The 1996 Zambia National Housing Policy Paul Lombe Kasonde Makasa, 2010 Devising a workable housing policy in a country with apparently insurmountable housing problems presents a great challenge With the help of an award from UN HABITAT Zambian authorities attempted to do just this in a process which is an ideal candidate for scrutiny This study analyzes the goals means and instruments that were used to formulate the policy as well as its planned implementation It examines whether the policy could have achieved its goals had it been implemented and represents a valuable addition to the body of knowledge which can help to evaluate the potential for success Investing in the Middle East Ashraf

Mishrif, 2010-07-30 The effect of foreign direct investment FDI on economic development has been widely debated However the real challenge is not only to examine the effect of FDI on economic development but to also investigate the most appropriate economic policies that are conducive to increasing levels of FDI Ashraf Mishrif here addresses this challenge and examines the interplay between external and internal forces to determine whether recent EU Egyptian trade agreements have led to any significant improvement in Egypt's investment environment and in the growth levels of European direct investment in the country This important study makes a key contribution to our understanding of the inward investment strategies and options of the Arab World's most populous and powerful player It will be an essential point of reference for all economists bankers and investment advisors dealing with the Middle East OECD Reviews of Foreign Direct

Investment: Brazil 1998 OECD, 1998-07-17 OECD's 1998 review of Brazil's foreign direct investment policy Investing in India S. Acharya, 1997-12-15 The reforms initiated in 1991 have transformed India's economy and capital market The book offers a comprehensive evaluation of developments in both sectors from an investor's viewpoint The potential growth of India's stockmarket is examined as the country progresses with its economic liberalisation The insights offered into investing in India can be profitably applied by seasoned investors as well as by non professionals This exclusive analysis of the Indian market will be of interest to students and policy makers as much as to anyone interested in investing in one of the major markets to have emerged from its seclusion and opened itself up to global investors A Study On Investors Awareness

Institutional Investors E. Philip Davis, Benn Steil, 2004-01-30 One of the most important recent developments in financial markets is the institutionalization of saving associated with the growth of pension funds life insurance companies and mutual funds An increasing proportion of household saving is now managed by professional portfolio managers instead of being directly invested in the securities markets or held in the form of bank deposits With the aging of the population and its adverse impact on public pension systems the shift of individual savings to institutional investors is likely to become even more marked in the coming years This book provides a comprehensive economic assessment of institutional investment It charts the development and performance of the asset management industry and analyzes the implications of rising institutionalized saving for the development of the securities trading industry the financial sector as a whole and the wider economy The book draws extensively on international experience particularly in the United States Western Europe and Japan

Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act and the Andean Trade Preference Act Thomas F. Jennings, Joanne Guth, 1998-08 Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act CBERA encourages economic growth and development in Caribbean Basin countries by promoting increased production and exports of nontraditional products Andean Trade Preference Act ATPA encourages Bolivia Colombia Ecuador and Peru to reduce drug crop cultivation and production by fostering production and exports of nontraditional products Both programs authorize the President to proclaim preferential rates of duty on many products entering the United States from these regions This report estimates the impact of both laws on United States industries and consumers in 1996 and assesses the effectiveness of ATPA in promoting drug related crop eradication and crop substitution efforts in beneficiary countries
