Portraits Of Faithful Saints:

Portraits of Faithful Saints Herman Hanko, 1999 Read about old favorites such as Augustine and Luther and learn about the obscure though equally influential Christians such as Cocceius and Olevianus This collection of short biographies details the lives of fifty two professing believers who lived and died for Christ Not sentimental or fictionalized these accounts tell what Christians actually said and did during difficult times and they prepare the reader to face opposition today

Jacobus Arminius Stands His Ground John S. Knox, 2018-11-06 On October 30 1608 Jacobus Arminius presented his Declaration of Sentiments to the Assembly of the States of Holland and West Friesland in the Binnenhof at The Hague First Arminius sought to defend himself and his theological views from the spirited attacks of opponents such as Gomarus Lubbertus and Plancius Second Arminius hoped to bring to light the wrongdoings of the European church and its extremist understanding of certain Christian doctrines Having trained in Geneva under Jean Calvin s successor Theodore Beza 1519 1605 and having further expanded and honed his theology at the University of Leyden from both lectern and the pulpit Arminius thoroughly presented his theological views in both oral and written form He spoke in his native Dutch language to an assembly of his peers and religious authorities with the hopes of avoiding a theological rift in Holland while at the same time hoping to remove a long standing conflict with the Supralapsarian faction warring against him Thus Arminius Declaration of Sentiments is a sophisticated passionate appeal to reason scripture and community With each section Arminius seeks not only to demonstrate the error of the attacks on him but also to point out how and why reconciliation can take place through a careful examination of various precepts of Christian thought

A Bright Samoan Sunrise R. Wayne Shute, Tu'ifao Tufuga, 2014 With the dawn of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in Samoa in 1888 there came forward a number of early faithful converts who became defenders of the faith In those early years these pioneer converts of the Church had to face a great deal of persecution as they struggled to establish branches and districts throughout those beautiful islands of the sea These early pioneers welcomed the coming of the Gospel with the arrival of Joseph H Dean and subsequent early missionaries and were determined to assist them in the unfolding of the work in Samoa As the first rays of the Gospel began to dawn and spread over the islands the going was tough but they prevailed and left for us a legacy that lives to this day and has become a strong foundation for the remarkable growth of the Church in Samoa today In this book readers will find wonderful stories of faith and courage as told in portraits even glimpses into the life stories of the early pioneers of the Church in Samoa Publisher information

Portraits and Philosophy Hans Maes, 2019-11-20 Portraits are everywhere One finds them not only in museums and galleries but also in newspapers and magazines in the homes of people and in the boardrooms of companies on stamps and coins on millions of cell phones and computers Despite its huge popularity however portraiture hasn't received much philosophical attention While there are countless art historical studies of portraiture contemporary philosophy has largely remained silent on the subject This book aims to address that lacuna. It brings together philosophers and philosophically minded historians with different areas of expertise to discuss this enduring and continuously fascinating genre. The chapters in this collection are ranged under five broad themes. Part I examines the general nature of portraiture and what makes it distinctive as a genre. Part II looks at some of the subgenres of portraiture such as double portraiture and at some special cases such as sport card portraits and portraits of people not present. How emotions are expressed and evoked by portraits is the central focus of Part III while Part IV explores the relation between portraiture, fiction and depiction more generally. Finally in Part V some of the ethical issues surrounding portraiture are addressed. The book closes with an epilogue about portraits of philosophers. Portraits and Philosophy tangles with deep questions about the nature and effects of portraiture in ways that will substantially advance the scholarly discussion of the genre. It will be of interest to scholars and students working in philosophy of art, history of art and the visual arts.

The Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary [by R. G., Followed by "Letters Apostolic of Pius IX. Dogmatically Defining the Immaculate Conception], of Her Blessed Spouse Saint Joseph (by J. J. Vallejo) and Holy Parents St. ... Joachim & St. Anne (by S. Binet)." Romualdo Gentilucci, 1864

Saints and Signs Massimo Leone, 2010-08-31. Saints and Signs analyzes a corpus of hagiographies, paintings and other materials related to four of the most prominent saints of early modern Catholicism: Ignatius of Loyola, Philip Neri, Francis Xavier and Therese of Avila. Verbal and visual documents produced between the end of the Council of Trent (1563) and the beginning of the pontificate of Urban VIII (1623) are placed in their historical context and analyzed through semiotics, the discipline that studies signification and communication in order to answer the following questions: How did these four saints become signs of the renewal of Catholic spirituality after the Reformation? How did their verbal and visual representations promote new Catholic models of religious conversion? How did this huge effort of spiritual propaganda change the modern idea of communication? The book is divided into four sections focusing on the four saints and on the particular topics related to their hagiologic identity: early modern theological debates on grace; Ignatius of Loyola; cultural contaminations between Catholic internal and external missions; Philip Neri; the Christian identity in relation to non-Christian territories; Francis Xavier; the status of women in early modern Catholicism; Therese of Avila.

