Computer Aided Systems Theory – EUROCAST 2005 Roberto Moreno-Díaz, Franz Pichler, Alexis Quesada Arencibia, 2005-10-19 The concept of CAST computer aided systems Theory was introduced by F Pichler of Linz in the late 1980s to include those computer theoretical and practical developments used as tools to solve problems in system science It was considered as the third component the other two being CAD and CAM that would provide for a complete picture of the path from computer and systems sciences to practical developments in science and engineering The University of Linz organized the first CAST workshop in April 1988 which demonstrated the acceptance of the concepts by the scientific and technical community Next the University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria joined the University of Linz to organize the first international meeting on CAST Las Palmas February 1989 under the name EUROCAST 1989 a very successful gathering of systems theorists computer scientists and engineers from most European countries North America and Japan It was agreed that EUROCAST international conferences would be organized every two years Thus the following EUROCAST meetings took place in Krems 1991 Las Palmas 1993 Innsbruck 1995 Las Palmas 1997 Vienna 1999 Las Palmas 2001 and Las Palmas 2003 in addition to an extra European CAST conference in Ottawa in 1994 Selected papers from those meetings were published as Springer Lecture Notes in Computer Science vols 410 585 763 1030 1333 1728 2178 and 2809 and in several special issues of Cybernetics and Systems an International Journal

Not Fit for Our Society Peter Schrag, 2010 Peter Schrag is the model for all political writers He is committed passionate and eloquent but always stays harnessed to the facts and rooted in the realities of politics and human nature He reports out everything and he writes like a dream We can be grateful that in Not Fit for Our Society he has turned his gifts to the seemingly intractable problem of immigration We will have to settle this issue again as we always manage to do despite enormous commotion and anxiety Schrag will force everyone to think more clearly and to approach immigration with both compassion and good sense EJ Dionne Jr author of Souled Out Just who is fit to be part of the society that became a nation in 1776 and who decides and on what basis In Not Fit for Our Society Peter Schrag offers an invigorating well informed carefully reasoned investigation into today's immigration debates David Hollinger President of the Organization of American Historians 2010 2011 Peter Schrag has a unique view of the immigration debate and policies that have shaped our country since its founding. His very timely writing of Not Fit for our Society helps us to better understand how the immigration debate and politics have gotten us to where we are today. His insights and intellect on the subject give all of us much to think about as we move forward on this very important issue.

Doris O Matsui, Member of Congress

Peter Schrag has done it again. A sweeping review that puts the ferocity of our current immigration debate in historical context. Not Fit for Our Society is a must read for those hoping to get past talk show rhetoric and cherry picked facts. Uncovering the dark impulses that have long undergirded nativist thought, he argues that we have seen this before and that America will be better if we see through it again.

Manuel Pastor, University of Southern California

Peter Schrag offers a lively and thoughtful reinterpretation of America's ambivalence about immigration and immigrants' place in the nation's life. Drawing on his reading of primary sources and the latest scholarship, he tells a story rich in irony, detail, and nuance, tracing the history of nativism from the earliest days of the Republic to the current debates over immigration reform. The book is particularly striking for the way that it connects the arguments and organizations of the current anti immigration movement to their roots in the eugenics movement and pseudo scientific racism of the early 20th century.

Mark Paul New America Foundation

Schrag delivers a story rich in irony, detail, and nuance, often told with passion and frequently challenging orthodoxies of both the political right and left. It is the right book at the right time.

Mark Paul New America Foundation

History's lessons come through loud and clear as Peter Schrag vividly recounts the characters and the ideas behind that side of America that rejects immigration. Illuminating both in its sweep and its detail, this 300 year narrative makes an important contribution to our understanding of today's policy debates.

Roberto Suro, author of Strangers Among US

Latino Lives in a Changing America

In an intemperate time, Peter Schrag's voice is lucid and truly American.

The Gloves-off Economy

Annette D. Bernhardt, 2008

Across the United States, increasing numbers of employers are breaking, bending, or evading long established laws and standards designed to protect workers from the minimum wage to job safety standards to the right to organize. This gloves off economy, no longer confined to a marginal set of sweatshops and fly by night small businesses, is sending shock waves into every corner of the low wage labor market. In the process, employers who play by the rules are under growing pressure to follow suit, intensifying the search for low cost business strategies across a wide range of industries and ratcheting up into ever higher reaches of the labor market. Although other books have touched on pieces of this problem, The Gloves off Economy is the first to provide a comprehensive integrated analysis and quite a disturbing one. This book examines a range of gloves off practices, the workers who are affected by them, and strategies for enforcing workplace standards. The editors, four respected labor scholars, have brought together economists, sociologists, labor attorneys, union strategists, and other experts to offer varying perspectives on both the problem and the creative solutions currently being explored in a wide range of communities and industries.

Annette Bernhardt, Heather Boushey, Laura Dresser, and Chris Tilly

and the volume's other authors combine rigorous analysis with a stirring call to renew worker protections in the twenty first century.

Creating Consent in Ba'thist Syria Esther Meininghaus,2016-03-31 The challenge of maintaining dictatorial regimes through control co option and coercion while upholding a facade of legitimacy is something that has concerned leaders throughout the Middle East and beyond Nowhere is this more evident than in the Syria ruled by the Asads both Hafiz and his son Bashar Drawing on the example of the General Union of Syrian Women founded in 1967 Esther Meininghaus offers new insights into how the Syrian Ba thist regimes attempted to move beyond mere satisfaction with the compliance of the citizenry and to consolidate their rule amongst the local population Meininghaus argues that this was partially achieved through providing welfare services delivered by the Union as one of the state led mass organisations In this way she suggests these regimes did not only aim to undermine opposition and to create the illusion of consent but they factually catered to local needs and depended on consent Based on archival material interviews and statistics Creating Consent in Ba thist Syria will shed new light on mass organisations as a crucial institution of Ba thist state building and more broadly the construction of the Asad regimes
