Mobile Communication and Greater China Wai-chi Rodney Chu,2012 This edited volume examines mobile phone use in China Unlike most studies on ICT development in China this book argues for the importance of the cultural realm as captured in mobile phone usage in reflecting the normative basis and struggle of the people It stresses how the mobile phone is in fact an important means by which one can understand a rapidly changing China A key concern of the book is to assert the uniqueness of China s experience in mobile phone usage This uniqueness is encapsulated by the phrase riding the double juggernaut in that Chinese society is exposed to a rapid process of industrialization and cyberization in a short period of time The contributors maintain that such density of experience under a compressed period when the society has a thick cultural heritage of its own and yet is still under a dictating rule all come together to provide a unique situation in China

Text Analysis for the Social Sciences Carl W. Roberts,2020-07-24 This book provides descriptions and illustrations of cutting edge text analysis methods for communication and marketing research cultural historical comparative and event analysis curriculum evaluation psychological diagnosis language development research and for any research in which statistical inferences are drawn from samples of texts Although the book is accessible to readers having no experience with content analysis the text analysis expert will find substantial new material in its pages In particular this collection describes developments in semantic and network text analysis methodologies that heretofore have been accessible only among a smattering of methodology journals The book s international and cross disciplinary content illustrates the breadth of quantitative text analysis applications These applications demonstrate the methods utility for international research as well as for practitioners from the fields of sociology political science journalism communication computer science marketing education and English This is an ecumenical collection that contains applications not only of the most recent semantic and network text analysis methods but also of the more traditional thematic method of text analysis In fact it is originally with this volume that these two relational approaches to text analysis are defined and contrasted with more traditional thematic text analysis methods The emphasis here is on application The book's chapters provide guidance regarding the sorts of inferences that each method affords and up to date descriptions of the human and technological resources required to apply the methods Its purpose is as a resource for making quantitative text analysis methods more accessible to social science researchers Manual of Standardization in the Romance Languages Franz Lebsanft,Felix Tacke,2020-01-20

Language standardization is an ongoing process based on the notions of linguistic correctness and models This manual contains thirty six chapters that deal with the theories of linguistic norms and give a comprehensive up to date description and analysis of the standardization processes in the Romance languages The first section presents the essential approaches to the concept of linguistic norm ranging from antiquity to the present and includes individual chapters on the notion of linguistic norms and correctness in classical grammar and rhetoric in the Prague School in the linguistic theory of Eugenio Coseriu in sociolinguistics as well as in pragmatics cognitive and discourse linguistics The second section focuses on the application of these notions with respect to the Romance languages It examines in detail the normative grammar and the normative dictionary as the reference tools for language codification and modernization of those languages that have a long and well established written tradition i e Romanian Italian French Catalan Spanish and Portuguese Furthermore the volume offers a discussion of the key issues regarding the standardization of the minor Romance languages as well as Creoles
