BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Photo-Textualities Marsha Bryant, 1996-07-01 Literature and photography have been crossing borders since Poe praised the daguerreotype's invention in 1840 This anthology investigates books that juxtapose photographs and written language considering various genres and nationalities The anthology also expands critical inquiry by drawing from gender theories psychoanalysis Marxism poststructuralism and cultural studies Photography and Literature in the Twentieth Century David Cunningham, Sas Mays, Andrew Fisher, 2009-01-14 Photography and Literature in the Twentieth Century offers an accessible and fresh approach to an object of interdisciplinary research that is currently receiving increased international attention Providing a broad historical schema and examining pivotal moments within it the collection brings together a range of writers and practitioners who help to guide the reader through a historical cross section of current work in this area Unlike most existing studies this volume considers both key literary figures from Proust to Sebald and photographic practitioners from Heartfield to Sekula in order to give a commanding overview of its subject that is both well informed and often ground breaking With original and accessible essays by acknowledged experts in the field this is a book that should be of interest not only to students and teachers in departments of literature and photography but also to those in cultural studies and art history as well as photographic artists Photopoetry 1845-2015 Michael Nott, 2018-05-31 From amateur experiments in scrapbooks and stereographs to contemporary photobook collaborations between leading practitioners poets and photographers have created an art form that continues to evolve and deserves critical exploration Photopoetry 1845-2015 a Critical History represents the first account of this challenging and diverse body of work Nott traces the development of photopoetic collaboration from its roots in 19th century illustrative practices to the present day Focusing on work from the UK and US he examines how and why poets and photographers collaborate and explores the currents of exchange and engagement between poems and photographs on the page The book

not only considers canonical figures but brings to light forgotten practitioners whose work questioned and shaped the relationship between word and image Photopoetry 1845 2015 a Critical History provides a new lens through which to explore poetry photography and the spaces between them Mina Loy, Twentieth-Century Photography, and Contemporary Women Poets Linda A. Garrett-Petts, Donald Lawrence, Kamloops Art Gallery, 2000-10 Literacy is broadly understood to refer to the ability to read and write But the term is heavily value laden and is often used to elevate print at the expense of other forms of communication In PhotoGraphic Encounters the authors challenge this reductive notion of literacy and propose instead an integrated span of literacies reaching across disciplinary boundaries to discover a text that draws upon both the visual and the verbal PhotoGraphic Encounters discusses Canadian writers like Margaret Atwood George Bowering Robert Kroetsch and Daphne Marlatt and Canadian artists like Fred Douglas Ernie Kroeger Brenda Pelkey and Michael Snow then looks at the cross fertilization of visual and verbal processes in their works The authors present a new narrative practice one that fully engages lived experience The vernacular they argue is vital to our participation as readers and viewers of high art Making the connection between the vernacular and high culture creates an enabling moment in artistic production and reception and in teaching learning and talking about art and literature PhotoGraphic Encounters offers a compelling perspective on questions of literacy in a postmodern culture Artists writers scholars and critics alike will want this volume in their libraries Includes more than 120 B W photographs 20 colour plates index bibliography

Enlightening Encounters Giorgia Alù, Nancy Pedri, 2015-01-01 Enlightening Encounters traces the impact of photography on Italian literature from the medium's invention in 1839 to the present day Investigating the ways in which Italian literature has responded to photographic practice and aesthetics the contributors use a wide range of theoretical perspectives to examine a variety of canonical and non canonical authors and a broad selection of literary genres including fiction autobiography photo texts and migration literature The first collection in English to focus on photography's reciprocal relationship to Italian literature Enlightening Encounters represents an important resource for a number of fields including Italian studies literary studies visual studies and cultural studies The Photobook Patrizia Di Bello, Colette

Wilson, Shamoan Zamir, 2020-08-07 The photograph found a home in the book before it won for itself a place on the gallery wall Only a few years after the birth of photography the publication of Henry Fox Talbot's The Pencil of Nature heralded a new genre in the history of the book one in which the photograph was the primary vehicle of expression and communication or stood in equal if sometimes conflicted partnership with the written word In this book practicing photographers and writers across several fields of scholarship share a range of fresh approaches to reading the photobook developing new ways of understanding how meaning is shaped by an image's interaction with its text and context and engaging with the visual tactile and interactive experience of the photobook in all its dimensions Through close studies of individual works the photobook from fetishised object d'art to cheaply printed booklet is explored and its unique creative and cultural contributions celebrated

