Making Our Own Rules New Selected Poem:

Winter Solstice Michael Hogan, 2012-01-10 Winter Solstice Selected Poetry 1975 2012 edited by James Hepworth gathers together the very best of Michael Hogan's work from the Paris Review The American Poetry Review the Iowa Review and dozens of other journals and magazines as well as several out of print books It is a valuable addition to the American poetry library Sam Hamill in his Introduction to this volume writes These poems written over the past thirty years most often contain a narrative thread that leads into an awakening insight a meditative revelation that arrives not with a shock but with a sigh or a moment of stillness capturing an essence that is pure poetry that moment between image making and philosophy between the intimate whisper of truth and the song's need to be sung The Complete Works, Including the Suppressed Poems, and Supplementary Pieces, Selected from His Papers After His Death Lord Byron, 1830

A World of Their Own: Daoist Monks and Their Community in Contemporary China Adeline Herrou, 2013 Following the fate of a small Daoist community temple the Wengongci in the town of Hanzhong Shaanxi the author examines the structure of the temple the monastics living in it its surrounding lay community and the gods worshiped in its confines In a second part she outlines the individual's path as a Daoist monastic today from the choice of the religious life through the various forms of training to advanced ordinations and activities in the society Finally she discusses the greater community of the Dao in terms of pseudo kinship structures and gender issues Journal of Educational Method, 1928

A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton, Benjamin Franklin Stelter, 1925 Spirit of the English Magazines, 1828 The Spirit of the English Magazines, 1828 Medievalisms Tison Pugh, Angela Weisl, 2012-11-12 From King Arthur and Robin Hood through to video games and jousting themed restaurants medieval culture continues to surround us and has retained a strong influence on literature and culture throughout the ages This fascinating and illuminating guide is written by two of the leading contemporary scholars of medieval literature and explores The influence of medieval cultural concepts on literature and film including key authors such as Shakespeare Tennyson and Mark Twain The continued appeal of medieval cultural figures such as Dante King Arthur and Robin Hood The influence of the medieval on such varied disciplines such as politics music children's literature and art Contemporary efforts to relive the Middle Ages Medievalisms Making the Past in the Present surveys the critical field and sets the boundaries for future study providing an essential background for literary study from the medieval period through to the twenty first century Cyclopedia of English Literature: a Selection of the Choicest Productions of English Authors Robert Chambers, 1851 Making Progress in Writing Eve Bearne, 2003-08-29 Children's achievements in writing lag behind their achievements in reading speaking and listening National tests are beginning to expose this gap and inevitably it is raising concerns The issue is not without controversy but regardless of the politics of the situation national progress in children's writing is both needed and possible This new book from Eve Bearne makes a valuable contribution towards helping teachers close this gap Uniquely it follows the structure of the National Literacy

Strategy whilst examining key areas such as bridging KS2 and KS3 writing and writing skills beyond the Literacy Hour Such a structure makes the book incredibly practical and easy to use providing essential information for both practitioners and academics

Twitterbots Tony Veale, Mike Cook, 2018-09-11 The world of Twitterbots from botdom's greatest hits to bot construction to the place of the bot in the social media universe Twitter offers a unique medium for creativity and curiosity for humans and machines The tweets of Twitterbots autonomous software systems that send messages of their own composition into the Twittersphere mingle with the tweets of human creators the next person to follow you on Twitter or to like your tweets may not a person at all The next generator of content that you follow on Twitter may also be a bot This book examines the world of Twitterbots from botdom's greatest hits to the hows and whys of bot building to the place of bots in the social media landscape In Twitterbots Tony Veale and Mike Cook examine not only the technical challenges of bending the affordances of Twitter to the implementation of your own Twitterbots but also the greater knowledge engineering challenge of building bots that can craft witty provocative and concise outputs of their own Veale and Cook offer a guided tour of some of Twitter's most notable bots from the deadpan big_ben_clock which tweets a series of BONGs every hour to mark the time to the delightful pentametrone which finds and pairs tweets that can be read in iambic pentameter to the disaster of Microsoft's TayAndYou which learned conspiracy theories racism and extreme politics from other tweets They explain how to navigate Twitter's software interfaces to program your own Twitterbots in Java keeping the technical details to a minimum and focusing on the creative implications of bots and their generative worlds Every Twitterbot they argue is a thought experiment given digital form each embodies a hypothesis about the nature of meaning making and creativity that encourages its followers to become willing test subjects and eager consumers of automated creation Some bots are as malevolent as their authors Like the bot in this book by Veale Cook that uses your internet connection to look for opportunities to buy plutonium on The Dark Web PROSECCOnetwork If writing is like cooking then this new book about Twitter bots is like Apple Charlotte made with whale blubber instead of butter PROSECCOnetwork These bot critiques generated at <https://cheapbotsdonequick.com> source PROSECCOnetwork
