Portable Postmodernist:

The Portable Postmodernist Arthur Asa Berger,2003 In this volume the author brings together key concepts written by postmodernisms leading figures Lyotard Baudrillard Jameson and others Followed by his own commentary written in concise easy to understand language this book should be invaluable to students and professors alike who will find Berger s style refreshing Organised in 50 segments the subjects run the gamut from James Joyce to Disney culture to punk music Berger weaves these seemingly diverse topics together exploring and exposing postmodernism and its appearance in popular culture

Everyday Life in the Postmodern World Arthur Asa Berger,2022-08-24 This introductory textbook familiarizes students with ideas of key thinkers and perspectives related to postmodern thought and everyday life The book is unique in that it offers selections from key passages of works of important thinkers as well as from some of the author s own publications that serve as examples of how to interpret various aspects of culture The book draws in readers with its engaging and conversational style and use of cases illustrations and photographs including fun discussions on everyday life under pandemic restrictions This is a must read for students taking courses in sociology cultural anthropology culture and media studies linguistics social philosophy and for specific courses on postmodernism Sports Fans, Identity, and Socialization Exploring the Fandemonium Adam C. Earnheardt,Paul M. Haridakis,Barbara S. Hugenberg,2012-01-01 Once deemed an unworthy research endeavor the study of sports fandom has garnered the attention of seasoned scholars from a variety of academic disciplines Identity and socialization among sports fans are particular burgeoning areas of study among a growing cadre of specialists in the social sciences Sports Fans Identity and Socialization edited by Adam C Earnheardt Paul Haridakis and Barbara Hugenberg captures an eclectic collection of new studies from accomplished scholars in the fields such as communication business geography kinesiology media and sports management and administration using a wide range of methodologies including quantitative qualitative and critical analyses In the communication revolution of the twenty first century the study of mediated sports is critical As fans use all media at their disposal to consume sports and carry their sports viewing experience online they are seizing the initiative and asserting themselves into the mediated sports dissemination process They are occupying traditional roles of consumers receivers of sports but also as sharers and sports content creators Fans are becoming pseudo sports journalists They are interpreting mediated sports content for other fans They are making their voice heard by sports organizations and athletes Mediated sports in essence provide a context for studying and understanding where and how the communication revolution of the twenty first century is being waged With their collection of studies by scholars from North America and Europe Earnheardt Haridakis and Hugenberg illuminate the symbiotic relationship among and between sports organizations the media and their audiences Sports Fans Identity and Socialization spurs both the researcher and the interested fan to consider what the study of sports tells us about ourselves and the society in which we live Playing with Picturebooks C. Allan,2012-10-10 Offers new insights into the continuing influence of postmodernism on a wide range of international picture books for children published between 1963 and 2008 Its chapters include metafiction disruption to narrative conventions interrogation of truths historiographic metafiction difference and ex centricity globalisation and media The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Finding Kluskap Jennifer Reid,2013-07-16 The Mi kmaq of eastern Canada were among the first indigenous North Americans to encounter colonial Europeans As early as the mid sixteenth century they were trading with French fishers and by the mid seventeenth century large numbers of Mi kmaq had converted to Catholicism Mi kmaw Catholicism is perhaps best exemplified by the community s regard for the figure of Saint Anne the grandmother of Jesus Every year for a week coinciding with the saint s feast day of July 26 Mi kmaw peoples from communities throughout Quebec and eastern Canada gather on the small island of Potlotek off the coast of Nova Scotia It is however far from a conventional Catholic celebration In fact it expresses a complex relationship between the Mi kmaq Saint Anne a series of eighteenth century treaties and a cultural hero named Kluskap Finding Kluskap brings together years of historical research and learning among Mi kmaw peoples on Cape Breton Island Nova Scotia The author s long term relationship with Mi kmaw friends and colleagues provides a unique vantage point for scholarship one shaped not only by personal relationships but also by the cultural intellectual and historical situations that inform postcolonial peoples The picture that emerges when Saint Anne Kluskap and the mission are considered in concert with one another is one of the sacred life as a site of adjudication for both the meaning and efficacy of religion and the impact of modern history on contemporary indigenous religion Encyclopedia of Media and Communication Marcel Danesi,2013-06-17 The first comprehensive encyclopedia for the growing fields of media and communication studies the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication is an essential resource for beginners and seasoned academics alike Contributions from over fifty experts and practitioners provide an accessible introduction to these disciplines most important concepts figures and schools of thought from Jean Baudrillard to Tim Berners Lee and podcasting to Peircean semiotics Detailed and up to date the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication synthesizes a wide array of works and perspectives on the making of meaning The appendix includes timelines covering the whole historical record for each medium from either antiquity or their inception to the present day Each entry also features a bibliography linking readers to relevant resources for further reading The most coherent treatment yet of these fields the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication promises to be the standard reference text for the next generation of media and communication students and scholars   Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger,2004 Ads Fads and Consumer Culture is an engaging cultural studies critique of advertising and its impacts on American society Arthur Asa Berger looks at marketing strategies sex and advertising consumer culture political advertising and communication theory and process to give an accessible overview of advertising in America He explores how advertising works and how society does or doesn t respond to it and he gives two detailed interpretations of ads to offer readers step by step frameworks for decoding print ads and television commercials   Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger,2011-04-16 Now in its fourth edition Ads Fads and Consumer Culture deals with the impact of advertising upon American character and culture It offers a definition of advertising explains the way advertising agencies work discusses the functions of advertising and provides a psycho cultural perspective on advertising Among the topics it deals with are the role of brands in selling products and the problem of self alienation and its relation to consumption It also analyzes consumer cultures places advertising in the communication process and considers the use of sexuality in advertising political advertising and marketing theory The marketing discussion deals with the Values and Lifestyle Typology VALS and the Claritas typology The chapters analyzing print advertisements and television commercials are distinctive features of the book For print advertising it provides a list of topics to consider in analyzing print advertising and then provides a detailed analysis of a fascinating Fidji perfume advertisement that shows a Polynesian woman with a snake around her neck It provides a semiotic psychoanalytic sociological Marxist mythic and Feminist analysis of this advertisement For television commercials it analyzes the famous Macintosh 1984 commercials in a number of different ways as well In the last chapter it speculates about the role of advertising in selling drugs to people children and advertising and the problems advertising agencies have in getting people s attention It also offers a glossary to terms used in the book and an annotated bibliography   Disability and Social Movements Rachel Carling-Jenkins,2016-05-23 This book provides the reader with a ground breaking understanding of disability and social movements By describing how disability is philosophically historically and theoretically positioned Carling Jenkins is able to then examine disability relationally through an evaluation of the contributions of groups engaged in similar human rights struggles The book locates disability rights as a new social movement and provides an explanation for why disability has been divided rather than united in Australia Finally it investigates whether the recent campaign to implement a national disability insurance scheme represents a re emergence of the movement It will be of interest to all scholars and students of both disability studies and social movements   Brand/Story Joseph Hancock,2016-03-10 Brand Story Cases and Explorations in

Fashion Branding Second Edition examines how a retailer manufacturer or designer label uses storytelling to grab a consumer s interest For consumers branding tells the story and creates the identity for a product a person and a company Using 10 case studies on such notable brands as Levis and Vivienne Westwood Brand Story looks at what a fashion brand is about and why companies advertise the way they do It enables the reader to think critically about branding both the medium and the message and not simply take advertisements and brands at face value New to this edition Features 7 new brands including LuluLemon Warby Parker MAC Cosmetics and Topshop Topman Over 40 new color images including advertisements for Ralph Lauren Vera Wang and Dolce Gabbana Updated interviews with industry professionals including Nancy Mair General Merchandise Manager Burlington Stores and Jill Walker Roberts President of Walker Roberts Consulting New Go Outside exercises provide readers with scenarios in which they can apply what they learn to other brands they encounter Chapter objectives and discussion questions allow the reader to fully engage with the content Instructor Resources Instructor s Guide and Test Bank provide suggestions for planning the course and using the text in the classroom PowerPoint presentations include images from the book and provide a framework for lecture and discussion Pamuk's Istanbul Pallavi Narayan,2022-04-28 This book reconstructs Istanbul through the prism of Orhan Pamuk s fiction It navigates the multiple selves and layers of Istanbul to present how the city has shaped the writings of Pamuk and has in turn been shaped by it Through everyday objects and architecture it shows how Pamuk transforms the city into a living museum where different objects converse along with characters to present a rich tapestry across space and time Further the monograph explores the formation of communal and literary identity within and around nation building narratives informed by capitalism and modernization The book also examines how Pamuk uses the postmodern city to move beyond its postmodern confines and utilizes the theories and universes of Bakhtin Benjamin and Foucault to open up his fiction and radically challenge the idea of the novel The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature literary theory museum studies architecture and cultural studies and especially appeal to readers of Orhan Pamuk A Fallen Idol Is Still a God Elizabeth Allen,2006-10-26 A Fallen Idol Is Still a God elucidates the historical distinctiveness and significance of the seminal nineteenth century Russian poet playwright and novelist Mikhail Iurevich Lermontov 1814 1841 It does so by demonstrating that Lermontov s works illustrate the condition of living in an epoch of transition Lermontov s particular epoch was that of post Romanticism a time when the twilight of Romanticism was dimming but the dawn of Realism had yet to appear Through close and comparative readings the book explores the singular metaphysical psychological ethical and aesthetic ambiguities and ambivalences that mark Lermontov s works and tellingly reflect the transition out of Romanticism and the nature of post Romanticism Overall the book reveals that although confined to his transitional epoch Lermontov did not succumb to it instead he probed its character and evoked its historical import And the book