Bellows,2018-02-21 Tracing the intersecting lives of a Confederate plantation owner and a free black Union soldier Barbara L Bellows Two Charlestonians at War offers a poignant allegory of the fraught interdependent relationship between wartime enemies in the Civil War South Through the eyes of these very different soldiers Bellows brings a remarkable new perspective to the oft told saga of the Civil War Recounted in alternating chapters the lives of Charleston natives born a mile apart Captain Thomas Pinckney and Sergeant Joseph Humphries Barquet illuminate one another s motives for joining the war as well as the experiences that shaped their worldviews Pinckney a rice planter and scion of one of America's founding families joined the Confederacy in hope of reclaiming an idealized agrarian past and Barquet a free man of color and brick mason fought with the Union to claim his rights as an American citizen Their circumstances set the two men on seemingly divergent paths that nonetheless crossed on the embattled coast of South Carolina Born free in 1823 Barquet grew up among Charleston's tight knit community of the colored elite During his twenties he joined the northward exodus of free blacks leaving the city and began his nomadic career as a tireless campaigner for black rights and abolition In 1863 at age forty he enlisted in the 54th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry the renowned Glory regiment of northern black men His varied challenges and struggles including his later frustrated attempts to play a role in postwar Republican politics in Illinois provide a panoramic view of the free black experience in nineteenth century America In contrast to the questing Barquet Thomas Pinckney remained deeply connected to the rice fields and maritime forests of South Carolina He greeted the arrival of war by establishing a home guard to protect his family's Santee River plantations that would later integrate into the 4th South Carolina Cavalry After the war Pinckney distanced himself from the racist violence of Reconstruction politics and focused on the daunting task of restoring his ruined plantations with newly freed laborers The two Charlestonians chance encounter on Morris Island where in 1864 Sergeant Barquet stood guard over the captured Captain Pinckney inspired Bellows compelling narrative Her extensive research adds rich detail to our knowledge of the dynamics between whites and free blacks during this tumultuous era Two Charlestonians at War gives readers an intimate depiction of the ideological distance that might separate American citizens even as their shared history unites them Report of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, 1913 Vital Records of Andover, Massachusetts, to the End of the Year 1849 ... Andover (Mass.), 1912 The Alkaloids: Chemistry and Pharmacology, 1985-11-20 The Alkaloids Chemistry and Pharmacology The Junior Instructor for the Parent and Child ... Walter Julius Beecher, Grace B. Ariail, 2013 Ansley Park the first suburb built on the north side of Atlanta has been the residence of many of the city's most prominent citizens Images of America Ansley Park is a pictorial history of this beautiful and unique suburb and its surrounding area In addition to containing details about former residents of selected houses in the area it also includes brief histories of the Civil War in Atlanta First Church of Christ Scientist First Presbyterian Church The Temple Peachtree Christian Church the 12 governors that lived in the Ansley Park governor's mansion Piedmont Park Spring Street School Woodberry School for Girls Margaret Mitchell Dorothy Alexander Amos Rhodes and four social organizations the Piedmont Driving Club Ansley Golf Club and two chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution Randall Lewis of Hopkinton, Rhode Island, and Delaware County, New York, and Some of His Descendants Frank Pardee Lewis, Edward Chester Lewis, 1929 Randall Lewis married Elsie Rathbone in 1765 Burnet - Ferguson - Schneider Jim Schneider, 2013-03-19 This book is a story of the people who gave birth to my father's family and the times in which they lived The Ferguson and Schneider families are fairly recent arrivals in America by genealogical standards My great grandfather Ferguson was born in Glasgow Scotland arriving in the United States while still an infant in 1848 My great grandfather Schneider was born in Germany and came here in 1868 The Burnet side of the family goes back to the earliest settlers of this country and has its roots on Long Island New York in 1643 while still under Dutch rule That family intermarried with the Dutch of New York City and flourished in trade and medicine playing significant roles in the early growth of this nation Throughout the book I've tried to present stories of who these long dead ancestors were what their lives were like and the circumstances that shaped their destinies Who Was Who on TV Norman Chance, 2010-12-23 The information herein was accumulated over fifty some odd years The collection process started when TV first came out and continued until today The books are in alphabetical order and cover shows from the 1940s to 2010 The author has added a brief explanation of each show and then listed all the characters who played the roles and for the most part the year or years the actor or actress played that role Also included are most of the people who created the shows the producers directors and the writers of the shows These books are a great source of trivia information and for most of the older folk will bring back some very fond memories I know a lot of times we think back and say Who was the guy that played such and such a role Enjoy
