Finance, Budget, and Management for Reference Services Ruth A. Fraley, Bill Katz, 2019-12-06 The library budget a topic of primary importance to the reference librarian is thoroughly examined in this book first published in 1988 Experts offer insightful suggestions for reference librarians to understand and take responsibility for budget issues directly and indirectly They address the ability to explain the budget which actually entails explaining the collection the services and the process in place for managing the fiscal resources a necessary skill for any reference librarian faced with looming budget cuts Providing quality services on a limited budget is also explored The contributors provide helpful essays on convincing the parent agency to provide adequate support setting goals and priorities generating revenue and more Teaching Literary Research Kathleen A. Johnson, Steven Robert Harris, 2009 Irm-Soc Brym, Lie, 2004-03 Ie Soc Global Perspect Ferrante, 2002-07

Essentials of Sociology David B. Brinkerhoff, 1999 We, the People: Since 1865 Peter N. Carroll, 2003 This text features clear writing succinct coverage brief quotations from political leaders and ordinary citizens and an integration of political social and cultural history with the human dimension of American history The text follows a political chronology from the pre Columbian societies of North America through the 20th century Proceedings of the ... Northeastern Recreation Research Symposium, 2002 Implementing Outcome-based Home Care Melinda Huffman, 2005 This workbook provides the tools necessary to implement outcome based patient care using OASIS outcomes OBQI Care pathways and disease management Aging in the New Millennium Terry Tirrito, 2003 Due to advances in medical technology better health care and improvements in lifestyle habits the 21st century brings unprecedented changes in life expectancy and increased numbers of older adults globally As the elder population grows so does the knowledge of and interest in gerontology Gerontology constantly sees new developments in research the emergence of areas of study such as financial gerontology and elder ethics and the introduction of programmes and services for the aging This work explains the biology of aging along with the social and psychological implications of the process It looks at diseases and disorders affecting the aged as well as their treatment It reports on the demographics of older Americans the impact of changes in life expectancy worldwide theories regarding longevity and lifestyle attitudes of a younger population toward an aging one and public support programmes and services for older adults Economics and Contemporary Issues Michael R. Edgmand, Ronald L. Moomaw, Kent W. Olson, 2004 This text examines major economic issues pertaining to education health care Social Security unemployment inflation and international trade It also examines social and political phenomena such as the collapse of communism and central planning the role of government in a modern economy crime and drugs poverty and the failure of some economies to grow The book maximizes the advantages of an issues oriented approach to the non majors course by examining topics that interest students while developing core economic principles and providing insights challenges and an analytical framework all of which emphasize critical thinking Students who study this textbook will develop an increased interest in economics seeing it as important in understanding issues that affect them personally as well as in understanding today's news headlines This book develops principles and applications to issues more thoroughly and provides much more of an international perspective than most of the others like it on the market Montana Public Library Annual Report of Statistics, 2000 Proceedings of the 2002 Northeastern Recreation Research Symposium, April 13-16, 2002, the Sagamore on Lake George in Bolton Landing, New York Rudy Schuster, 2003 The Embodiment of Disobedience Andrea Elizabeth Shaw, 2006-07-27 Despite the West's privileging of slenderness as an aesthetic ideal the African Diaspora has historically displayed a resistance to the Western European and North American indulgence in fat anxiety The Embodiment of Disobedience explores the ways in which the African Diaspora has rejected the West's efforts to impose imperatives of slenderness and mass market fat anxiety Author Andrea Shaw explores the origins and contradictions of this phenomenon especially the cultural deviations in beauty criteria and the related social and cultural practices Unique in its examination of how both fatness and blackness interact on literary cultural planes this book also offers a diasporic scope that develops previously unexamined connections among female representations throughout the African Diaspora Sustaining the Earth George Tyler Miller, 2004 In this 6th edition of SUSTAINING THE EARTH Miller has added an on line Web based resource called the Resource Integration Guide Updated quarterly with CNN Today video clips animations and articles from InfoTrac College Edition instructors will be able to seamlessly incorporate the most current news articles and up to the minute research findings to support classroom instruction and text presentations The content in the 6th edition of SUSTAINING THE EARTH by Tyler Miller is everything you have come to expect and more Two new chapters on basic ecology Chapters 3 and 4 have been added to this edition to enhance this science based book This text differs from Miller's comprehensive text LIVING IN THE ENVIRONMENT 13th Edition because there is much less detail and more integration of topics with a different chapter order For example the following topics have been integrated into single chapters human population dynamics and urban problems are in Chapter 5 nonrenewable and renewable energy resources are in Chapter 6 terrestrial and aquatic biodiversity are in Chapter 7 water resources and water pollution are in Chapter 12 solid and hazardous waste are in Chapter 13 and environmental economics politics and worldviews are in Chapter 14 For the first time ever in a Miller textbook students will receive a CD ROM entitled Interactive Concepts in Environmental Science This groundbreaking addition integrates nearly 100 engaging animations and interactions with chapter summaries flashcards and Web based quizzes Organized by chapter students will find links to relevant resources narrated animations interactive figures and prompts to review material and test themselves Miller has remained true to his hallmark features such as high quality end of chapter questions an orientation toward prevention rather than clean up an integration of Web resources and video and a balanced presentation of controversial environmental issues Print Map From/Cd-Soc New Wrld Brym, 2002-09 Irm-Soc in Times Ess 4e Kendall, 2003-03 General Technical Report NE., 1980 People-Plant

Relationships Raymond P Poincelot, Joel Flagler, 2018-05-04 Presenting the latest research on cross cultural people plant relationships this volume conveys the psychological physiological and social responses to plants and the significant role these responses play in improved physical and mental health With chapters written by field experts it identifies research priorities and methodologies and outlines the steps for developing a research agenda to aid horticulturalists in their work with social scientists to gain a better understanding of people plant relationships This resource covers a wide array of topics including home horticulture and Lyme disease indoor plants and pollution reduction and plants and therapy Accent on Privilege Katharine W. Jones, 2001 Accent on Privilege looks at the complexities of immigration asking how native and immigrant construct race gender class and national identity Katharine Jones investigates how white English immigrants live in the United States and how they use their status as privileged foreigners to gain the upper hand with Americans Their privilege she finds is created by both American Anglophilia and the ways they perform their identities as proper English women and men in their host country Jones looks at the cultural aspects of this performance how English people play up their accents stiff upper lip sense of humor and fashion even the way they drink beer The political and cultural ties between England and the US act as a backdrop for the identity negotiations of these English people many of whom do not even consider themselves to be immigrants This unique exploration of the workings of white privilege offers an important new understanding of the paradoxes of how class gender and race are formed in the US and by implication in the UK Author note Katharine W Jones is Assistant Professor of Sociology at Philadelphia University A History of Modern Latin America Lawrence A. Clayton, Michael L. Conniff, 2005 Unfamiliar with Latin American history A HISTORY OF MODERN LATIN AMERICA is written just for you The authors present main theories and analyses of the area s history balancing economic social and cultural views while expertly weaving in the history of minorities women the environment culture literature and art Primary documents begin each chapter offering short glimpses into moments in history and setting the theme for the chapter to follow Maps images bibliographies discussion questions and other study aids are included to help you with research assignments and papers