concludes that Lermontov s works have resonance for our transitional era in the early twenty first century as well Subjectivities, Identities, and Education after Neoliberalism Abraham P. DeLeon,2019-03-21 In this book DeLeon presents a critique of neoliberalism and present times through a metaphor of social collapse and considers what remains once the dust has settled for a different kind of person to emerge Engaging a variety of social political and educational theories along with pop culture and literature DeLeon positions humanity at the edges of collapse and what will emerge after the fall Engaging academic and fictional alternatives he imagines future possibilities through a new kind of person that rises from the rubble Questioning the foundations of empiricism standardization and reproducible results that reject new forms of social and political projects from materializing DeLeon discusses the potentials of the imagination and the ways in which it can produce alternative possibilities for our collective future when unleashed and combined with fictional narratives Moving across multiple intellectual philosophical artistic and historical traditions he constructs a radical interdisciplinary vision that challenges us to think about transforming our collective future s one in which we construct a new kind of person ready to tackle the challenges of a potentially liberatory future and what this might entail Marketing and American Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger,2016-12-15 This book offers a cultural studies approach to marketing and advertising and shows readers how scholars from different academic disciplines make sense of marketing s role in American culture and society It is written in an accessible style and has numerous drawings by the author to give it more visual interest Strategic Design Thinking Natalie W. Nixon,2015-10-22 Who can design For too long that question has highlighted the supposed division between right brain dominant creative types and left brain dominant analytical types Such a division is not practical for preparing students to become innovative contributors to the complex world of design Strategic Design Thinking guides readers to cultivate hybrid thinking whether their background is design finance or any discipline in between This book is an introduction to an integrative approach using the lens of design thinking as a way to see the world The focus is on process instead of solution and on connecting disparate ideas instead of getting bogged down by silos of specialization Through this book students will be introduced to design management strategic design service design and experience design Luxury and American Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger,2021-06-22 Using concepts from semiotics psychoanalytic theory sociology and Marxism this book analyzes the role of luxury in American consumer culture It offers case studies that deal with how our love of luxury affects our choices of automobiles homes restaurants cruises department stores and hotels It also adopts a global perspective and features analyses of luxury in China Iran Germany Monaco Russia and Turkey by scholars from those countries The Cultural Theorist's Book of Quotations Arthur Asa Berger,2016-06-16 Where did you see it that perfect quotation from Foucault or Kristeva to use in your upcoming keynote address Stop the search and pick up Arthur Berger s handy book of over 300 concise quotations from the vast literature in cultural theory This compilation will give you just the right snappy quote to help prepare that lecture write that paper fill that Power Point or drop a few bon mots at a university reception Organized by theoretical model semiotic Marxist psychoanalytic gender postmodernist Berger pulls together the most succinct meaningful passages of the key theorists of our time for those wanting to distill cultural theory to its essence

Advertising in Modern and Postmodern Times Pamela Odih,2007-04-30 How does advertising position itself in consumer culture In what ways does it create desire and wants This richly illustrated incisive text produces the most complete critical introduction to advertising culture Advertising in Modern and Postmodern Times provides a comprehensive discussion of the main theories shows you how real adverts work together with reproductions of advertising images and copy demonstrates how advertising constructs subjects provides an instructive historical overview of advertising explores the relationship between advertising and industrial capitalism   Toward Translingual Realities in Composition Nancy Bou Ayash,2019-09-26 Toward Translingual Realities in Composition is a multiyear critical ethnographic study of first year writing programs in Lebanon and Washington State a country where English is not the sole language of instruction and a state in which English is entirely dominant to examine the multiple and often contradictory natures forces and manifestations of language ideologies The book is a practical useful way of seriously engaging with alternative ways of thinking doing and learning academic English literacies Translingualism work has concentrated on critiquing monolingual and multilingual notions of language but it is only beginning to examine translingual enactments in writing programs and classrooms Focusing on language representations and practices at both the macro and micro levels author Nancy Bou Ayash places the study and teaching of university level writing in the context of the globalization and pluralization of English es and other languages Individual chapters feature various studies that Bou Ayash brings together to address how students act as agents in marshaling their language practices and resources and shows a deliberate translingual intervention that complicates and enriches students assumptions about language and writing Her findings about writing programs instructors and students are detailed multidimensional and complex A substantial contribution to growing translingual scholarship in the field of composition studies Toward Translingual Realities in Composition offers insights into how writing teacher scholars and writing program administrators can more productively intervene in local postmonolingual tensions and contradictions at the level of language representations and practices through actively and persistently reworking the design and enactment of their curricula pedagogies assessments teacher training programs and campus wide partnerships
