Ross, Stephanie Harvey, 2009 What is teacher empowerment It's not just some formal administrative position exercised from above It starts with expanding our professional roles in small everyday actions that make our jobs more fulfilling and less difficult And then we can take on larger school improvement tasks as we become ready to tackle them This book then is about extending one's professional role in small ways and large in the school community in order to improve one's teaching one's work life and the school as a whole and that is what we mean by teacher empowerment Steven Zemelman and Harry

Ross Experts talk about teacher empowerment but this is the first book with direct easy to take steps for teacher self empowerment Drawing from research the experiences of practicing teachers and the principles of community organizing Steven Zemelman and Harry Ross prove that school leadership isn't just for those at the top of the ladder Whatever your position use the 13 Steps to Teacher Empowerment to deepen your professionalism and achieve more effective teaching and deeper job satisfaction more enjoyment in your work more exciting collaboration with your colleagues more resources and professional opportunities Listen to a podcast where Steve Zemelman and Harry Ross interview two teachers who used the principles in the 13 Steps to get the teaching life they wanted Take one step at a time or pick and choose the strategies you most need right now Or use the study guide with colleagues in PLCs or teacher study groups and together bring the 13 Steps of Teacher Empowerment to life You'll not only develop your own professional power you'll help make your school community more supportive and productive As I sat down and began to read this book the voice in my head first whispered then spoke a little louder and finally screamed Where have you been all my life I can't overemphasize the importance of this book We need this book and we need it now It is a road map to a vibrant thriving long lasting teaching life Stephanie Harvey Coauthor of Comprehension Collaboration Teaching Climate Change for Grades 6-12 Kelley T. Lê, 2021-06-20 Looking to tackle climate change and climate science in your classroom This timely and insightful book supports and enables secondary science teachers to develop effective curricula ready to meet the Next Generation Science Standards NGSS by grounding their instruction on the climate crisis Nearly one third of the secondary science standards relate to climate science but teachers need design and implementation support to create empowering learning experiences centered around the climate crisis Experienced science educator instructional coach and educational leader Dr Kelley T Le offers this support providing an overview of the teaching shifts needed for NGSS and to support climate literacy for students via urgent topics in climate science and environmental justice from the COVID 19 pandemic to global warming rising sea temperatures deforestation and mass extinction You'll also learn how to engage the complexity of climate change by exploring social racial and environmental injustices stemming from the climate crisis that directly impact students By anchoring instruction around the climate crisis Dr Le offers guidance on how to empower students to be the agents of change needed in their own communities A range of additional teacher resources are also available at www.empoweredscienceteachers.com The Dialogic Classroom in Higher Education Jill DeTemple, Harriett E.
