Popcorn Girl:

Popcorn Girl Richard Dankleff, 1979 Oshkosh Ron La Point, 2010-03 This is a book of collected works compiled and written by community members who chose to share their remembrances of the past. The stories take place in Oshkosh Wisconsin in the 1940s and 50s although a few stories go before and a few beyond. They are stories of corner taverns, grocery stores, churches, and self-contained neighborhoods of sports and sport heroes and icons of the past: of movie theatres, a dank basement, and a chance encounter with Gene Autry of polio epidemics, iron lungs, and stories from two who were afflicted with hobo-fearful mothers and orphan train drops of the beginning of aviation, steam-driven trains, and motorcycle clubs of walleye and white bass runs, ice shanties, and spearing sturgeons no longer there, and barbershop songfests that are of boating yacht clubs and Friday night fish fries of regular folks and community leaders and others of note of pin setting and caddying and other teenage staples of war rationing, blackouts, and savings bonds of old-fashioned ice houses, traveling circuses, and freshwater quarries of YMCA's library expansions and civic events of an American war hero, a diary kept, and a fallen president and of an Oshkosh that in its heyday was known throughout the country as Sawdust City. The stories you are about to read are first-hand accounts, images of another time. Ron La Point, a retired high school history teacher, has authored two previous books: A Family History and Oshkosh: A South Sider Remembers. He and his wife Carol winter in Sun City West, Arizona, and summer in his hometown of Oshkosh, Wisconsin. In Her Shoes Madonna Dries Christensen, 2012-07-03 Madonna Dries Christensen's poignant memoir In Her Shoes is a superb model for the preservation of personal family memories. Anyone who wishes to record his or her own family history should read this book first. With precise writing and awe-inspiring photos, Madonna has created a cherished keepsake for her immediate family as well as for posterity. As she aptly states in this memorable memoir: "We become who we are because of who we were," a culmination of the momentous and the minutiae. E. P. Ned Burke, author of seven novels and editor of Yesterdays Magazine and Writers Magazine. This beautiful collection of stories creates piece by loving piece the picture of a life well and richly lived. Madonna turns something as small as her first sip of Coca-Cola into a sensual drama and a morality play. After you read the final story about the death of her beloved mother, you'll want to hug your loved ones to you and tell them you love them. Marshall Cook, an emeritus professor at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, is the author of 30 books. He edits a free online newsletter for writers called Extra Innings. www.dcs.wisc.edu/lsa/writing/extrainsings. This tender and skillful tribute to her mother by Madonna Dries Christensen will certainly be treasured by her extended family for its careful curation of dear family history. The rest of us will enjoy the lively stories and nod in recognition of characters who have their counterparts in our own families. With her thoughtful narration and gallery of old photos, the author hopes to inspire others to record family memories while there is time. Enjoy this collection and start your own.
