Photographies de Magritte René Magritte, Marcel Paquet, 1982 City Gorged with Dreams Ian Walker, 2002 The author analyses how the Surrealists utilised the tactics of documentary and how Surrealist ideas in turn influenced the development of documentary photography This is a study of what Louis Aragon called surrealist realism the exploration of the real life surreality of the city Images from the Roger Thérond collection Roger Thérond, 1999 Cet ouvrage vous invite la visite privée d'une des plus importantes collections du monde Abbott Andr Bellmer Boucher Brassa Cartier Bresson Doisneau Henri Hugnet Izis Kertesz Krull Lartigue Lipnitzki Lotar Maar Man Ray Mesens Parry Rudomine Tabard Ubac Vigneau Hybrid Genres / L'Hybridité des genres, 2018-02-12 The essays collected in this volume explore the ways in which hybridity functions in a wide variety of visual musical and written texts from France the Francophone world and beyond Hybridity is defined here as an unexpected interaction or combination between two or more forms whether literary filmic ethnic generic or gendered The volume covers works ranging from the 16th to the 20th centuries from Pierre de Ronsard to Woody Allen The essays demonstrate that rather than being a uniquely postmodern or postcolonial phenomenon hybridity may be integral to creativity itself leading to the conclusion that hybrid forms tend to challenge authority by proposing alternatives to existing power structures or questioning conventional ways of thinking and viewing the world Thinking with Images John M. Carvalho, 2018-08-06 This book advances an enactivist theory of aesthetics through the study of inscrutable artworks that challenge us to think because we do not know what to think about them John M Carvalho presents detailed analyses of four artworks that share this unique characteristic Francis Bacon's Study After Velázquez's Portrait of Pope Innocent X 1953 the photographs of Duane Michals based on a retrospective of his work Storyteller at the Carnegie Museum of Art 2014 tant donnés 1968 by Marcel Duchamp and Jean Luc Godard's 1963 film Le Mépris released in the United States as Contempt Carvalho argues against the application of theory to derive appreciation or meaning from these artistic works Rather each study enacts an embodied cognitive engagement with the specific artworks intended to demonstrate the value of thinking about artworks that might be extended to our engagement with the world in general This thinking happens as these studies show when we trust our embodied skills and their guide to what artworks and the world around us afford for the activation and refinement of those skills Thinking with Images will be of interest to scholars working in the philosophy of art and philosophical aesthetics as well as art historians concerned with the meaning and value of contemporary art Foucault's Philosophy of Art Joseph J. Tanke, 2009-06-30 Foucault's Philosophy of Art A Genealogy of Modernity tells the story of how art shed the tasks with which it had traditionally been charged in order to become modern Joseph J Tanke offers the first complete examination of Michel Foucault's reflections on visual art tracing his thought as it engages with the work of visual artists from the seventeenth century to the contemporary period The book offers a concise and accessible introduction to Foucault's frequently anthologized but rarely understood analyses of Diego Velázquez's Las Meninas and René Magritte's Ceci

n est pas une pipe On the basis of unpublished lecture courses and several un translated analyses of visual art Tanke reveals the uniquely genealogical character of Foucault s writings on visual culture allowing for new readings of his major texts in the context of contemporary Continental philosophy aesthetic and cultural theory Ultimately Tanke demonstrates how Foucault provides philosophy and contemporary criticism with the means for determining a conception of modern art

Cinemagritte Lucy Fischer,2019-11-25 Examines the fascinating ties between Surrealist artist Ren Magritte and the cinema Cinemagritte Ren Magritte within the Frame of Film History Theory and Practice investigates the dynamic relationship between the Surrealist modernist artist Ren Magritte 1898 1967 and the cinema a topic largely ignored in the annals of film and art criticism Magritte once said that he used cinema as a trampoline for the imagination but here author Lucy Fischer reverses that process by using Magritte s work as a stimulus for an imaginative examination of film While Fischer considers direct influences of film on Magritte and Magritte on film she concentrates primarily on resonances of Magritte s work in international cinema both fiction and documentary mainstream and experimental These resonances exist for several reasons First Magritte was a lover of cinema and created works as homages to the medium such as Blue Cinema 1925 which immortalized his childhood movie theater Second Magritte s style though dependent on bizarre juxtapositions was characterized by surface realism which ties it to the nature of the photographic and cinematic image Third Magritte shares with film a focus on certain significant concepts the frame voyeurism illusionism the relation between word and image the face montage variable scale and flexible point of view Additionally the volume explores art documentaries concerning Magritte as well as the artist s whimsical amateur home movies made with his wife Georgette friends and Belgian Surrealist associates The monograph is richly illustrated with images of Magritte s oeuvre as well as film stills from such diverse works as The Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Eyes Without a Face American Splendor The Blood of a Poet Zorns Lemma The Island of Dr Moreau The Draughtsman s Contract and many more Cinemagritte brings a novel and creative approach to the work of Magritte and both film and art criticism Students scholars and fans of art history and film will enjoy this thoughtful

