To which is Prefixed the Life of the Author, by Dr. Johnson Alexander Pope, 1830 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Pope Brean S. Hammond, 2014-09-19 This collection of essays represents some of the best critical thinking on Pope in recent years Professor Hammond examines the main issues in the debate in particular why Pope s writing has been so resistant to modern methodologies such as deconstruction The essays focus on particular poems or themes and exemplify different theoretical perspectives both traditional and modern The editor s notes clarify the differences that exist and what those differences can teach the student about theory in practice Critical Essays on Alexander Pope Wallace Jackson, R. Paul Yoder, 1993 Editors Jackson and Yoder have confined their selection of essays to those from the last 20 years and particularly those since 1980 The essays are general in nature rather than confining themselves to a specific work in an attempt to place Pope in the broader perspective of representing the whole person as opposed to earlier criticism that depicted him as a skilled craftsman and a poet of eminent good sense Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Contemporary Criticisms of Dr. Samuel Johnson, His Works, and His Biographers John Ker Spittal, 1923 The Poetical Works of A.
