Pianta, 2025-09-08 In this visionary effort students take the lead in reimagining public education for the twenty first century advocating for a more active personalized and relational approach to learning Twenty first century youth are hungry for new ways to learn Their world is global mobile and rich with opportunities previous generations couldn't possibly have imagined As they make clear in this book the old standards of schooling no longer apply In Kids on Earth Howard Blumenthal and Robert C Pianta go straight to the source students themselves to rethink public education for the five billion young minds projected to be learning by 2050 Blumenthal and Pianta interview children and teenagers from more than seventy countries along with parents teachers and learning experts to build from their perspectives a scalable global framework for radical educational change New School in contrast to old school is a foundational concept with three guiding pillars learning is active learning is personal and learning is relational Its teachings emphasize cognitive science memory and relationships aligning learning with contemporary lived experience New School also appreciates Not School external instruction that involves media technology and other forms of learning Integrating these spheres Blumenthal and Pianta argue would better reflect our hyperconnected innovative world motivating students to succeed within it Kids on Earth calls not for reform but reinvention an ambitious all hands on deck effort to remake school for current and future generations preparing them best for global citizenship Unlike many books on education this volume gives kids the chance to make it alright Teaching Climate Change for Grades 6-12 Kelley T. Lê, 2024-11-18 Looking to tackle climate change and climate science in your classroom This timely and insightful book supports secondary science teachers in developing effective curricula around the Next Generation Science Standards NGSS by grounding their instruction on the climate crisis This new edition focuses on meeting teachers where they are in their teaching and learning while tending to various contexts communities and cultures to activate educators in understanding and responding to the climate crisis in this moment Chapters offer design and implementation support for 21st century learning experiences centered around the climate emergency for meaningful engagement Dr L provides an overview of the teaching shifts needed for the NGSS using climate change as the vehicle of instruction She also supports climate literacy for students and teachers via urgent topics in climate science and environmental justice Teachers will also learn how to engage with the complexities of climate change by exploring social racial and environmental injustices stemming from the climate crisis that directly impact their students Examples of successful applications of these learning experiences are new to the second edition as well as added activities and overall updates to research and data By anchoring instruction on the climate emergency through an intersectional lens starting with teachers core beliefs and values Dr L offers guidance on how educators can activate students as agents of change for their own communities Film and Video Finder, 1997, 1997 Interdisciplinary Mathematics Education Brian Doig, Julian Williams, David Swanson, Rita Borromeo Ferri, Pat Drake, 2019-02-22 This open access book is the first major publication on the topic of Interdisciplinary Mathematics Education and arose from the work of the first International Topic Study Group of the same name at the ICME 13 conference in Hamburg in 2016 It offers extensive theoretical insights empirical research and practitioner accounts of interdisciplinary mathematics work in STEM and beyond e g in music and the arts Scholars and practitioners from four continents contributed to this comprehensive book and present studies on the conceptualizations of interdisciplinarity implementation cases at schools and tertiary institutions teacher education and implications for policy and practice Each chapter and the book itself closes with an assessment of the most significant aspects that those involved in policy and practice as well as future researchers should take into account Education as Enforcement Kenneth Saltman, David A. Gabbard, 2010-09-13 The first volume to focus on the intersections of militarization corporations and education Education as Enforcement exposed the many ways schooling has become the means through which the expansion of global corporate power are enforced Since publication of the first edition these trends have increased to disturbing levels as a result of the extensive militarization of civil society the implosion of the neoconservative movement and the financial meltdown that radically called into question the basic assumptions undergirding neoliberal ideology An understanding of the enforcement of these corporate economic imperatives remains imperative to a critical discussion of related militarized trends in schools whether through accountability and standards school security or other discipline based reforms Education as Enforcement elaborates upon the central arguments of the first edition and updates readers on how recent events have reinforced their continued original relevance In addition to substantive updates to several original chapters this second edition includes a new foreword by Henry Giroux a new introduction and four new chapters that reveal the most contemporary expressions of the militarization and corporatization of education New topics covered in this collection include zero tolerance foreign and second language instruction in the post 9 11 context the rise of single sex classrooms and the intersection of the militarization and corporatization of schools under the Obama administration