Poetics of the Iconotext Professor Liliane Louvel, 2013-05-28 Poetics of the Iconotext makes available for the first time in English the theories of the respected French text image specialist Professor Liliane Louvel A consolidation of the most significant theoretical materials of Louvel's two acclaimed books L'Oeil du Texte Texte et image dans la littérature anglophone and Texte Image Images lire textes voir this newly conceived work introduces English readers to the most current thinking in French text image theory and visual studies Focusing on the full spectrum of text image relations from medieval illuminated manuscripts to digital books Louvel begins by introducing key terms and situating her work in the context of significant debates in text image studies Part II introduces Louvel's typology of pictorial saturation through which she establishes a continuum along which to measure the effect of the most figurative to the most literal images upon writerly and readerly textual spaces Part III adopts a phenomenological approach towards the reading viewing experience as expressed in conceptual categories that include the trace focal range synesthesia and rhythm and speed The result is a provocative interplay of the categorical and the subjective that invites readers to think at once more precisely and more inventively about texts images and the intersections between the two New Perspectives on Academic Writing Bernd Herzogenrath, 2022-11-17 Particularly for the disciplines of the humanities and social sciences for which writing is their lifeblood the crisis in academic writing has become existential It is not hard to diagnose the disease and its causes This book showcases what we desperately need radical alternatives experiments we can try out ways of writing that don't just tweak the system but plot a different course altogether This isn't just about finding new genres for these only change the surface appearance without altering the underlying dynamic Rather the editor and contributors focus on finding new ways to join thinking both with writing and the things of which and with which we write Each chapter brims with the kind of liveliness outspokenness and urgency that their theme demands Far from tiptoeing around the edifice of academia they are intent on stirring things up reigniting their scholarship with a fuse of activism in the hope of setting off an explosion that could send ripples throughout the academy

Elsa Morante's Politics of Writing Stefania Lucamante, 2014-12-18 Elsa Morante's Politics of Writing is a collected volume of twenty one essays written by Morante specialists and international scholars Essays gather attention on four broad critical topics namely the relationship Morante entertained with the arts cinema theatre and the visual arts new critical approaches to her four novels treatment of body and sexual politics and Morante's prophetic voice as it emerges in both her literary works and her essayistic writings Essays focus on Elsa Morante's strategies to address her wide disinterest and contempt for the Italian intellectual status quo of her time regardless of its political side while showing at once her own kind of ideological commitment Further contributors tackle the ways in which Morante's writings shape classical oppositions such as engagement and enchantment with the world sin and repentance self reflection and corporality as well as how her engagement in the visual arts theatre and cinematic adaptations of her works garner further perspectives to her stories and characters Her works particularly the novels Menzogna e sortilegio House of Liars 1948 La Storia Romanzo History A Novel 1974 and more explicitly Aracoeli Aracoeli 1982 foreshadowed and advanced tenets and structures later affirmed by postmodernism namely the fragmentation of narrative cells rhizomatic narratives lack of a linear temporal consistency and meta and self reflective processes

ImageScapes Christian Emden, Gabriele Rippl, 2010 The relationship between different media has emerged as one of the most important areas of research in contemporary cultural and literary studies But how should we conceive of the relationship between texts and images today Should we speak of collaboration interaction or competition What is the role of literary historical and scientific texts in a culture dominated by the visual What is the status of images as cultural artefacts Are images forms of representation do they simulate reality or do they intervene in the material world And how do literature and cultural theory themselves essentially textual discourses react to the much discussed visual turn within Western culture Does the concept of intermediality allow literary historical and cultural scholars to envisage a more general theory of media Addressing these questions from a programmatic point of view the articles in this volume investigate the effects of different forms of representation in modern European and American literature media and thought

