Margaret Wise Brown's Experimental Art Julia Pond,2024-09-25 In this study the engaging art created by children s author Margaret Wise Brown

receives the critical attention it deserves as a lasting contribution to American children's literature Through analysis of her dozens of titles published during the height of western Modernism this scholarly text shares Brown's importance and impact from the perspective of Brown's work rather than biographically Moving beyond such popular titles as Goodnight Moon and The Runaway Bunny into deeper cuts reveals how Brown's oeuvre bridges multiple disciplines including writing visual art philosophy and music Her projects successfully experiment with artistic collaboration and synesthesia as a natural expression for a child readership while both contributing to and reflecting high Modernism amidst the two World Wars The quality of Brown's writing and the maturity of her themes reveal respect for her child audience and recommend her work to the generations of readers who followed her early death As this book demonstrates Margaret Wise Brown remains one of the truly great authors of children's literature

Love You More Than You Know Janie Reinart, Mary Anne Mayer, 2009 In these personal stories 45 Ohio mothers open their hearts and share what it feels like when your son or daughter leaves home to fight a war Some were stunned to learn one sunny afternoon that their baby had enlisted in the Marines Others had long been familiar with military life But all knew their life had just changed the day their child called and said Mom I'm being deployed They discovered the strange mix of pride and fear The anxiety of not knowing exactly where in Iraq or Afghanistan your son is whether your daughter is facing mortar fire or enduring heat and boredom Elation at the arrival of the briefest postcard or email message The daily dread when returning home from work or a trip to the grocery store of seeing a government car in the driveway and two soldiers at the door Any parent who reads these stories will feel their power and will gain a greater understanding of the sacrifice made by parents as well as their children in our military service
