See The Woman:

Adventure ,1918 The Young Woman's Journal ,1894 Transformation of the Mormon Culture Region Ethan R. Yorgason,2003-09-24 In the late nineteenth century the Mormon culture region of the American West was considered radical characterized by sexual immorality communalism and anti Americanism Today social conservatism marks the region How did this shift occur In this unique study Ethan R Yorgason foregrounds the concept of region and traces the conformist conservative trajectory that arose from intense moral and ideological clashes between Mormons and non Mormons from 1880 to 1920 Non Mormons worried that Mormons would establish an un American society in the West while Mormons feared for the very existence of their church An example of the new regional geography Yorgason s work treats culture as an arena of political struggle Looking through the lenses of regional geography history and cultural studies Yorgason investigates shifting moral orders relating to gender authority economic responsibility and national loyalty He particularly focuses on Mormon feminism communitarianism nationalism and home life Transformation of the Mormon Culture Region charts the cultural contradictions of both Mormons and non Mormons and how they were resolved over time by a progressive narrowing of the range of moral positions on gender in favor of Victorian gender relations the economy in favor of individual economics and the nation identifying with national power and might Mormons and non Mormons together constructed a regime of effective coexistence while retaining regional distinctiveness Feature Films, 1960_1969 Harris M. Lentz III,2001-08-07 This is a filmography in two volumes of not only all of the English language movies made during the 1960s that had a U S theatrical release but major foreign films exhibited in the United States as well The following information is provided for each film year of release nation of origin if other than the U S production or distribution company black and white or color running time genre production credits cast and characters and a brief synopsis This turbulent decade is unusually interesting in the history of cinema Those films released in the early part of the decade were similar to those of the 1950s but as the years passed the offerings changed in many ways The Book of Woman's Power, with an Introduction by Ida M. Tarbell, and Illustrations by E. R. Lee Thayer ,1911 Echo and Narcissus Amy Lawrence,1991-07-23 Do women in classical Hollywood cinema ever truly speak for themselves In Echo and Narcissus Amy Lawrence examines eight classic films to show how women s speech is repeatedly constructed as a problem an affront to male authority This book expands feminist studies of the representation of women in film enabling us to see individual films in new ways and to ask new questions of other films Using Sadie Thompson 1928 Blackmail 1929 Rain 1932 The Spiral Staircase Sorry Wrong Number Notorious Sunset Boulevard 1950 and To Kill a Mockingbird 1962 Lawrence illustrates how women s voices are positioned within narratives that require their submission to patriarchal roles and how their attempts to speak provoke increasingly severe repression She also shows how women s natural ability to speak is interrupted made difficult or conditioned to a suffocating degree by sound technology itself Telephones phonographs voice overs and dubbing are foregrounded called upon to silence women and to restore the primacy of the image Unlike the usage of voice by feminist and literary critics to discuss broad issues of authorship and point of view in film studies the physical voice itself is a primary focus Echo and Narcissus shows how assumptions about the deficiencies of women's voices and speech are embedded in sound's history technology uses and marketing Moreover the construction of the woman's voice is inserted into the ideologically loaded cinematic and narrative conventions governing the representation of women in Hollywood film Sex and Character Otto Weininger, 2005-04-14 Otto Weininger's controversial book Sex and Character first published in Vienna in 1903 is a prime example of the conflicting discourses central to its time antisemitism scientific racism and biologism misogyny the cult and crisis of masculinity psychological introspection versus empiricism German idealism the women's movement and the idea of human emancipation the quest for sexual liberation and the debates about homosexuality Combining rational reasoning with irrational outbursts in the context of today's scholarship Sex and Character speaks to issues of gender race cultural identity the roots of Nazism and the intellectual history of modernism and modern European culture This new translation presents for the first time the entire text including Weininger's extensive appendix with amplifications of the text and bibliographical references in a reliable English translation together with a substantial introduction that places the book in its cultural and historical context

Woman and Her Era Eliza Woodson Burhans Farnham, 1864 The Perils and Promise of Moroccan Cinema Kevin Dwyer, 2025-03-13 Based on extended field research and meetings with members of Morocco's film world this book traces the development of Moroccan cinema over the past three decades Drawing from his extensive work on Moroccan cinema Kevin Dwyer discusses important aspects of Moroccan film culture such as freedom of expression the role of women cultural diversity the promotion of culture the role of humor the shifting emphasis on the urban autobiographical aspects of films and the development of documentary films Dwyer closely analyzes a significant number of Moroccan films providing crucial details about filmmakers historical context and comparisons with the cinemas of Tunisia Algeria and Egypt The Southwestern Reporter, 1908
