for peace but what is it exactly How do we find it and how can we bring peace to our lives and our communities Jean Vanier reflects on recent world events identifying the sources of conflict and fear within and among individuals communities and nations that thwart us in our quest for peace Peace is not just the work of governments or armies or diplomats he argues but the task of each one of us We can all become makers of peace We can do our part And though it s easy to be a love of peace and much more difficult to be a worker for peace Vanier shows us that ordinary people unknown and unrecognized are transforming our world little by little finding peace in our neighborhoods and lighting the way to change Here We Stand

Craig L. Nessel, Victor I. Vieth, 2025-07-17 Although the life and writings of Martin Luther and other reformers have a great deal to say about children and our need to protect them from maltreatment this legacy of the Lutheran churches and of Christianity as a whole has largely been forgotten Here We Stand reclaims the Lutheran heritage as it sets forth a Lutheran theological and ethical foundation for the church s response to child abuse The book models rooting our response to child abuse in fertile biblical and theological soil Written by Lutheran theologians and child abuse prevention experts the groundbreaking book provides practical direction for the pastoral ministry of clergy and for congregations that wish to develop robust policies and practices in order to protect children Part 1 Lutheran Theological Foundations for Addressing Child Abuse explores core Lutheran commitments by retrieving historical confessional and theological sources Part 2 Lutheran Interpretation of Challenging Biblical Texts addresses misinterpretations of Scripture and the Lutheran traditions Part 3 Lutheran Theology Addressing the Sin of Child Abuse provides practical instruction for ministry challenges related to child abuse
