Security Studies In South Asia Change:

Understanding Security Practices in South Asia Monika Barthwal-Datta, 2012-05-04 This book explores the ways in which non state actors NSAs in South Asia are involved in securitizing non traditional security challenges in the region at the sub state level South Asia is the epicentre of some of the most significant international security challenges today Yet the complexities of the region s security dynamics remain under researched While traditional security issues such as inter state war border disputes and the threat of nuclear devastation in South Asia remain high on the agendas of policy makers and academics both within and beyond the region scant attention has been paid to non traditional or new security challenges Drawing on various case studies this work offers an innovative analysis of how NSAs in South Asia are shaping security discourses in the region and tackling security challenges at the sub state level Through its critique of securitization theory the book calls for a new approach to studying security practices in South Asia one which considers NSAs as legitimate security actors This book will be of much interest to students of security studies Asian security Asian politics critical security studies and IR in general Climate Change and Food Security in South Asia Rattan Lal, Mannava VK Sivakumar, S.M.A.

Faiz, A.H.M. Mustafizur Rahman, Khandakar R. Islam, 2010-10-17 This book addresses an important topic of food security in South Asia with specific reference to climate change Of the 1 billion food insecure people in the world more than 30% are in South Asia The problem of food insecurity may be exacerbated by the projected climate change especially because of the water scarcity caused by rapid melting of the glaciers in the Himalayas and increase in variability in monsoonal rains and frequency of extreme events Furthermore large populations of Bangladesh and other coastal regions may be displaced by sea level rise Thus this volume addresses recommended land use and soil water crop vegetation management practices which would enable land managers to adapt to climate disruption by enhancing soil ecosystem social resilience In addition to biophysical factors this book also addresses the issues related to human dimensions including social ethnical and political considerations

An Introduction to Non-Traditional Security Studies Mely Caballero-Anthony, 2015-11-30 With the end of the Cold War threats to national security have become increasingly non military in nature Issues such as climate change resource scarcity infectious diseases natural disasters irregular migration drug trafficking information security and transnational crime have come to the forefront This book provides a comprehensive introduction to Non Traditional Security concepts It does so by Covering contemporary security issues in depth Bringing together chapters written by experts in each area Guiding you towards additional material for your essays and exams through further reading lists Giving detailed explanations of key concepts Testing your understanding through end of chapter questions Edited by a leading figure in the field this is an authoritative guide to the key concepts that you ll encounter throughout your non traditional and environmental security studies courses

Changing Security Dynamics in East Asia Elena Atanassova-Cornelis, Frans-Paul van der Putten, 2016-04-30 This original and detailed collection explores how regional actors deal with uncertainties that are inherent to the current geopolitical situation in East Asia The contributors collectively demonstrate that strategic uncertainty has become a major factor in the shaping of the security order in East Asia