Praying to Portraits Adam Jasienski, 2025-01-14. In Praying to Portraits, art historian Adam Jasienski examines the history, meaning and cultural significance of a crucial image type in the early modern Hispanic world: the sacred portrait. Across early modern Spain and Latin America, people prayed to portraits. They prayed to true effigies of saints to simple portraits that were repainted as devotional objects and even to images of living sitters depicted as holy figures. Jasienski places these difficult-to-classify image types within their historical context. He shows that rather than being harbingers of secular modernity and autonomous selfhood, portraits were privileged sites for mediating an individual's relationship to the divine. Using Inquisition records, hagiographies, art theoretical treatises, poems and plays, Jasienski convincingly demonstrates that portraiture was at the very center of broader debates about the status of images in Spain and its colonies. Highly original.

and persuasive Praying to Portraits profoundly revises our understanding of early modern portraiture. It will intrigue art historians across geographical boundaries and it will also find an audience among scholars of architecture history and religion in the early modern Hispanic world. Beauty, Devotion and Spirituality, 2024-06-17 There is scant research on the art produced under the Congregation of the Oratory of Saint Philip Neri with the exception of a couple of general books focused primarily on major Oratorian art pieces. Therefore this book of essays aims to discuss the art and culture produced by or associated with the Oratorians by providing a broad overview focused especially on rarely investigated issues. The authors focus on this very important artistic production commonly forgotten when compared with other religious productions of art by covering geographical areas spanning from Sri Lanka to Mexico including Italy Spain the United Kingdom India and Brazil.

Face to Face Robin Margaret Jensen, Examining how God and eventually Christ are portrayed in early Christian art. Jensen explores questions of the relationship between art and theology conflicts over idolatry and iconography and how the Christological controversies affected the portrayals of Christ. Since much of this art comes from ancient Rome she places her analysis in the context of the history of Roman portraiture. One hundred photographs enhance the discussion. The Portrait in Byzantine Illuminated Manuscripts Iohannis Spatharakis, 2024-09-02 Readings in Church History Jonathan Marshall, The Portrait of Saint Paul John Fletcher, 1804 The Saints in Italy Lucy Menzies, 1924

What's In the Bible R. C. Sproul, Robert Wolgemuth, 2011-04-12 Explore the most monumental story ever recorded a story filled with intrigue drama and real life accounts of God at work in the universe. Highly respected theologian R C Sproul and best selling author Robert Wolgemuth have collaborated to highlight the essence of God's voice activity and purpose throughout the Old and New Testaments in an understandable and thoroughly readable introduction to the Bible. Written from the perspective of a theologian and a layman What's in the Bible is a road map that will help you better comprehend the whole of Scripture. This revised and updated edition includes a new topical index. Sproul's Guide to the Bible Sproul, Robert Wolgemuth, 2007-03-20 This Bible handbook walks you chronologically through Bible history introducing you to the key figures God used to bring about His redemptive plan. The authors highlight key verses throughout the Bible and underline essential beliefs. Using contemporary illustrations and humor Sproul and Wolgemuth help you apply what you've learned to your situation. Every chapter ends with a summary to help you learn more about the scope and meaning of the Bible. The Mobile Image Emily C. Floyd, 2025-06-24 A study of the production and movement of prints in colonial South America. Printed images have had a central place in art historical studies of colonial Spanish America but scholars have typically focused on imported prints designed and produced in Europe. The Mobile Image focuses instead on works printed in colonial Lima generating there a distinctive print culture that served local and regional needs while also appealing to European print consumers. Inexpensive easily transportable and numerous Lima's prints traversed the varied geographies of the Viceroyalty of Peru both as loose sheets and within the protective covers of printed books. In the process Lima's devotional prints encouraged the development of shared regional imaginaries about the sacred Andean landscape a space marked by miracle working Virgins potential saints and powerful images of Christ These same prints traveled abroad where they promoted iconographies developed in Lima and influenced European conceptions of the Andes Simultaneously the visual language of lime o prints often challenges conventional approaches to interpreting colonial depictions of race In analyzing lime o prints and the identities of their makers patrons and consumers The Mobile Image demonstrates that race is harder to recognize in colonial images than we might think Unearthing hundreds of forgotten prints Emily C Floyd provides a fresh resource for interpreting colonial artworks troubling established understandings of their aesthetics and compelling us to reexamine colonial South American material cultures The Lives of the Saints Sabine Baring-Gould,1898 A Biographical Dictionary of Eminent Scotsmen ... Embellished with Splendid and Authentic Portraits Robert Chambers,1855
