Contemporary Gay American Poets and Playwrights Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2003-06-30 Gay presence is nothing new to American verse and theater Homoerotic themes are discernible in American poetry as early as the 19th century and identifiably gay characters appeared on the American stage more than 70 years ago But aside from a few notable exceptions gay artists of earlier generations felt compelled to avoid sexual candor in their writings Conversely most contemporary gay poets and playwrights are free from such constraints and have created a remarkable body of work This reference is a guide to their creative achievements Alphabetically arranged entries present 62 contemporary gay American poets and dramatists While the majority of included writers are younger artists who came of age in the post Stonewall U S some are older authors whose work has continued or persisted into recent decades A number of these writers are well known including Edward Albee Harvey Fierstein and Allen Ginsberg Others such as Alan Bowne Timothy Liu and Robert O Hara merit wider recognition Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies "Mouths on Fire with Songs". Caroline De Wagter, 2013 This book the first cross cultural study of post 1970s anglophone Canadian and American multi ethnic drama invites assessment of the thematic and aesthetic contributions of this theater in today s globalized culture A growing number of playwrights of African South and East Asian and First Nations heritage have engaged with manifold socio political and aesthetic issues in experimental works combining formal features of more classical European dramatic traditions with such elements of ethnic culture as ancestral music and dance to interrogate the very concepts of theatricality and canonicity Their mouths on fire August Wilson these playwrights contest stereotyped notions of authenticity In spired by songs of anger passion experience survival and regeneration the plays analyzed bespeak a burning desire to break the silence to heal and empower Foregrounding questions of hybridity diaspora cultural memory and nation this comparative study includes discussion of some twenty five case studies of plays by such authors as M J Kang August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Chay Yew Padma Viswanathan Rana Bose Diane Glancy and Drew Hayden Taylor Through its cross cultural and cross national prism Mouths on Fire with Songs shows that multi ethnic drama is one of the most diverse and dynamic sites of cultural production in North America today Porcelain, and Chay Yew, 1997 Porcelain is an examination of a young man's crime of passion Triply scorned as an Asian a homosexual and now a murderer nineteen year old John Lee has confessed to shooting his lover in a public lavatory in London Porcelain dissects the crime through a prism of conflicting voices newscasts flashbacks and John s recollections to a prison psychiatrist A Language of Their Own is a lyrical and dramatic meditation on the nature of desire and sexuality as four men three Asian and one white come together and drift apart in a series of interconnecting stories Murder Most Queer Jordan Schildcrout, 2023-06-20 A fascinating look at the shifting meanings of murderous gay characters in American theater over a century Milestones in Queer US Theatre

Dennis Sloan, 2025-07-07 This introduction to gueer theatre and performance in the United States explores the pioneering artists that have shaped this ever changing field across the past two centuries through ten key moments and movements Designed for weekly use in gueer and LGBTQ theatre courses the ten chosen milestones move chronologically from nineteenth century shifts in the understanding of homosexuality through the queer postmodernist avant garde to the rise of intersectionality and recognition of trans identities This clear dynamic framework uses queer as a flexible and intersectional term addressing sexualities and sexual identities the people and groups who claim them and the practices that challenge heteronormative structures Milestones are a range of accessible textbooks breaking down the need to know moments in the social cultural political and artistic development of foundational subject areas Signatures of the Past Marc Maufort, Caroline De Wagter, 2008 In the last decades of the twentieth century North American drama has powerfully enacted the problematic notions of cultural memory and identity as the essays assembled in this critical anthology demonstrate Echoing Derrida's non essentialist interpretation of the term signature this collection provides an innovative focus on North American theatre and drama as a site of latent cultural memories In this volume the concept of cultural memory offers a privileged vantage point from which to redefine issues of diasporic identities exilic predicaments and multi ethnic subject positions at the dawn of a new century Playwrights examined here include noted Canadian and US artists such as Marie Clements Eva Ensler Lorraine Hansberry Tomson Highway Cherr e Moraga Djanet Sears Guillermo Verdecchia August Wilson and Chay Yew to cite but a few In the process of remembering North American dramatists develop new aesthetic modes in which the signatures of the past merge with the present and foreshadow an imagined future Singapore Literature and Culture Angelia Poon, Angus Whitehead, 2017-03-03 This book brings Anglophone Singapore literature to a global audience for the first time embedding it within literary developments worldwide Drawing on postcolonial studies Singapore studies and critical discussions in transnationalism and globalization essays introduce neglected writers cast new light on established writers and examine texts in relation to their local historical contexts while engaging with contemporary issues in Singapore society It sets new directions for further scholarship on a body of writing that has much to say to those interested in issues of nationalism diaspora cosmopolitanism neoliberalism immigration urban space and literary form and The Advocate, 1997-07-22 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine content Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Encyclopedia of Contemporary LGBTQ Literature of the United States Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2009-07-14 In this two volume work hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries survey contemporary lesbian gay bisexual transgendered and queer American literature and its social contexts Comprehensive in scope and accessible to students and general readers Encyclopedia of Contemporary LGBTQ Literature of the United States explores contemporary American LGBTQ literature and its social political cultural and historical contexts Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries written by expert contributors Students of literature and popular culture will appreciate the encyclopedia's insightful survey and discussion of LGBTQ authors and their works while students of history and social issues will value the encyclopedia s use of literature to explore LGBTQ American society Each entry is written by an expert contributor and lists additional sources of information To further enhance study and understanding the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of print and electronic resources for student The Advocate ,1997-07 Willis's Current Notes ,1852 The Encyclopædia Britannica, Or, Dictionary of research Arts, Sciences, and General Literature ... with Preliminary Dissertations on the History of the Sciences, and Other Extensive Improvements and Additions; Including the Late Supplement, a General Index, and Numerous Engravings, 1842. Performativity and Performance I-chu Chang, 2003 The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1842 Dental Review ,1909 American Miller ,1884 Art-Union, 1856 Encyclopaedia Britannica; Or, a Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, and Miscellaneous Literature ,1797 Household Words Charles Dickens, 1852 Wallace Stevens and the Realities of Poetic Language Stefan Holander, 2008-02-19 This study examines Wallace Stevens ideas and practice of poetic language with a focus on the 1930s an era in which Stevens persistently thematized a keenly felt pressure for the possible social involvement and political utility of poetic language The argument suggests how mutually implicated elements of his poetry such as diction prosody and metaphor are relied on to signify or enact aesthetic closure both in the negative terms of expressive impotence and unethical isolation and the positive ones of imaginative and linguistic change In this respect the study deals closely with the epistemologically and ethically fraught issue of the ambiguous and volatile role of non semantic elements and linguistic difficulty in Stevens language Assuming that these facets are not exclusive to this period but receive a very clear and therefore instructive formulation in it the discussion outlines some of Stevens most central tropes for poetic creativity at this stage of his career suggesting ways in which they came to form part of his later discourse on poetic functionality when polemical concepts for the imagination such as evasion and escapism became central Stevens prosody is discussed from within an eclectic analytical framework in which cumulative rhythmics is complemented by traditional metrics as a way of doing justice to his rich varied and cognitively volatile use of verse language The expressive potency of prosodic patterning is understood both as an effect of its resistance to semantic interpretation and by assuming a formal drive to interpret them in relation to the semantic and metaphoric staging of individual poems A poem in turn is understood both as a strategic stylistically deviant response to the challenges of a particular historical moment and as an attempt to communicate through creating a sense of linguistic resistance and otherness
