Portraits Of Excess Reading Character In The Modern Spanish Novel:

Portraits of Excess Juli Highfill, 1999 Gender and Nation in the Spanish Modernist Novel Roberta Johnson, 2003

Offering a fresh revisionist analysis of Spanish fiction from 1900 to 1940 this study examines the work of both men and women writers and how they practiced differing forms of modernism As Roberta Johnson notes Spanish male novelists emphasized technical and verbal innovation in representing the contents of an individual consciousness and thus were more modernist in the usual understanding of the term Female writers on the other hand were less aesthetically innovative but engaged in a social modernism that focused on domestic issues gender roles and relations between the sexes Compared to the more conventional even reactionary ways their male counterparts treated such matters Spanish women s fiction in the first half of the twentieth century was often revolutionary The book begins by tracing the history of public discourse on gender from the 1890s through the 1930s a discourse that included the rise of feminism Each chapter then analyzes works by female and male novelists that address key issues related to gender and nationalism the concept of intrahistoria or an essential Spanish soul modernist uses of figures from the Spanish literary tradition notably Don Quixote and Don Juan biological theories of gender prevalent in the 1920s and 1930s and the growth of an organized feminist movement that coincided with the burgeoning Republican movement This is the first book dealing with this period of Spanish literature to consider women novelists such as Maria Martinez Sierra Carmen de Burgos and Concha Espina alongside canonical male novelists including Miguel de Unamuno Ramon del Valle Inclin and Pio Baroja With its contrasting conceptions of modernism Johnson s work provides a compelling new model for bridging the gender divide in the study of Spanish fiction The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Twentieth and Twenty-First Century Spain Eduardo Ledesma, Luisa Elena Delgado, 2025-03-11

The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Twentieth and Twenty First Century Spain charts the key ideas practices and imaginings that characterize Spain s cultural historical social and political history in the contemporary period The volume brings together internationally acknowledged scholars from around the globe and from diverse disciplines from cinema and sociology to sociolinguistics politics and history as well as various other cultural studies approaches It offers an integrated multi disciplinary volume that provides a more complete and nuanced multi perspective assessment of modern and contemporary Spanish culture with a special emphasis on recent decades This interdisciplinary and thematically organized Companion includes essays on literature and art history politics religion economics linguistics and visual culture and covers an extensive period of time with a focus on key events The volume explores cutting edge areas and engages with current debates controversies and questions in the field of Hispanic studies Offering a nuanced multi disciplinary assessment of modern and contemporary Spanish culture through a dichotomic organizing principle The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Twentieth and Twenty First Century Spain is an expansive resource which will be of interest to students and scholars of Hispanic studies and those with a particular interest in Spanish history politics and culture The Spanish

Literary Generation of 1968 William M. Sherzer, 2012-05-04 The Spanish Literary Generation of 1968 Jos Maria Guelbenzu Lourdes Ortiz and Ana Mar a Moix serves multiple purposes Most importantly it is an overview of an important moment in Spanish literary history that is connected to an extremely important moment in world history 1968 as well as what that year represents in many countries such as France Germany Mexico and the United States This text aims to show how young writers who were coming of age precisely at that moment incorporated into their novels the new ideas that they found in the writing of many foreign authors generally unknown to previous generations whose works were essential to their development The author has focused on three authors who he feels are most representative of their generation and follows with a lengthy study of the critical reception they have received over time Finally in an appendix one will find excerpts of an unpublished novel by Lourdes Ortiz and interviews with all three authors It is hoped that this text with its extensive bibliography will serve as a valuable source for students and professors alike de la muerte del dictador Francisco Franco en 1975 la nueva España democrática le ofrece a la mujer española más libertades. Numerosos autores españoles tratan estos cambios en su obra literaria. En este trabajo examino cinco de ellas: Las edades de Lulú por Almudena Grandes, La pasión turca por Antonio Gala, Con Agatha en Estambul por Cristina Fernández Cubas, El vergel por Josefina Aldecoa y El asesino de los sueños por Concha Alés. Aunque estos autores en su novela reflejan tal emancipación también muestran a unas protagonistas atrapadas en su rol social de mujer. A pesar de sus numerosos intentos de escape por la experimentación sexual, el viaje y el exotismo, las protagonistas nunca logran evadirse de su posición social y por consecuencia permanecen atrapadas en la imposibilidad existencial de la mujer.
