Excerpt from Poor Miss Finch A Domestic Story IN expressing my acknowledgments for the favorable reception accorded to the previous editions of this story I may take the present opportunity of advertizing to one of the characters not alluded to in the Letter of Dedication The German oculist Herr Grosse has impressed himself so strongly as a real personage on the minds of some of my readers afflicted with blindness or suffering from diseases of the eye that I have received several written applications requesting me to communicate his present address to patients desirous of consulting him Sincerely appreciating the testimony thus rendered to the truth of this little study of character I have been obliged to acknowledge to my correspondents and I may as well repeat it here that Herr Grosse has no individual living prototype Like the other Persons of the Drama in this book and in the books which have preceded it he is drawn from my general Observation of humanity I have always considered it to be a mistake in Art to limit the delineation of character in fiction to a literary portrait taken from any one sitter The result of this process is generally to my mind to produce a caricature instead of a character About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Poor Miss
