Making Of The Royal Pavilion Brighton:

The Making of the Royal Pavilion John Morley, 2003-12-05 The Royal Pavilion Brighton is one of the most famous and opulent royal extravaganzas in existence This book reproduces all the important surviving designs used and unused for the exterior and interior of the Pavilion It reveals the great variety of brilliant exotic schemes devised for its construction and decoration It was first built in 1787 for the Prince of Wales as a neo classical marine villa and by the time the Prince became king in 1820 it had grown into the extraordinary Indian Chinese Fantasy it is today The projects for the exterior include the pretty but chaste designs of Henry Holland and the wilder Indian and Chinese fantasies of William Porden and Humphry Repton The interior designs executed mainly by the Crace firm of decorators and Robert Jones all firmly controlled by the king are always splendid and often astonishing they include schemes for whole rooms as well as for individual details such as windows skylights doorways carpets and curtains The range includes the barbaric chinoiserie of the 1802 04 period the enchanting rococo chinoiserie of 1815 17 and the opulent richness of the final scheme The techniques used include illusionistic painting marbling faux graining faux skies often in a vein of high fantasy The 308 illustrations of which 111 are reproduced in colour capture all the variety magnificence and exotic luxury of the extraordinary building The Making of the Royal Pavilion, Brighton John Morley, 1984

Qing Encounters Petra ten-Doesschate Chu, Ning Ding, 2015-10-01 Qing Encounters Artistic Exchanges between China and the West examines how the contact between China and Europe in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries transformed the arts on both sides of the East West divide The essays in the volume reveal the extent to which images artifacts and natural specimens were traded and copied and how these materials inflected both cultures visions of novelty and pleasure battle and power and ways of seeing and representing Artists and craftspeople on both continents borrowed and adapted forms techniques and modes of representation producing deliberate meaningful and complex new creations By considering this reciprocity from both Eastern and Western perspectives Qing Encounters offers a new and nuanced understanding of this critical period The Age of Improvement, 1783-1867 Asa Briggs, 2014-06-17 The Age of Improvement has long established itself as a classic of modern historical writing Widely read and quoted it has had a unique influence on teaching and research This second edition draws on the great volume of new research produced by Lord Briggs amongst others since its original publication The book stresses both the underlying unity and the rich variety of the age and raises fundamental issues about a period of crucial change in British history industrialisation war constitutional change and the attitudes of politicians towards it political development and not least society and culture In the background are the new economic powers based on the development of a coal and iron technology in the foreground new social and political problems and new ways of tackling them The author also discusses perceptions of and reactions to changing circumstances the influence of religion and science on national life and changing styles in art and literature The story ends not with a full stop but with a question mark Could improvement be maintained Could balance and progress continue to be reconciled , Architecture in Britain, 1530 to 1830 John Summerson, John Newenham Summerson, Sir, 1993-01-01 The author charts the development of architectural theory and practice from Elizabeth I to George IV Questions of style technology and the social framework are resolved as separable but always essential components of the building worlds Travel and Tourism in Britain, 1700-1914 Vol 3 Susan Barton, Allan Brodie, 2021-12-16 The British led the way in holidaymaking This four volume primary resource collection brings together a diverse range of texts on the various forms of transport used by tourists the destinations they visited the role of entertainments and accommodation and how these affected the way that tourism evolved over two centuries Volume 3 Seaside Holidays Over the course of the seventeenth century medical writers and practitioners came to realise the health giving properties of the seaside environment By the early eighteenth century this scientific interest was spreading to wealthy people in search of a rest cure Bathing in the sea drinking the waters and spending time in the bracing air became a widespread activity and by the nineteenth century this had expanded thanks to extensive advertising and publicity about its beneficial effects Specific forms of entertainment also developed such as piers aquaria winter gardens and cinemas Asian Empire and British Knowledge U. Hillemann, 2009-10-15 British knowledge about China changed fundamentally in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Rather than treating these changes in British understanding as if Anglo Sino relations were purely bilateral this study looks at how British imperial networks in India and Southeast Asia were critical mediators in the British encounter of China invented a new and visually splendid decorative style that combined the contrasting tastes of two nations Departing from the conventional narrative that depicts dealers as purveyors of antiquarianism Davis repositions them as innovators who were key to transforming old art objects from ancien r gime France into cherished antiques and equally as creators of new and modified French inspired furniture bronze work and porcelain The resulting old new and reconfigured objects merged aristocratic French eighteenth century taste with nineteenth century British preference and they were prized by collectors who displayed them side by side in palatial interiors of the period The Tastemakers analyzes dealer made furnishings from the nineteenth century patron s perspective and in the context of the interiors for which they were created contending that early dealers deliberately formulated a new aesthetic with its own objects language and value Davis examines a wide variety of documents to piece together the shadowy world of these dealers who emerge center stage as a traders makers and tastemakers

Carpets and Rugs of Europe and America Sarah B. Sherrill, 1996 Filled with hundreds of gorgeous examples this book is a comprehensive study of European and American carpets and rugs from the Middle Ages to the present day The rich and inventive tradition of European and American carpets continues to inspire artists designers and decorators while collectors and historians increasingly value carpets as important works of art In this comprehensive volume Sarah Sherrill examines Western carpet design and production from the Middle Ages to the present in styles that range from magnificent palatial creations to delightful folk designs With hundreds of dazzling illustrations Sherrill s authoritative text includes chapters on Moorish weavers and the golden age of carpets in Spain the exquisite carpets of the Savonnerie Aubusson and Beauvais in France productions from Moorfields Exeter and Axminster in England the intriguing but little studied rugs of Eastern European countries the charming and resourceful rugs of America and an important chapter on modern designs that offers an extensive survey of rugs created by leading artists and architects of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Sherrill s stimulating text based on years of research brims with interesting new findings not only on the history and design of these works but also technological developments that had an often unrecognized effect on rug design and production

Supplementing the hundreds of reproductions of carpets are many views of the lavish rooms for which they were designed as well as brilliant watercolor carpet designs technical drawings clarifying weave and knot structures and maps making this an indispensable resource for historians collectors and anyone interested in beautiful furnishings and textiles Sarah B Sherrill an authority on Western and Eastern carpets and rugs has published many articles on the subject over the last two decades She is on the faculty of The Bard Graduate Center for Studies in the Decorative Arts in New York and has taught in the graduate program in the history of decorative arts at the Cooper Hewitt National Design Museum Parsons School of Design in New York She is editor in chief of The Bard Graduate Center s journal Studies in the Decorative Arts and was an editor for over twenty years at the magazine Antiques 400 illustrations
