and the majority of the fleet was underwater There was no alternative for the Czar but to sue for an ignominious peace The story of the journey and the final battle remain fascinating the people involved behaving like characters from a novel Russian Admiral Rozhdestvensky was a gunnery expert but had never held active command in a major sea battle Japanese Admiral Togo had trained in Britain enlisting as a cadet on the Training Ship Worcester even though he was far too old and was forced to lie about his age Inept generalship on the part of the Russians combined with brilliant seamanship from Togo saw the complete destruction of the Russian fleet The naval battle of Tsushima is one of the forgotten actions of the twentieth century but it has a significance that is immense in world history An utterly compelling story well told by Carradice We really sympathize with the Russian sailors trapped on their ironclad warships for months as they battled against the elements a largely hostile world and even each other The result is an excellent book that reminds us of the human cost of these massive naval battles History of War Exiled Edwin Barnard, 2010 The Port Arthur convict photographs are a truly remarkable survival from Australias colonial past Taken shortly before the infamous Tasmanian penal settlement closed for good these images record the faces of men sent to Australia on convict ships between the 1820s and the 1850s Now for the first time they are the subject of a fascinating new book from the National Library of Australia Through its pages readers will come face to face with some of Australias reluctant pioneers and explore their often extraordinary lives Using transportation records trial documents official correspondence prison files local and overseas newspaper reports and eyewitness accounts the author has pieced together biographies of some of the men and their female partners who found themselves transported to the colonies Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress.
