Portraits David Patterson, 2021-06-01 Elie Wiesel identified himself as a Vizhnitzer Hasid who was above all things a witness to the testimony and teaching of the Jewish tradition at the core of the Hasidic tradition While he is well known for his testimony on the Holocaust and as a messenger to humanity he is less well known for his engagement with the teachings of Jewish tradition and the Hasidic heritage that informs that engagement Portraits illuminates Wiesel's Jewish teachings and the Hasidic legacy that he embraced by examining how he brought to life the sages of the Jewish tradition David Patterson reveals that Wiesel's Hasidic engagement with the holy texts of the Jewish tradition does not fall into the usual categories of exegesis or hermeneutics and of commentary or textual analysis Rather he engages not the text but the person the teacher and the soul This book is a summons to remember the testimony reduced to ashes and the voices that cry out from those ashes Just as the teaching is embodied in the teachers so is the tradition embodied in their portraits Visualizing

Blackness and the Creation of the African American Literary Tradition Lena Hill, 2014-02-17 Negative stereotypes of African Americans have long been disseminated through the visual arts This original and incisive study examines how black writers use visual tropes as literary devices to challenge readers' conceptions of black identity Lena Hill charts two hundred years of African American literary history from Phillis Wheatley to Ralph Ellison and engages with a variety of canonical and lesser known writers Chapters interweave literary history museum culture and visual analysis of numerous illustrations with close readings of Booker T Washington Gwendolyn Bennett Zora Neale Hurston Melvin Tolson and others Together these sections register the degree to which African American writers rely on vision its modes consequences and insights to demonstrate black intellectual and cultural sophistication Hill's provocative study will interest scholars and students of African American literature and American literature more broadly Charles Sheeler Mark Rawlinson, 2020-09-08 Charles Sheeler was the stark poet of the machine age Photographer of the Ford Motor Company and founder of the painting movement Precisionism he is remembered as a promoter of and apologist for the industrialised capitalist ethic This major new rethink of one of the key figures of American modernism argues that Sheeler's true relationship to progress was in fact highly negative his precisionism both skewed and imprecise Covering the entire oeuvre from photography to painting and drawing attention to the inconsistencies curiosities and puzzles embedded in Sheeler's work Rawlinson reveals a profound critique of the processes of rationalisation and the conditions of modernity The book argues finally for a re-evaluation of Sheeler's often dismissed late work which it suggests may only be understood through a radical shift in our understanding of the work of this prominent figure
