Popular Fiction An Anthology:

Indian Popular Fiction Gitanjali Chawla, Sangeeta Mittal, 2021-10-14 This anthology explores and validates the nuances of Indian popular fiction which has hitherto been hounded by its ubiquitous commercial success. It uncovers popular in its socio-political and cultural contexts. Furthermore, it investigates the vitality embedded in theory and praxis of popular forms and their insurrections in mutants and new age oeuvres and looks to examine the symbiotic bonds between the reader and the author as the latter articulates and perpetuates the needs of the former whose demands need continual fulfilment. This constant metamorphosis of the popular fueled by neoliberalism and postmodernity along with the shifts in the publishing industry to more democratic reader-driven genres is taken up here along with the millennial's fetish for romance humanized mythical retellings and the evergreen whodunnits. As its natural soulmates, the anthology delves into the interstices of Indian Popular with desi local traditions, folk lore, community consciousness and nation building. Please note: This title is co-published with Aakar Books New Delhi. Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka. The universal anthology, a collection of the best literature, with biographical and explanatory notes, ed. by R. Garnett, L. Vallée, A. Brandl. Imperial ed. Richard Garnett, 1899. Popular Fiction Gary Hoppenstand, 1998. This unique anthology offers the best of popular fiction: 45 short stories and one short novel that highlight the major genres of popular writing including horror fiction, romance, science fiction, detective stories and adventure. Supporting this definitive collection of stories are ten non-fiction essays written by well-known authors discussing some of the key elements for writing in each genre. The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14. Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now. This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood. Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period, this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo. In doing so, the book also develops the first book-length conceptualisation of the features and meaning-making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form. This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide. The Year's Best Science Fiction Gardner Dozois, 1987-04. A collection of the best stories published in 1986. The Year's Best Science Fiction: Twenty-First Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 2004-07. The stories in this collection imaginatively take readers far across the universe into the very core of their beings to the realm of the Gods and to the moment just after now. Included are the works of masters of the form and the bright new talents of tomorrow This book is a valuable resource in addition to serving as the single best place in the universe to find stories that stir the imagination and the heart The Year's Best Science Fiction: Second Annual Collection

Gardner Dozois,1985-05-15 This collection is the second installment in the popular and long running The Year's Best Science Fiction series Fantastic Science Fiction The Year's Best And Biggest Collection Here's the cream of the crop short stories novelettes novellas by science fiction writers already famous and awarded for their high quality work in science fiction

Writers like Robert Silverberg Lucius Shepard Jack McDevitt Octavia E Butler Connie Willis Richard Cowper John Varley Gene Wolfe The Best Peace Fiction Robert Olen Butler,Phong Nguyen,2021-09-15 Named Peacemaker of the Year in the 2022 Independent Publisher IPPY Book Awards In the first anthology of its kind Robert Olen Butler and Phong Nguyen assemble an astounding collection of stories that cause readers to contemplate war peace and social justice in a new light The fourteen stories featured in this volume explore the varied and often unexpected outcomes of violence The authors explore the tragedies that occur closer to home not on military battlefields but rather in places that are never meant to be battlefields like schools and churches The fiction reveals the violence that renders our most sacred and seemingly safest of places vulnerable Not a utopian project this book asks whether literature has a role in furthering the ongoing pursuit of peace and justice for all While exploring tragedy these stories also offer hope for healing illuminating how people can move forward from the moments when their lives change and how they can regain and reshape safe spaces to find solace

Year's Best SF David G. Hartwell,2009-10-13 WORLD ALTERING SCIENCE FICTION Tales of wonder and adventure set on distant planets or in the future of our own Stories that go beyond the limits of Space and Time David G Hartwell has brought together only the best of this year's new SF from established pros and audacious newcomers selecting only those that share the universal quality of great science fiction Our familiar world will look a little less familiar after you read one Includes stories by Joe Haldeman Ursula K Le Guin Robert Silverberg Roper Zelazny Narrative of Chinese and Western Popular Fiction Yonglin Huang,2018-09-26 This book presents a comprehensive and systematic study of the narrative history and narrative methods of Chinese and Western popular fiction from the perspectives of narratology comparative literature and art and literature studies by adopting the methodology of parallel comparison The book is a pioneering work that systematically investigates the similarities and differences between Chinese and Western popular fiction and traces the root causes leading to the differences By means of narrative comparison it explores the conceptual and spiritual correlations and differences between Chinese and Western popular fiction and by relating them to the root causes of cultural spirit allows us to gain an insight into the cultural heritage of different nations The book is structured in line with a cause and effect logical sequence and moves from the macroscopic to the microscopic from history to reality and from theory to practice The integration of macro level theoretical studies and micro level case studies is both novel and effective This book was awarded Second Prize at the Sixth Outstanding Achievement Awards in Scientific Research for Chinese Institutions of Higher

Evaporating Genres Gary K. Wolfe, 2012-01-01 A series of provocative essays on how the fantastic genres evolve and grow In this wide ranging series of essays an award winning science fiction critic explores how the related genres of science fiction fantasy and horror evolve merge and finally evaporate into new and more dynamic forms Beginning with a discussion of how literary readers unlearned how to read the fantastic during the heyday of realistic fiction Gary K Wolfe goes on to show how the fantastic reasserted itself in popular genre literature and how these genres themselves grew increasingly unstable in terms of both narrative form and the worlds they portray More detailed discussions of how specific contemporary writers have promoted this evolution are followed by a final essay examining how the competing discourses have led toward an emerging synthesis of critical approaches and vocabularies The essays cover a vast range of authors and texts and include substantial discussions of very current fiction published within the last few years
