Jack Goody between Social Anthropology and World History Chris Hann, Han F. Vermeulen, A giant of British social anthropology Jack Goody 1919-2015 laboured for sixty years to transcend the view that anthropology was the study of other cultures. He wanted to move it in the direction of a more sociological postcolonial comparative social science. The most important precondition for this science was the freeing of world history from centuries of Eurocentric bias. From his base in Cambridge, Goody's influence and inspiration spread out internationally. In Germany as a long-term adviser to the Max Planck Society, he played a key role in the establishment of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle Saale in 1999. This volume presents twelve Goody Lectures delivered in Halle between 2011 and 2022 together with an unpublished lecture given in 2004 by Goody himself and biographical and bibliographical essays by the editors The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian History Toyin Falola, Matthew M. Heaton, 2022 Thirty-six chapters covering the history of Nigeria from prehistoric times to the twenty-first century. Accessible overviews of both the political narrative as well as the deeper histories of social organization, identity formation and inter-group relationships. Cutting-edge analysis of key themes from highly respected scholars in a single forward-facing volume. Book jacket Ethnicity and the Colonial State Alexander Keese, 2015-11-30

Ethnicity and the Colonial State compares the choices of community leaders in three different West African groups: Wolof, Temne, and Ewe, with regard to selling their identifications to the colonial rulers. The book thereby addresses ethnicity as a factor in global history The Organization of Ancient Economies Kenneth Hirth, 2020-09-17 In this book, Kenneth Hirth provides a comparative view of the organization of ancient and premodern society and economy. Hirth establishes that humans adapted to their environments not as individuals but in the social groups where they lived and worked out the details of their livelihoods. He explores the variation in economic organization used by simple and complex societies to procure, produce, and distribute resources required by both individual households and the social and political institutions that they supported. Drawing on a wealth of archaeological, historic, and ethnographic information, he develops and applies an analytical framework for studying ancient societies that range from the hunting and gathering groups of native North America to the large state societies of both the New and Old Worlds. Hirth demonstrates that despite differences in transportation and communication technologies the economic organization of ancient and modern societies are not as different as we sometimes think The Great Breakthrough and Its Cause Julian Lincoln Simon,2000 Illuminates and explains the emergence of modern economic development in Western Europe after the seventeenth century The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young,1979 Cannibals and Kings Marvin Harris,2011-07-13 In this brilliant and profound study the distinguished American anthropologist Marvin Harris shows how the endless varieties of cultural behavior often so puzzling at first glance can be explained as adaptations to particular ecological conditions His aim is to account for the evolution of cultural forms as Darwin accounted for the evolution of biological forms to show how cultures adopt their characteristic forms in response to changing ecological modes A magisterial interpretation of the rise and fall of human cultures and societies Robert Lekachman Washington Post Book World Its persuasive arguments asserting the primacy of cultural rather than genetic or psychological factors in human life deserve the widest possible audience Gloria Levitas The New Leader An original and urgent theory about the nature of man and at the reason that human cultures take so many diverse shapes The New Yorker Lively and controversial I Bernard Cohen front page The New York Times Book Review A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences ,1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 The Geography of the Third World Michael Pacione,2012-08-06 First published in 1988 this reissue presents a comprehensive overview of contemporary developments and research into the geography of the Third World at a time when economies and societies there were changing at a much more rapid rate than their counterparts in the developing world It covers the topic both systematically and by region showing how the unique background of each region affects developments there The Early State Henri J. M. Claessen,Peter Skalnik,2011-11-02 No detailed description available for The Early State Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna Stephen A. Dueppen,2014-09-11 Many West African societies have egalitarian political systems with non centralised distributions of power Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna analyses a wide range of archaeological data to explore the development of such societies The volume offers a detailed case study of the village settlement of Kirikongo in western Burkina Faso Over the course of the first millennium this single homestead extended control over a growing community The book argues that the decentralization of power in the twelfth century BCE radically transformed this society changing gender roles public activities pottery making and iron working Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna will be of interest to students of political science anthropology archaeology and the history of West Africa World Military History Bibliography Barton Hacker,2003-06-01 Preclassical and indigenous nonwestern military institutions and methods of warfare are the chief subjects of this annotated bibliography of work published 1967 1997 Classical antiquity post Roman Europe and the westernized armed forces of the 20th century although covered receive less systematic attention Emphasis is on historical studies of military organization and the relationships between military and other social institutions rather than wars and battles Especially rich in references to the periodical literature the bibliography is divided into eight parts 1
