Popular And The Canonical Debating Twentieth Century Literature:

The Popular & the Canonical David Johnson, 2005 This volume ranges from the Second World War to the postmodern considering issues of the popular and the competing criteria by which literature has been judged in the later twentieth century As well as tracing the transition from modernism to postmodernism the authors guide students through debates around the pleasures of the popular and the question of inter relations between mass and high cultures Drawing further upon issues of value and function raised in Aestheticism and Modernism Debating Twentieth Century Literature 1900 1960 they examine contemporary literary prizes and the activity of judgement involved in English Studies This text can be used alongside the other books in the series for a complete course on twentieth century literature or on its own as essential reading for students of mid to late twentieth century writing Texts examined in detail include du Maurier s Rebecca poetry by Ginsburg and O Hara Dick s Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Puig s Kiss of the Spiderwoman Beckett s Waiting for Godot Heaney s New Selected Poems 1966 1987 Gurnah s Paradise Barker s The Ghost Road A Twentieth-century

Literature Reader Suman Gupta, David Johnson, 2005 This critical Reader is the essential companion to any course in twentieth century literature Drawing upon the work of a wide range of key writers and critics the selected extracts provide a literary historical overview of the twentieth century insight into theoretical discussions around the purpose value and form of literature which dominated the century closer examination of representative texts from the period around which key critical issues might be debated Clearly conveying the excitement generated by twentieth century literary texts and by the provocative critical ideas and arguments that surrounded them this reader can be used alongside the two volumes of Debating Twentieth Century Literature or as a core text for any module on the literature of the last century Texts examined in detail include Chekhov s The Cherry Orchard Mansfield s Short Stories poetry of the 1930s Gibbon s Sunset Song Eliot s Prufrock Brecht s Galileo Woolf s Orlando Okigbo s Selected Poems du Maurier s Rebecca poetry by Ginsburg and O Hara Dick s Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Puig s Kiss of the Spiderwoman Beckett s Waiting for Godot Heaney s New Selected Poems 1966 1987 Gurnah s Paradise and Barker s The Ghost Road Aestheticism & Modernism Richard

Danson Brown, Suman Gupta, 2005 Textbook introduction to key debates from the early twentieth century to modernisms emerging between First and Second World Wars Examines in detail texts by Chekhov Mansfield Gibbon Eliot Woolf Brecht and Okigbo Twentieth-Century Russian Poetry Katharine Hodgson, Joanne Shelton, Alexandra Smith, 2017-04-21 The canon of Russian poetry has been reshaped since the fall of the Soviet Union A multi authored study of changing cultural memory and identity this revisionary work charts Russia s shifting relationship to its own literature in the face of social upheaval Literary canon and national identity are inextricably tied together the composition of a canon being the attempt to single out those literary works that best express a nation s culture This process is of course fluid and subject to significant shifts particularly at times of epochal change This volume explores changes in the canon of twentieth century Russian poetry from the 1991 collapse of the Soviet Union to the end of Putin's second term as Russian President in 2008. In the wake of major institutional changes such as the abolition of state censorship and the introduction of a market economy, the way was open for wholesale reinterpretation of twentieth-century poets such as Iosif Brodskii, Anna Akhmatova and Osip Mandelstam, their works and their lives. In the last twenty years, many critics have discussed the possibility of various coexisting canons rooted in official and non-official literature and suggested replacing the term Soviet literature with a new definition: Russian literature of the Soviet period. Contributions to this volume explore the multiple factors involved in reshaping the canon, understood as a body of literary texts given exemplary or representative status as classics. Among factors which may influence the composition of the canon are educational institutions, competing views of scholars and critics, including figures outside Russia, and the self-canonising activity of poets themselves. Canon revision further reflects contemporary concerns with the destabilising effects of emigration and the internet and the desire to reconnect with pre-revolutionary cultural traditions through a narrative of the past which foregrounds continuity. Despite persistent nostalgic yearnings in some quarters for a single canon, the current situation is defiantly diverse, balancing both the Soviet literary tradition and the parallel contemporaneous literary worlds of the emigration and the underground. Required reading for students, teachers and lovers of Russian literature. Twentieth Century Russian Poetry brings our understanding of post-Soviet Russia up to date.

