The Land of the Blue Poppy Francis Kingdon Ward,1913 Poppy and the Pirate Elizabeth Cole,2022-02-15 On the smugglers coast sparks will fly Poppy St George s sharp tongue has done nothing for her except find trouble When her dearest friend and childhood companion marries she is suddenly alone and adrift in a society that prefers ladies to be meek and mild Poppy seizes a chance to escape her melancholy by summering on the Cornish coast never dreaming she will come face to face with a particular gentleman from her past a man she secretly loved before he broke her heart Carlos de la Guerra is a man who has always chosen duty over desire He always knew Poppy was special but he lost his chance to court her when he had to defend his family s interests abroad Now he has returned to England and Carlos is determined to correct his mistake if only Poppy will let him Just as the two are brought together again they are drawn into an intriguing and dangerous mystery that threatens them both Caught between smugglers and social climbers Carlos and Poppy discover that the course of true love never runs smooth The Wallflowers of Wildwood series follows five young women as they leave their beloved boarding school and venture out into the cutthroat world of the marriage mart Get ready London These wallflowers are wilder than you think In Kierkegaard's Garden with the Poppy Blooms Chris Boesel,2021-07-27 Chris Boesel invites readers into a Kierkegaardian style literary conceit creating two pseudonymous voices one philosophical and deconstructive one theological and confessional in order to stage an encounter between two commentaries on Kierkegaard s Fear and Trembling On one level the contest between the two commentaries demonstrates the extent to which an encounter between deconstruction and Kierkegaard has not taken place in the one place everyone thinks it has in Derrida s reading of Fear and Trembling in The Gift of Death On a deeper level Boesel argues that Derrida s misreading of Fear and Trembling is both source and symptom of a wider problem an apophatic blind spot in deconstructive engagements with Christian theology in philosophy of religion and postmodern theology This blind spot erases the theological and ethical possibilities of what Boesel calls a Kierkegaardian confessional faith possibilities rooted in a deconstructive deconstructibility that produces its own deconstructive like effects As a corrective to this blind spot the encounter between deconstruction and Kierkegaard staged here shows how these effects do the very things heralded by self proclaimed apophatic remedies of confessional faith disrupt human mastery over God and neighbor while calling for concrete commitments to justice for the widow orphan and stranger
