Making Friends For Christ:

Making Friends for Christ Wayne McDill, 2010-04 Making Friends for Christ A Practical Approach to Relational Evangelism Second Edition This is not a gimmick It is not the next modern evangelism strategy for you or your church to use for a while and then discard when the next one comes along It is not about pretending to be friends with people to fulfill a hidden conversion agenda Making Friends for Christ is an exploration of loving others the way that Jesus loved us intentionally relationally and sacrificially The people all around us want to be loved They need a friend who will listen to them and care for them And that is just what Jesus wants us to do As we live in love and truth his light shines into people s lives so that they may know Love Himself Making Friends for Christ is a guide for learning how to be a real friend It offers practical everyday ideas for touching the people God has already put into your life You will learn how to be a good listener overcome common barriers and invest in relationships You can turn your home into a place of ministry and effectively tell how Christ has changed your life You can learn to pray in faith for your friends and family and join with other believers for support and encouragement This second edition of Making Friends for Christ is revised and enlarged for the challenges of the Twenty First Century evangelism Wayne McDill teaches Communication and Bible Exposition in Wake Forest North Carolina at Southeastern Seminary He has also taught courses in Evangelism Church Planting and Pastoral Leadership He is author of seven books including the first edition of Making Friends for Christ along with books on preaching and personal Christian growth Making Friends for Christ Wayne McDill, 1979 Making Friends for Christ Touch Publications, 1998 Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France Lewis C. Seifert, Rebecca M. Wilkin, 2016-03-03 Today the friendships that grab people s imaginations are those that reach across inequalities of class and race The friendships that seem to have exerted an analogous level of fascination in early modern France were those that defied the assumption inherited from Aristotle and patristic sources that friendships between men and women were impossible Together the essays in Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France tell the story of the declining intelligibility of classical models of male friendship and of the rising prominence of women as potential friends The revival of Plato s friendship texts in the sixteenth century challenged Aristotle s rigid ideal of perfect friendship between men In the seventeenth century a new imperative of heterosociality opened a space for the cultivation of cross gender friendships while the spiritual friendships of the Catholic Reformation modeled relationships that transcended the gendered dynamics of galanterie Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France argues that the imaginative experimentation in friendships between men and women was a distinctive feature of early modern French culture The ten essays in this volume address friend making as a process that is creative of self and responsive to changing social and political circumstances Contributors reveal how men and women fashioned gendered selves and also circumvented gender norms through concrete friendship practices By showing that the benefits and the risks of friendship are magnified when gender roles and relations are unsettled the essays in this volume
