Pre-State Photographic Archives and the Zionist Movement Rotem Rozental,2023-03-24 By entering and critically reactivating the Zionist photographic archive established by the Division of Journalism and Propaganda of the Jewish National Fund this research examines its rippling impact on civil landscapes prior to 1948 in Palestine and its lasting impact on the region to date This study argues that the Zionist movement makes particular use of the machinery of the photographic archive aiming to constitute the boundaries of Palestine as a Jewish state claiming ownership over the land and announcing internationally the success of its enterprise thus substantiating the image it sought to embed as the reality of the land This archive was not stand alone as it was functioning in relation to a vast complicated network of organizational systems and technologies in the Middle East and across the world Crucially this system functioned as a national archive in future tense for a nation state that was not yet in existence seeking to substantiate its regional authority and shape its cultural repository outlining parameters for inclusion and exclusion from its civic space The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography history visual culture Jewish studies Israel studies and Middle East studies Cities of God David Gange,Michael Ledger-Lomas,2013-10-17 This book shows how in unearthing biblical cities archaeology transformed nineteenth century thinking on the truth of Christianity and its role in modern cities Jerusalem in Original Photographs, 1850-1920 Shimon Gibson,2003 Jerusalem in Original Photographs brings together pictures taken by the early travel photographers who captured unique moments in history Structured around a contemporary map of the town the selection of illustrations leads the reader on a walking tour through streets often little changed over the course of the intervening century These black and white photographs have been drawn from the Palestine Exploration Fund archives and are accompanied by masterful commentary by the renowned archaeologist Dr Shimon Gibson Visual Syntax of Race Noa Hazan,2022-09-27 Analyzing the visual syntax and display rhetoric applied in newspaper photos national historical albums and museum exhibitions Noa Hazan shows that although racial thought was and still is verbally suppressed in Israel it is vividly present in its nonverbal official and public visual sphere The racist perspective of newspaper editors book publishers photographers and museum curators were morally justified in its time by such patronizing ideals as realistic news coverage or the salvation of Jewish heritage assets Although their perspectives played a dominant role in establishing a visual syntax of race in Israel they were not seen as racially discriminating at the time The racist motifs and actions are revealed here by colligating multiple cases into a coherent narrative in retrospect This book points to a direct influence of the anti Semitic discourse in Europe toward Mizrahim in Israel highlighting the shared visual stereotypes used in both Europe and the fledgling state of Israel Engraved in their body these cultural traits were depicted and understood as racial biological qualities and were visually manipulated to silo Ashkenazim and Mizrahim in Israel as distinct racial types The Photographer's Wife Suzanne Joinson,2017-02-07 From the bestselling author of A Lady Cyclist s Guide to Kashgar an incredible story of colonialism war

Survey Practices and Landscape Photography Across the Globe Sophie Junge, Erin Hyde Nolan, 2022-12-05 This edited volume considers the many ways in which landscape seen and unseen is fundamental to placemaking colonial settlement and identity formation Collectively the book s authors map a constellation of interlocking photographic histories and survey practices decentering Europe as the origin of camera based surveillance The volume charts a conversation across continents connecting Europe Africa the Arab World Asia and the Americas It does not segregate places histories and traditions but rather puts them in dialogue with one another establishing solidarity across ever shifting national linguistic racial religious and ethnic Refusing the neat organization of survey photographs into national or imperial narratives these essays celebrate the messy cross cultural reverberations of landscape over the past 170 years Considering the visual social and historical networks in which these images circulate this anthology connects the many entangled and political histories of photography in order to reframe survey practices and the multidimensionality of landscape as an international phenomenon This book will be of interest to scholars in art history history of photography and landscape history Francis Bedford, Landscape Photography and Nineteenth-century British Culture Stephanie Spencer, 2011 Focusing on one representative figure Francis Bedford this study emphasizes how photographs operated to form and transmit cultural ideas and values The first writing on Bedford since the 1970s the book examines this premier photographer who was also commercially successful Major themes include the intersection of nature and culture the practice of nineteenth century tourism attitudes toward historical identity and the formation of a national identity in England and Wales Photography and Making Bedouin Histories in the Naqab, 1906-2013 Emilie Le Febvre, 2023-12-22 Introducing a novel anthropological study of photography in the Middle East Emilie Le Febvre takes us to the Naqab Desert where Bedouin use photographs to make and respond to their own histories She argues Bedouin presentations of the past are selective but increasingly reliant on archival documents such as photographs which spokespersons treat as evidence of their local histories amid escalating tensions in Israel These practices shape Bedouin visual historicity that is the diverse ways people produce their pasts in the present with images This book charts these processes through the afterlives of six photographs c 1906 2013 as they circulate between the Naqab s entangled visual economies a transregional landscape organised by cultural ideals of proximity and assemblages of Bedouin iconography Le Febvre illustrates how representational contentions associated with tribal civic and Palestinian Israeli politics influence how images do history work in this society She concludes Bedouin visual historicity is defined by acts of persuasion during which photographs authenticate alternating history projects Here Bedouin value photographs not because they evidence singular narratives of the past Rather the knowledges inscribed by photography are multifarious as they support diverse constructions of history and society with which members mediate a wide range of relationships in southern Israel This book bridges studies of anthropology photography Palestinian Israeli politics and Bedouin Middle East history Travel Writing, Visual Culture, and Form, 1760-1900 Brian H. relationship becomes more broadly known the world will be shocked      Moving Picture World and View Photographer ,1918