The English Literature & Other Essays Geoff Woodbridge, 2017-10-13. Collected over several years of study in the Arts, these essays include subjects including Shakespeare's Othello, Katherine Mansfield, Skelton, Du Maurier, M. P. U. G. Dick, Chekhov's Cherry Orchard, Stevenson, Doyle, Voltaire, Heaney, Beckett, Ginsberg, Naipaul, Benin, bronzes, Christianity, Metropolis, The Diva, Lonely Londoners, The Dubliners and the seaside for leisure. Essential reading for any student studying English literature and the arts to assist with their own essays through extended learning. Literary Journalism in British and American Prose Doug Underwood, 2019-05-10. The debate surrounding fake news versus real news is nothing new. From Jonathan Swift's work as an acerbic anonymous journal editor turned novelist to reporter Mark Twain's hoax stories to Mary Ann Evans' literary reviews written under her pseudonym George Eliot, famous journalists and literary figures have always mixed fact, imagination and critical commentary to produce memorable works. Contrasting the rival yet complementary traditions of literary or new journalism in Britain and the U.S., this study explores the credibility of some of the great works of English literature. Critical Perspectives on Abdulrazak Gurnah Tina Steiner, Maria Olaussen, 2022-07-28. This edited volume provides a wide-ranging introduction to the novelistic oeuvre of the prize-winning author Abdulrazak Gurnah. It addresses a gap in Gurnah scholarship by including chapters which discuss his earlier works that have not received the scholarly attention they deserve. Drawing on a range of critical lenses including postcolonial theory, Indian Ocean studies, psychoanalytic theory, migration studies and gender studies, this book provides illuminating commentary on his novels. Attentive to the geographical and historical reach of the narratives, the chapters engage with recurring thematic concerns of departures and arrivals of complex family relationships and of precarious cosmopolitan hospitality in situations of changing power relations from the old Indian Ocean monsoon trading system to colonial and postcolonial contexts The volume concludes with an author interview It will be of great interest to researchers in the fields of Literary and Cultural Studies especially Postcolonial Literature African Studies and Indian Ocean Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of English Studies in Africa

International Perspectives on Teaching English in a Globalised World Andrew Goodwyn, Louann Reid, Cal Durrant, 2013-10-01 The renowned and highly experienced editors of this book bring together the leading voices in contemporary English education under the banner of the International Federation for the Teaching of English IFTE The collected chapters here represent the very best of international writing on the teaching of English in the past decade The key issues and debates surrounding English teaching across the globe are discussed and analysed accessibly and incorporate wide ranging topics including The impact of high stakes testing on teaching and learning Addressing the needs of minority groups The digitization of literature and new conceptions of text Rewriting the canon Dealing with curriculum change Best practices in the teaching of English The tension between literacy and English English and bilingual education The impact of digital technologies on teaching and learning Conceptions of English as a subject secondary and tertiary Bringing the critical into the English Literacy classroom The future of subject English Empowering voices on the margins Pre service teacher education The social networking English classroom This text looks at the changing face of subject English from the differing perspectives of policy makers teacher educators teachers and their students It tackles some of the hard questions posed by technological advances in a global society challenges conventional approaches to teaching and points to the emerging possibilities for a traditional school subject such as English in the face of rapid change and increasing societal expectations Despite all of the converging political and technological threats the authors of this engaging and insightful text portray an immense confidence in the ultimate worth of teaching and learning subject English

The Dramatic Works of Samuel Beckett Charles A. Carpenter, 2011-10-13 Science Fiction Literature through History Gary Westfahl, 2021-07-19 This book provides students and other interested readers with a comprehensive survey of science fiction history and numerous essays addressing major science fiction topics authors works and subgenres written by a distinguished scholar This encyclopedia deals with written science fiction in all of its forms not only novels and short stories but also mediums often ignored in other reference books such as plays poems comic books and graphic novels Some science fiction films television programs and video games are also mentioned particularly when they are relevant to written texts Its focus is on science fiction in the English language though due attention is given to international authors whose works have been frequently translated into English Since science fiction became a recognized genre and greatly expanded in the 20th century works published in the 20th and 21st centuries are most frequently discussed though important earlier works are not neglected The texts are designed to be helpful to numerous readers ranging from students first encountering science fiction to experienced scholars in the field Pre and Post-publication Itineraries of the Contemporary Novel in English François Gallix, 2007 Myth, Memory and the Middlebrow I. Habermann, 2010-05-19

