Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo, 2013-09-17 With published work spanning more than forty years Julia Kristeva's influence in psychoanalysis and literary theory is difficult to overstate In addition to this scholarship Kristeva has written several novels however this portion of her oeuvre has received comparatively scant attention In this book Kristeva scholars from a number of disciplines analyze her novels in relation to her work in psychoanalysis interrogating the relationships between fiction and theory The essays explore questions including what is the value of experimental writing that escapes easy definition and classification putting ideas at the same level as character pacing plot suspense form and style And how might such fiction help its readers overcome the psychological maladies that affect contemporary society The contributors make a compelling case for understanding Kristeva's fiction as a crucial influence to her wider psychoanalytic project

The Cruellest of All Mothers Mary Dunn, 2015-10-01 In 1631 Marie Guyart stepped over the threshold of the Ursuline convent in Tours leaving behind her eleven year old son Claude against the wishes of her family and her own misgivings Marie concluded God was dearer to me than all that Leaving him therefore in His hands I bid adieu to him joyfully Claude organized a band of schoolboys to storm the convent begging for his mother's return Eight years later Marie made her way to Quebec where over the course of the next thirty three years she opened the first school for Native American girls translated catechisms into indigenous languages and served some eighteen years as superior of the first Ursuline convent in the New World She would also maintain over this same period an extensive and intimate correspondence with the son she had abandoned to serve God The Cruellest of All Mothers is fundamentally an explanation of Marie de l'Incarnation's decision to abandon Claude for religious life Complicating Marie's own explication of the abandonment as a sacrifice carried out in imitation of Christ and in submission to God's will the book situates the event against the background of early modern French family life the marginalization of motherhood in the Christian tradition and seventeenth century French Catholic spirituality Deeply grounded in a set of rich primary sources The Cruellest of All Mothers offers a rich and complex analysis of the abandonment larger inherently unified whole Whether in a visual verbal or hybrid text the stasis of the choran moment contains the potent possibility of communal awareness or choran community in the future as well as the present The textual choran communities presented here consequently offset the sexist racist and classist solipsism of imperialist or fascist master narrative Emily N Hinnov is Assistant Professor of English at Bowling Green State University Firelands College

Narrating Irish Female Development, 1916-2018 Jane Elizabeth Dougherty,2024-12-31 Narrating Irish Female Development 1916 2018 studies narratives of Irish female and feminized development arguing that these postmodern narratives present Irish female maturation as disordered and often deliberately disorderly The first full length study of the Irish female coming of age story the book develops a feminist psychoanalytic narratology derived from the belated oedipalization of Joyce's bildungsheild to read these stories This study argues that all Irish maturation stories are shaped by the uneven and belated maturation story of the Irish republic itself which took as its avatar the Irish woman whose citizenship in that republic was unrealized as indeed was her citizenship in an Irish republic of letters Dougherty takes the writing of Irish women as seriously as other critics have taken Joyce's work Apocalypse Recalled Harry O. Maier, In the end Apocalypse Recalled seeks to free the imprisoned John of Patmos and employ his massively influential and controversial text to awaken a sleeping sidelined and culturally assimilated church to new imperatives of discipleship BOOK JACKET

Iipseity and alterity Shaun Gallagher, Stephen Watson, Philippe Brun, Philippe Romanski, L'ouvrage aborde la question de la relation entre le soi et l'autre Il rassemble des contributions proposées par des chercheurs dans les domaines de la philosophie de la littérature et des sciences humaines Ce livre soulève plusieurs questions telles que Est-il toujours possible de comprendre la personne individuelle sans la référence aux autres personnes Dans quelle mesure l'identité personnelle dépend-elle des différences entre les personnes L'interprétation de l'Autre est-elle toujours complète etc L'ouvrage offre une discussion scientifique originale qui s'adresse tout particulièrement aux enseignants aux chercheurs et aux étudiants intéressés par cette question de l'ipseité et de l'altérité Numinous Subjects Lucy Tatman, 2007-01-01 Part religious studies part feminist theory part philosophy part indescribable such is Numinous Subjects Described by the author as a kaleidoscopic exploration of why three gendered figures of the sacred matter within western culture the experience of reading this text truly is akin to gazing through a constantly turning kaleidoscope Images concepts phrases and quotes are continually revisited recombined though never repeated in quite the same way From these tumbling constellations arises a new understanding and wary appreciation of the figures of the virgin the mother and the whore Drawing on the insights of thinkers as diverse as Rudolph Otto Julia Kristeva Simone de Beauvoir and Martin Buber Numinous Subjects simultaneously expands and focuses our attention on the myth of the sacred and its implications for female subjects in western culture today The Cambridge History of Modern European Thought: Volume 2, The Twentieth Century Warren Breckman, Peter E. Gordon, 2019-08-29 An authoritative and comprehensive survey of the major themes thinkers and movements in modern European intellectual history Modernist Goods Glenn Willmott, 2008-01-01 Modernist Goods examines such writers as Yeats Conrad Eliot Woolf Beckett H D and Joyce to uncover what the author views as their displaced aboriginality and to investigate the relationship between literary modernism and aboriginal modernity Irving's Dialogism in the Alhambra Mohamed Dellal, 2024-12-06 Cross culture and or multiculturalism have become catchwords and phrases in certain studies within academia but they have mostly become battle grounds for contestation and convergence with contestation of identity cultural authenticity and or supremacy and hegemony Yet over and above all these skirmishes convergence tends to win the day as it struggles for a cosmopolitan culture and polity albeit very difficult to achieve The present work follows the same line of thought by trying to bring a new perspective into what it calls cultural dialogism inherent in the corpus of texts borrowed from The Alhambra by W Irving The texts selected display a dual characteristic the first is addressed as organic in the sense that the texts reflect some eight hundred years of natural copulation between Muslim culture brought up by Muslim conquerors to the Andalusian Christendom the second underlines a volition on the part of the author to merge the culture by intruding into the structures of the language and the texts The present works intends to show that these characteristic hybridities transgress the generic boundaries as well as the cultural one producing a brassage breaking the fixity of the boundaries cultural and other causing brisures and sutures This endows the texts with a certain liminality that makes it difficult to authenticate them as belonging to either culture

The Right to Narcissism Pleshette DeArmitt, 2013-11-11 This book aims to wrest the concept of narcissism from its common and pejorative meanings egoism and vanity by revealing its complexity and importance DeArmitt undertakes the work of rehabilitating narcissism by patiently reexamining the terms and figures that have been associated with it especially in the writings of Rousseau Kristeva and Derrida These thinkers are known for incisively exposing a certain traditional narcissism that has been operative in Western thought and culture and for revealing the violence it has wrought from the dangers of amour propre and the pathology of a collective one's own to the phantasm of the sovereign One Nonetheless each of these thinkers denounces the naive denunciation of narcissism as the dangers of a non negotiation with narcissism are more perilous By rethinking narcissism as a complex structure of self relation through the Other the book reveals the necessity of an impossible self love
