Chopin in Britain Peter Willis, 2017-12-14 In 1848 the penultimate year of his life Chopin visited England and Scotland at the instigation of his aristocratic Scots pupil Jane Stirling In the autumn of that year he returned to Paris The following autumn he was dead Despite the fascination the composer continues to hold for scholars this brief but important period and his previous visit to London in 1837 remain little known In this richly illustrated study Peter Willis draws on extensive original documentary evidence as well as cultural artefacts to tell the story of these two visits and to place them into aristocratic and artistic life in mid nineteenth century England and Scotland In addition to filling a significant hole in our knowledge of the composer s life the book adds to our understanding of a number of important figures including Jane Stirling and the painter Ary Scheffer The social and artistic milieux of London Manchester Glasgow and Edinburgh are brought to vivid life Primitive Photography Alan Greene, 2013-04-11 Primitive Photography considers the hand made photographic process in its entirety showing the reader how to make box cameras lenses paper negatives and salt prints using inexpensive tools and materials found in most hardware and art supply stores Step by step procedures are presented alongside theoretical explanations and historical background Streamlined calotype procedures are demonstrated featuring different paper negative processes and overlooked developing out printing methods Primitive Photography combines the simplicity of pinhole photography the handmade quality of alternative processes and the precision of large format For those seeking alternatives to commercially prepared material as well as digital photography it provides the instructions for creating the entire photographic process from the ground up Given its scope and treatment of the photographic process as a whole this may be the first book of its kind to appear in over a century Historic Resource Study for Muir Woods National Monument
