Popular Religion And Liberation The Dilemma Of Liberation Theology:

Popular Religion and Liberation Michael R. Candelaria, 1990-01-01 El tema del libro es la ambivalencia de la religiosidad popular para la teología de la liberación y para la liberación misma Enfoca el asunto en dos posiciones de opuesta apreciación de la religiosidad popular la de Juan Carlos Scannone y la de Juan Disruptive Religion Christian Smith, 2014-07-16 Religion has long played a central role in many social and political movements Solidarity in Poland anti apartheid in South Africa Operation Rescue in the United States each of these movements is driven by the energy and sustained by the commitment of many individuals and organizations whose ideologies are shaped and powered by religious faith In many cases religious resources and motives serve as crucial variables explaining the emergence of entire social movements Despite the crucial role of religion in most societies this religious activism remains largely uninvestigated Disruptive Religion intends to fill this void by analyzing contemporary social movements which are driven by people and organizations of faith Upon a firm base of empirical evidence these essays also address many theoretical issues arising in the study of social movements and disruptive politics The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera, 2017-07-27 2000 Catholic Press Association Award Winner The claim has been made that we are gripped today in an aesthetic crisis with considerable theological ramifications Aesthetics which has existed since the first human heart was moved by the influence of the beautiful has played a major role both implicit and explicit in theological reflection In The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro Garcia Rivera draws from the North American philosophical tradition and Hispanic theological thought to propose a new aesthetic principle a redemptive building of the community of the beautiful The Community of the Beautiful focuses on the premise that religion and beauty go together Yet today hundreds of theological treatises continue to speak solely of the truth of their claims The Community of the Beautiful addresses this silence with a proposal about the relationship between God and the beautiful It asks the question How can the finite human creature name the nameless perceive the imperceptible make visible the invisible The answer is what Hans Urs von Balthasar called a theological aesthetics The Community of the Beautiful is not simply an analysis of Balthasar's theology there exists a more personal and concrete reason for a reconsideration of the connection between God and the beautiful The experience of a particular living ecclesial tradition the Latin Church of the Americas may be a guide to a world that lost its confidence in the religious dimensions of the beautiful Garcia Rivera recasts the question of theological aesthetics posed above in light of the religious experience of the Latin Church of the Americas so that the question becomes What moves the human heart To answer that question Garcia Rivera draws on along ignored philosophical tradition The philosophical semiotics of Charles Peirce and Josiah Royce enter into dialogue with the theological aesthetics of Hans Urs von Balthasar to describe the traditional transcendentals the True and the Good as communities The final transcendental the beautiful enters into conversation with the semiotic aesthetics of Jan Mukarovsky and the religious experience of the Latin American Church to become the dazzling Vision of the community of the beautiful God's community Chapters are Pled Beauty A Different Beauty Seeing the Form The Community of the True The Community of the Good The Community of the Beautiful and Lifting up the Lowly Alejandro R Garcia Rivera a Roman Catholic lay theologian received his doctorate in theology from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago and holds degrees in physics from Ohio State University and Miami University The author of numerous articles and winner of a Catholic Press Association award he is assistant professor of systematic theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley

Liberationist Christianity in Argentina (1930-1983) Pablo Bradbury, 2023 Understanding the movement to be dynamic and highly diverse this book reveals that ecclesial and political conflicts especially over Peronism and celibacy were at the heart of the construction of a liberationist Christian identity which simultaneously internalised deep tensions over its relationship to the Catholic Church It first situates the rise of a revolutionary Christian impulse in Argentina within changes in society in Catholicism and Protestantism and in Marxism in the 1930s before analysing how the phenomenon coalesced in the late sixties into a coherent social movement Finally the book examines the responses of liberationist Christians to the intense period of repression under the presidency of Isabel Peron and the rule of the military junta between 1974 and 1983

Christianity with an Asian Face Peter C. Phan, ,2015-02-19 The Aesthetics and Ethics of Faith Christopher D. Tirres,2014-01-17 What is the future of liberation thought in the Americas In this groundbreaking work Christopher D Tirres takes up this question by looking at the methodological connections between two quintessentially American traditions liberation theology and pragmatism He explains how pragmatism lends philosophical clarity and depth to some of liberation theology's core ideas and assumptions Liberation theology in turn offers pragmatism a more nuanced and sympathetic approach to religious faith especially its social and pedagogical dimensions Ultimately Tirres crafts a philosophical foundation that ensures the continued relevance of liberation thought in today's world Keeping true to the method of pragmatism the book begins inductively with a set of actual experiences the Good Friday liturgies at the San Fernando Cathedral in San Antonio Texas and provides a compelling description of the way these performative rituals integrate the aesthetic and ethical dimensions of faith Subsequent chapters probe this integration deductively at three levels of theoretical analysis experience metaphysics sociality and pedagogy As Tirres shows the aesthetic and ethical dimensions of faith emerge in different yet related ways at all three levels He argues that utilizing the categories of the aesthetic and ethical enables a richer understanding of the dynamic relationship between faith and politics This book builds new bridges between a number of discourses and key figures and will be of interest to all who are interested in the liberatory potential of engaged faith praxis especially when it is expressed in the form of religious ritual