This study explores Englishness as a symbolic form from the 1920s to the 1940s Two case studies focused on J B Priestley and Daphne du Maurier explore crucial ways in which popular middlebrow authors imagine and shape the nation providing an innovative approach to literary negotiations of cultural identity The Fiction of Pat Barker Merritt Moseley, 2014-05-28 Pat Barker is one of the most important authors of her time Her fiction has won many awards including the Booker Prize for The Ghost Road the last novel in her celebrated Regeneration trilogy and has attracted much critical attention This stimulating Guide examines the key critical responses to the full range of Barker's fiction from newspaper reviews and journal articles to revealing interviews and book length scholarship Merritt Moseley also explores the central themes which run through Barker's novels and the criticism such as the issues of gender class social realism violence and trauma Tracing the development of Barker's fiction through the surrounding critical works this is an indispensable volume for anyone with an interest in one of Britain's most popular and widely studied contemporary writers Science-fiction Studies, 2007 Understanding Philip K. Dick Eric Carl Link, 2022-11-03 A guide to the fantastic world of a science fiction legend Author of more than forty novels and myriad short stories over a three decade literary career Philip K Dick 1928 1982 single handedly reshaped twentieth century science fiction His influence has only increased since his death with the release of numerous feature films and television series based on his work including Blade Runner Total Recall Minority Report A Scanner Darkly and The Man in the High Castle In Understanding Philip K Dick Eric Carl Link introduces readers to the life career and work of this groundbreaking prolific and immeasurably influential force in American literature media culture and contemporary science fiction Dick was at times a postmodernist a mainstream writer a pulp fiction writer and often all three simultaneously but as Link illustrates he was more than anything else a novelist of ideas From this vantage point Link surveys Dick's tragicomic biography his craft and career and the recurrent ideas and themes that give shape and significance to his fiction Link finds across Dick's writing career an intellectual curiosity that transformed his science fiction novels from bizarre pulp extravaganzas into philosophically challenging explorations of the nature of reality and it is this depth of vision that continues to garner new audiences and fresh approaches to Dick's genre defining tales Adapting Detective Fiction Neil McCaw, 2011-01-20 A Genealogy of the Verse Novel Catherine Addison, 2017-11-06 The present age has seen an explosion of verse novels in many parts of the world Australia is a prolific producer as are the USA and the UK Novels in verse have also appeared in Canada New Zealand India South Africa Jamaica and several other countries A novel written in verse contradicts theories that distinguish the novel as essentially a prose genre The boundaries of prose and verse are however somewhat fluid This is especially evident in the case of free verse poetry and the kinds of prose used in many Modernist novels The contemporary outburst may seem a uniquely Postmodernist flouting of generic boundaries but in fact the verse novel is not new Its origins reach back to at least the eighteenth century Byron s Don Juan in the early nineteenth century was an important influence on many later examples Since its first surge in popularity during the Victorian era it has never died out though some fine examples most of them from the earlier twentieth century have been neglected or forgotten This book investigates the status of the verse novel as a genre and traces its mainly English language history from its beginnings The discussion will be of interest to genre theorists prosodists narratologists and literary historians as well as readers of verse novels wishing for some background to this apparently new literary phenomenon Christianity and Confucianism Christopher Hancock,2020-12-10 Christianity and Confucianism Culture Faith and Politics sets comparative textual analysis against the backcloth of 2000 years of cultural political and religious interaction between China and the West As the world responds to China s rise and China positions herself for global engagement this major new study reawakens and revises an ancient conversation As a generous introduction to biblical Christianity and the Confucian Classics Christianity and Confucianism tells a remarkable story of mutual formation and cultural indebtedness East and West are shown to have shaped the mind heart culture philosophy and politics of the other and far more perhaps than either knows or would want to admit Christopher Hancock has provided a rich and stimulating resource for scholars and students diplomats and social scientists devotees of culture and those who pursue wisdom and peace today The Literary Tourist N. Watson,2006-10-10 This original witty illustrated study offers the first analytical history of the rise and development of literary tourism in nineteenth century Britain associated with authors from Shakespeare Gray Keats Burns and Scott the Bront sisters and Thomas Hardy Invaluable for the student of travel and literature of the nineteenth century Islam in the Eastern African Novel E. Mirmotahari,2011-06-06 This study of the sub Saharan African novel interprets representations of Islam as a central organising presence that generates new conceptual questions and demands new critical frameworks with which to approach categories like nationhood race diaspora immigration and Africa s multiple colonial pasts
