This book examines the ways in which China's universities have changed in the dramatic move to a mass stage which has unfolded since the late 1990s. Twelve universities in different regions of the country are portrayed through the eyes of their students, faculty, and leaders. The book begins with the national level policy process around the move to mass higher education. This is followed by an analysis of the views of 2,300 students on the 12 campuses about how the changes have affected their learning experiences and civil society involvement. The 12 portraits in the next section are of three comprehensive universities, three education-related universities, three science and technology universities, and three newly emerging private universities. The final chapter sketches the contours of an emerging Chinese model of the university and explores its connections to China's longstanding scholarly traditions.

The Sacred Art of Lovingkindness Rabbi Rami Shapiro, Rami M. Shapiro, 2006. Open your heart and mind and discover through the sacred art of lovingkindness the image and likeness of God in yourself and others. The question at the heart of this book is this: Will you engage this moment with kindness or with cruelty, with love or with fear, with generosity or scarcity, with a joyous heart or an embittered one? This is your choice, and no one can make it for you. Heaven and hell are both inside of you. It is your choice that determines just where you reside from the Introduction. We are all born in the image of God, but living out the likeness of God is a choice. This inspiring practical guidebook provides you with the tools you need to realize the divinity within yourself, recognize the divinity within others, and act on the obligation to manifest God's infinite compassion in your own life. Guided by Rabbi Rami Shapiro, you will explore Judaism's Thirteen Attributes of Lovingkindness as the framework for cultivating a life of goodness Shapiro translates these attributes into practices drawn from the teachings of a variety of faith traditions that allow you to actualize God's glory through personal deeds of lovingkindness You will enrich your own capacity for lovingkindness as you Harvest kindness through compassionate honesty Make room in your heart for reality Recognize the manifestations of God Embrace the paradoxical truth of not knowing Be present in the moment Do right by others With candor wit and honesty Shapiro shows you that by choosing to act out of love rather than fear with kindness rather than anger you can transform how you perceive the world and ultimately lead a more complete spiritual life     The Greatest, Most Amazing Love of All Alvaro A.
