Portraits of Friends and Acquaintances Marc Hauser, 1989-08-01 Gathers portraits of performers musicians artists composers actors circus performers bikers and students Portrait and Biographical Record of Waukesha County, Wisconsin, 1894 The Temple of Fame and Friendship Annette Richards, 2022-09-20 This book examines the renowned portrait collection assembled by C P E Bach J S Bach s second son Containing nearly 400 objects from oil paintings to engraved prints Bach s collection is a remarkable artifact of eighteenth century music culture Taken together the portraits provide a vivid panorama of music history and culture as well as the sensibility and humor of the time in which they were made Most importantly Richards argues the collection sought to establish music as an object of aesthetic philosophical and historiographical value as an art with a history Richards makes the collection come alive showing readers what it was like to tour the portrait gallery and to experience music in a room whose walls were packed with art She uses the collection to analyze the portraiture aspect of Bach s music engaging with the influential theories of Swiss physiognomist Johann Caspar Lavater She also explores the collection as a way to cultivating and preserving friendship connecting this to the culture of remembrance that resonates in Bach s domestic music Richards shows how the new music historiography of the late eighteenth century rich in anecdote memoir and verbal portrait was deeply indebted to portrait collecting and its negotiation between presence and detachment fact and feeling Eisenstaedt's Celebrity Portraits Alfred Eisenstaedt, 1984 Portrait of an Artist Kurt Edward Fishback, 2010-04-15 Portraits of Sacramento Area Artists 2008 Portrait and Biographical Album of Polk County, Iowa, 1890 Masquerier and His Circle Robert René Meyer Sée, 1922 Portraits of Remembrance Margaret Hutchison, Steven Trout, 2020-04-28 Interdisciplinary collection of essays on fine art painting as it relates to the First World War and commemoration of the conflict Although photography and moving pictures achieved ubiquity during the First World War as technological means of recording history the far more traditional medium of painting played a vital role in the visual culture of combatant nations The public s appetite for the kind of up close frontline action that snapshots and film footage could not yet provide resulted in a robust market for drawn or painted battle scenes Painting also figured significantly in the formation of collective war memory after the armistice Paintings became sites of memory in two ways first many governments and communities invested in freestanding panoramas or cycloramas that depicted the war or featured murals as components of even larger commemorative projects and second certain paintings whether created by official artists or simply by those moved to do so emerged over time as visual touchstones in the public s understanding of the war Portraits of Remembrance Painting Memory and the First World War examines the relationship between war painting and collective memory in Australia Austria Belgium Canada Croatia France Germany Great Britain New Zealand Russia Serbia Turkey and the United States The paintings discussed vary tremendously ranging from public murals and panoramas to works on a far more intimate scale including modernist masterpieces and crowd pleasing expressions of sentimentality or spiritualism Contributors raise a host of topics in connection with the volume s overarching focus on memory including national identity constructions of gender historical accuracy issues of aesthetic taste and connections between painting and literature as well as other cultural forms The Reluctant Mr. Darwin: An Intimate Portrait of Charles Darwin and the Making of His Theory of Evolution (Great Discoveries) David Quammen,2007-07-17 Quammen brilliantly and powerfully re creates the 19th century naturalist s intellectual and spiritual journey Los Angeles Times Book Review Twenty one years passed between Charles Darwin s epiphany that natural selection formed the basis of evolution and the scientist s publication of On the Origin of Species Why did Darwin delay and what happened during the course of those two decades The human drama and scientific basis of these years constitute a fascinating tangled tale that elucidates the character of a cautious naturalist who initiated an intellectual revolution Portrait and Biographical Album of McLean County, Ill ,1887

Centennial Portrait and Biographical Record of the City of Dayton and of Montgomery County, Ohio Frank Conover,1897 State Construction and Art in East Central Europe, 1918-2018 Agnieszka Chmielewska,Irena Kossowska,Marcin Lachowski,2022-09-19 This volume offers a comprehensive perspective on the relationship between the art scene and agencies of the state in countries of the region throughout four consecutive yet highly diverse historical periods from the period of state integration after World War I through the communist era post 1945 and the time of political transformation after 1989 to the present day globalisation including counter reactions to westernisation and cultural homogenisation With twenty three theoretically and or empirically oriented articles by authors from sixteen countries East Central Europe and beyond including the United States and Australia the book discusses interconnections between state policies and artistic institutions trends and the art market from diverse research perspectives The contributors explore subjects such as the impact of war on the formation of national identities the role of artists in image building for the new national states emerging after 1918 the impact of political systems on artists attitudes the discourses of art history museum studies monument conservation and exhibition practices The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history cultural politics cultural history and East Central European studies and history Portrait and Biographical Album of Champaign County, Ill ,1887 A Sociology of Friendship and Kinship Graham A. Allan,2021-10-17 Originally published in 1979 this was the first text to be concerned explicitly with the analysis of forms of kin and non kin sociability Its aim was to compare and contrast the different ways in which sociability was patterned in modern life at the time Many studies had been concerned with kin relations rather fewer had examined friendship while none had attempted to compare these relationships It was the author s belief that such a comparison was necessary if both kin and non kin relationships were to be understood more adequately A Sociology of Friendship and Kinship thus represented a unique and valuable addition to the research literature on both these topics The text also synthesises a wide range of material from recent empirical research into the sociology of friendship and kinship though it emphasises that such a synthesis can only be achieved by a careful conceptual and theoretical analysis of the nature of friend and kin relationships An interesting feature of the book is its fusion of secondary research material with new empirical data gathered by Dr Allan in a study carried out by him in the early 1970s American Photography Frank Roy Fraprie,1925 Catalogue of Paintings York City Art Gallery,1961

Photo-Era Magazine, the American Journal of Photography ,1913 Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell,2018 In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies International Student Mobility and Transnational Friendships Ba?ak Bilecen,2014-09-09 Friends play a crucial role in international students lives This book explores the characteristics of the friendship networks of international doctoral students by analysing the relationships between these students and their friends both in the country of education and across several national borders The Biographical Dictionary and Portrait Gallery of Representative Men of Chicago, Iowa and the World's Columbian Exposition ,1893