Popular Modernism and Its Legacies Scott Ortolano, 2017-12-14 Popular Modernism and Its Legacies reconfigures modernist studies to investigate how modernist concepts figures and aesthetics continue to play essential though often undetected roles across an array of contemporary works genres and mediums Featuring both established and emerging scholars each of the book's three sections offers a distinct perspective on popular modernism The first section considers popular modernism in periods historically associated with the movement discovering hidden connections between traditional forms of modernist literature and popular culture The second section traces modernist genealogies from the past to the contemporary era ultimately revealing that immensely popular contemporary works artists and genres continue to engage and thereby renew modernist aesthetics and values The final section moves into the 21st century discovering how popular works invoke modernist techniques texts and artists to explore social and existential quandaries in the contemporary world Concluding with an afterword from noted scholar Faye Hammill Popular Modernism and Its Legacies reshapes the study of modernism and provides new perspectives on important works at the center of our cultural imagination

Ordering the Facade Katherine Henninger,2007 Proposing a new way to map intersections of photography and American literature Katherine Henninger demonstrates the importance of pinpointing specific cultural and subcultural history Ordering the Facade traces the visual and literary cultures of sou The Deceivers Aviva Briefel,2018-07-05 The nineteenth century witnessed an unprecedented increase in art forgery caused both by the advent of national museums and by a rapidly growing bourgeois interest in collecting objects from the past This rise had profound repercussions on notions of selfhood and national identity within and outside the realm of art Although art critics denounced forgery for its affront to artistic traditions they were fascinated by its power to shape the human and object worlds and adopted a language of art forgery to articulate a link between the making of fakes and the making of selves The Deceivers explores the intersections among artistic crime literary narrative and the definition of identity Literary texts joined more specialized artistic discourses in describing the various identities associated with art forgery the forger the copyist the art expert the dealer the restorer Built into new characters were assumptions about gender sexuality race and nationality that themselves would come to be presented in a language of artistic authenticity Aviva Briefel places special emphasis on the gendered distinction between male forgers and female copyists Copying a benign occupation when undertaken by a woman became forgery laden with criminal intent when performed by men Those who could successfully produce handle or detect spurious things and selves were distinguished from others who were incapable of distinguishing the authentic from the artistic and human forgeries Through close reading of literary narratives such as Trilby and The Marble Faun as well as newspaper accounts of forgery scandals The Deceivers reveals the identities both authentic and fake that emerged from the Victorian culture of forgery

Through the Negative Megan Williams,2003-11-12 The Civil War was the first image war as photographs of the battlefields became the dominant means for capturing an epochal historical moment At the same time writers used the Civil War to present both their notions of nation and their ideas about the new intersections between photography and literary form Margaret Atwood J. Brooks Bouson,2010-01-01 Beauty and the Abject Corrado Federici,Leslie Anne Boldt-Irons,Ernesto Virgulti,2007 Original Scholarly Monograph At the Violet Hour Sarah Cole,2012-11-01 Literature has long sought to make sense of the destruction and aggression wrought by human civilization Yet no single literary movement was more powerfully shaped by violence than modernism As Sarah Cole shows modernism emerged as an imaginative response to the devastating events that defined the period including the chaos of anarchist bombings World War

I the Irish uprising and the Spanish Civil War Combining historical detail with resourceful readings of fiction poetry journalism photographs and other cultural materials At the Violet Hour explores the strange intimacy between modernist aesthetics and violence in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The First World War and T S Eliot s The Waste Land demonstrate the new theoretical paradigm that Cole deploys throughout her study what she calls enchanted and disenchanted violence the polarizing perceptions of violent death as either the fuel for regeneration or the emblem of grotesque loss These concepts thread through the literary historical moments that form the core of her study beginning with anarchism and the advent of dynamite violence in late Victorian England As evinced in novels by Joseph Conrad Henry James and others anarchism fostered a vibrant modern consciousness of violence entrenched in sensationalism and melodrama A subsequent chapter offers four interpretive categories keening generative violence reprisal and allegory for reading violence in works by W B Yeats J M Synge Sean O Casey and others around the time of Ireland s Easter Rising The book concludes with a discussion of Virginia Woolf s oeuvre placing the author in two primary relations to the encroaching culture of violence deeply exploring and formalizing its registers and veering away from her peers to construct an original set of patterns to accommodate its visceral ubiquity in the years leading up to the Second World War A rich interdisciplinary study that incorporates perspectives from history anthropology the visual arts and literature At the Violet Hour provides a resonant framework for refiguring the relationship between aesthetics and violence that will extend far beyond the period traditionally associated with literary modernism