Ayers, 2014-06-11 Winner of the 2004 Grady Award from the National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis The issue of shame has become a central topic for many writers and therapists in recent years but it is debatable how much real understanding of this powerful and pervasive emotion we have achieved Mother Infant Attachment and Psychoanalysis argues that shame can develop during the first six months of life through an unreflected look in the mother's eyes and that this shame is then internalised by the infant and reverberates through its later life The author further expands on this concept of the look through a powerful and extensive study of the concept of the Evil Eye an enduring universal belief that eyes have the power to inflict injury Finally she presents ways of healing shame within a clinical setting and provides a fascinating analysis of the role of eye contact in the therapeutic encounter This book brings together a unique blend of theoretical interpretations of shame with clinical studies and integrates major concepts from psychoanalysis Jungian analysis developmental psychology and anthropology The result is a broad understanding of shame and a real understanding of why it may underlie a wide range of clinical disorders Minor Photography Mieke Bleyen, 2012 The first book to apply the concept of the minor to the theory of photography The notion of the minor developed by Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari in Kafka Towards a minor literature 1975 is introduced and connected applied here for the very first time to the field of photography theory Deleuze and Guattari defined minor literature in terms of deterritorialization politicization and collectivization By transferring the minor to the medium of photography this book enlarges the idea of the minor and opens it up to all kinds of mutations in the process The essays gathered in this book discuss the ways in which photography can make the dominant codes of representation stammer and how it can produce new effects and address people yet to come The authors consider the minor as a valuable tool to help photography research move beyond or in between binary and hierarchized ways of thinking of high and low art for example or centre and periphery As such it aims to contribute to a rethinking of photography as multiplicity and variation Consequently the term is connected with both marginal and canonical photographic practices covering photographers as different as Miroslav Tichý Paul McCarthy Tacita Dean Dan Graham and Paul Nougé After developing a theory of the minor this book explores how the operations of the minor can be found in major art practices It closes by tackling the question of photography as variation in case studies of belated forms of surrealist photography This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content Keeping an Eye Open Julian Barnes, 2015-10-06 An extraordinary collection of essays on the great masters of nineteenth and twentieth century art from the Booker Prize winning bestselling author of The Sense of an Ending An engaging and empathetic volume The New York Times Book Review As Julian Barnes notes Flaubert believed that it was impossible to explain one art form in terms of another and that great paintings required no words of explanation Braque thought the ideal state would be reached when we said nothing at all in front of a painting But it is a rare picture that stuns or argues us into silence And if one does it is only a short time before we want to explain and understand the very silence into which we have been plunged This is the exact dynamic that informs his new book In his 1989 novel A History of the World in 10 Chapters Barnes had a chapter on Géricault's The Raft of the Medusa and since then he has written about many great masters of art including Delacroix Manet Fantin Latour Cézanne Degas Redon Bonnard Vuillard Vallotton Braque Magritte Oldenburg Lucian Freud and Howard Hodgkin The seventeen essays gathered here help trace the arc from Romanticism to Realism and into Modernism they are adroit insightful and above all a true pleasure to read

The Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Salot, 2015 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L'Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face This unknown girl also called The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown ups This study is similarly a ghost story for grown ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal geographical and linguistic frontiers It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century It also investigates how the mask's metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity the translatability of media Doing so this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age

Bibliophobia Brian Cummings, 2022 Richly illustrated with manuscripts printed objects and art works Bibliophobia tells a 5000 year history of writing and of books to give readers a fascinating account of why books matter and how they impact on our lives
