provide a comprehensive new insight into the Kurdish national movement and its struggle against the mandatory
